Raiders from the Sea John Lodwick,2018-11-30 The Special Boat Service was a small force during World War II never more than about 300 men But that did not stop it from inflicting great damage on the enemy In the Mediterranean arena and in the Aegean which the Germans controlled after the fall of Greece and Crete this small commando force kept up a constant campaign of harassment thus pinning down enemy forces and preventing their joining other fronts They travelled by night to their targets using submarines small surface vessels or canoes with the commanders of the vessels often putting themselves in danger in order to help the men carry out their dangerous and secret missions They were reliant on the co operation of the fiercely independent Greeks and in particular the Cretans all working together in their common objective against the German invaders John Lodwick took part in the SBS Mediterranean campaign and writes from personal experience with the panache and verve of the squadron itself For it is more than the story of the remarkable men who made up the force men such as Anders Lassen the Dreadful Dane who was awarded a posthumous VC Fitzroy Maclean Eric Newby Jock Lapraik and Lord Jellicoe who commanded the squadron for almost two years and who contributed a memorable foreword to this memoir Strong determined individuals together the men of the Special Boat Service formed a deadly cohesive fighting force which contributed much to the war in the Mediterranean and to whom John Lodwick s book is an excitingly readable tribute My Youth by Sea and Land Charles Loftus,1876
