

She runs.

It takes only two words to make a sentence.

Every sentence needs two things to be a complete sentence:

SUBJECT and VERB.

The subject of a sentence tells you who or what the sentence is about. The verb of a sentence tells you what action the subject is doing. In the short sentence: She runs. The word She is the subject and runs is the verb. Every complete sentence must have a subject and a verb.

Some sentences have a subject and a verb but will tell you about someone or something.

For example:

The girl is tall.

The subject: girl

The verb: is

The sentence is telling you about the girl. Notice the word the is added to the sentence too. This word is called an article. Other articles are a and an.

Some examples: A cat purrs. An apple is red.

Of course, most sentences are more than two words. The other words in sentences are describing words. The describing words tell you more about the subject or nouns in the sentence. Nouns are persons, places, or things.

Describing words include adjectives that tell you about a noun.

The red apple is on the green tree.

The words underlined are called describing words or adjectives because they tell you more
