
PLANNING POLICY GUIDANCE:

PLANNING AND THE HISTORIC ENVIRONMENT

Planning policy guidance notes set out Government policy on planning issues and provide guidance to local authorities and others on the operation of the planning system. They also explain the relationship between planning policies and other policies which have an important bearing on issues of development and land use. Local planning authorities must take their content into account in preparing their development plans. The guidance may also be material to decisions on individual planning applications and appeals.

This PPG, which is issued jointly by the Secretary of State for the Environment and the Secretary of State for National Heritage, updates the advice in Department of the Environment Circular 8/87.

England's Schools Elain Harwood, 2015-04-01 For most of us school was our first detailed experience of a building outside the homes of our parents friends and relations Many people react emotionally when their old school charged with so many memories is closed or demolished Not all school buildings are worthy of designation but many are major local landmarks and demonstrate an important part of our society s evolution This book aims to raise awareness of the wide range of school buildings built in England from the Reformation to the Millennium and discusses which buildings may be worthy of greater appreciation and preservation It summarises the development of schools and analyses how social attitudes have been expressed in their architecture and planning Finally it looks at the adaptation of older schools to modern needs and new uses for schools around the country drawing on examples of best practice from

Historic Building Inspectors and Advisers Survey and Repair of Traditional Buildings Richard Oxley,2015-11-17

Understanding the unique requirements of traditional buildings is crucial to providing appropriate guidance on their care and repair This book will help practitioners identify the particular issues relating to older buildings and the problems they may encounter when surveying and repairing them With the use of examples the author provides invaluable information on how traditional buildings perform emphasizing the need for a sensitive and sustainable approach which also takes account of the specific needs of the building The book examines all aspects to be included in any assessment for survey and repair and points out in detail the potential pitfalls It also explores the controversial issues surrounding the treatment of damp and timber decay advocating solutions that are appropriate to older buildings rather than using standard often damaging methods of treatment The extensive case studies not only illustrate good conservation in practice but also how projects can go badly wrong and how mistakes could have been avoided This title explores the causes of movement and the actions required It advises on alternatives to chemical treatment for damp and timber decay It provides fully illustrated case studies with numerous photographs It emphasizes a sustainable approach to conservation It outlines the key legislation issues It includes the Historic Buildings Prosecution Fines Database and other useful appendices Access to the Historic
