Perspectives on Consumer Culture Theory and Research Renáta Sedláková, Pavel Zahrádka, 2013-02-21 In the post socialist countries the subject of consumption has not received sufficient attention from the perspective of Consumer Culture Theory The opinion has long prevailed among the majority of social scientists from this region that consumer society and consumptive behaviour is a socially destructive phenomenon and one of the main causes of problems in contemporary society This impression has prevented them from scrutinizing the symbolic dimension of consumption and led them to a critical analysis of the social causes and environmental consequences of excessive consumption The examination of symbolic aspects of consumer culture or the mutual interaction of culture and marketing communication for example have remained outside the realm of academic interest The absence of comprehensive academic interest in the topic of consumer culture does not however mean that consumer culture is not a subject of research Such research instead takes place outside of the sphere of the university in the commercial sector and is primarily focused on issues of how to successfully sell products and services Due to competitive concerns commercial research into consumer culture has led to the privatization of its results which runs contrary to the ideal of science as an open and critical project The goal of this book is to create a counterbalance to this science in the shadows and overcome the mutual distrust between the academic and commercial spheres and make possible the transfer of recent discoveries between the two parties This publication is dedicated to the exploration of three areas of consumer culture research on consumer culture and consumer behaviour in post socialist countries especially in the Czech Republic new developments in the theory of consumer culture and innovative methodological approaches to its research and finally to recent criticism of consumer culture and consumerism It emerged from the collaboration of a team of authors made up of leading European researchers in the field of consumer culture such as Kate Soper London Metropolitan University Franz Liebl Berlin University of the Arts and Rainer Gries University of Vienna as well as promising young scholars from the Czech Republic Great Britain Sweden Serbia Poland and Portugal This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of sociology cultural studies marketing and market research Global Perspectives on Media Events in Contemporary Society Fox, Andrew, 2016-02-25 Media events have been described as broadcasts that involve an engaged audience viewing the same event simultaneously though this definition is still relevant the way media outlets interact with and react to their audiences has greatly changed This is in part due to the emergence of social media platforms which allow a participatory audience something that genre specific television channels now rely on Because these genre specific 24 hour channels seek to hook viewers with hyperbolic presentation and the illusion of large media events the original definition must be adapted Global Perspectives on Media Events in Contemporary Society seeks to re define the role of the media in relaying information about current events within a modern context Determining what constitutes as and the proper presentation of a media event is of great importance given the ubiquity of media consumption This book approaches the topic from historical ceremonial and globally cultural perspectives while addressing news sports and other significant current events It is a vital resource for students and teachers of communication media and journalism professionals in the media industry policy makers and sociologists Contemporary Youth Activism Jerusha Conner, Sonia M. Rosen, 2016-09-26 A cutting edge study showcases the emergence of contemporary youth activism in the United States its benefits to young people its role in strengthening society and its powerful social justice implications At a time when youth are too often dismissed as either empowered consumers or disempowered deviants it is vital to understand how these young people are pushing back challenging such constructions and advancing new possibilities for their institutions and themselves This book examines the latest developments in the field of contemporary youth activism CYA and documents the myriad ways in which youth activists are effecting social change even as they experience personal change By taking public political action on a range of intersecting issues youth activists are shifting their own developmental pathways shaping public policy and shaking up traditional paradigms Section one of the book offers a historical perspective on youth activism in the United States followed by a discussion of contemporary examples of CYA for social justice The second and third sections analyze the individual institutional and ideological effects of CYA arguing that youth activism works to promote change at three levels self systems and in the broader society Readers will come away with a clearer understanding of the many ways in which today s youth activists are working to reimagine and remake American democracy reawakening the promise of a multi issue progressive movement for social justice A Modern Perspective of Islamic Economics and Finance Ahmet Suayb Gundogdu, 2019-02-05

This book aims to develop a blue print for Islamic economics and finance by starting at the grass roots of trade and commerce It positions Islamic finance within the economic priorities of Islam while providing a cohesive understanding of Islamic economics and finance in a clear and practical manner

Young People and Social Media: Contemporary Children's Digital Culture Steve Gennaro, Blair Miller, 2021-10-05 Young People and Social Media Contemporary Children's Digital Culture explores the practices relationships consequences benefits and outcomes of children's experiences with on and through social media by bringing together a vast array of different ideas about childhood youth and young people's lives These ideas are drawn from scholars working in a variety of disciplines and rather than just describing the social construction of childhood or an understanding of children's lives this collection seeks to encapsulate not only how young people exist on social media but also how their physical lives are impacted by their presence on social media One of the aims of this volume in exploring youth interaction with social media is to unpack the structuring of digital technologies in terms of how young people access the technology to use it as a means of communication a platform for identification and a tool for participation in their larger social world During longstanding and continued experience in the broad field of youth and digital culture we have come to realize that not only is the subject matter increasing in importance at an immeasurable rate but the amount of textbooks and or edited collections has lagged behind considerably There is a lack of sources that fully encapsulate the canon of texts for the discipline or the rich diversity and complexity of overlapping subject areas that create the fertile ground for studying young people's lives and culture The editors hope that this text will occupy some of that void and act as a catalyst for future interdisciplinary collections Young People and Social Media Contemporary Children's Digital Culture will appeal to undergraduate students studying Child and Youth Studies and given the interdisciplinary nature of the collection scholars researchers and students at all levels working in anthropology psychology sociology communication studies cultural studies media studies education and human rights among others Practitioners in these fields will also find this collection of particular interest Proceedings of The 7th International Conference on Contemporary Education, Social Sciences and Humanities (Philosophy of Being Human as the Core of Interdisciplinary Research) (ICCESSH 2022) Olga Chistyakova,Iana Roumbal,2023-02-10 This is an open access book The aim of the Conference is to provide a shared platform for academics scholars PhD students and graduate students with different cultural backgrounds to present and discuss research developments and innovations in the fields of contemporary education social sciences and humanities are referred with the understanding of the Human being Papers concerning education philosophy philosophical anthropology sociology theory and history of culture epistemology religions ethics are strongly related with analyzing of the Human being will be considered Interdisciplinary approach and comparative perspective are encouraged
