our understanding of things divine Insightful readings of Plato's Apology Euthyphro and chapter three of tractate Ta'anit explore the relationship of prophets and philosophers fathers and sons and gods and men among other themes bringing to light the tension between rational inquiry and faith that is essential to the speeches and deeds of both Socrates and the Talmudic sages In reflecting on the pedagogy of these texts Howland shows in detail how Talmudic aggadah and Platonic drama and narrative speak to different sorts of readers in seeking mimetically to convey the living ethos of rabbinic Judaism and Socratic philosophising
