Sentry Peak Harry Turtledove,2000-09-01 THE STRANGEST CIVIL WAR NOVEL YOU EVER READ When Avram became King of Detina he declared he intended to liberate the blond serfs from their ties to the land The northern provinces where most of the serfs lived would not accept his lordship The hot north was a land of broad estates whose noble overlords took the serfs labor and gave back next to nothing Those provinces left Detina choosing Avram s cousin Grand Duke Geoffrey as their king in his place Avram said he had inherited all of the kingdom not just a part He refused to let Geoffrey rule the north without a challenge And the southron provinces full of merchants and smallholders stood solidly behind him So he sent armies clad in gray against the north Geoffrey raised his own army and arrayed his men in blue made from the indigo much raised on northern estates to distinguish them from the southrons Avram held the larger part of the kingdom and the wealthier part too But Geoffrey s men were bolder soldiers And the north taken all in all had better wizards than the southrons did The war raged for almost three years until Avram s General named Guildenstern and his great lieutenant Doubting George moved against the northern army under Count Thraxton the Braggart and his commander of unicorn riders Ned of the Forest which held the town of Rising Rock close by Sentry Peak At the publisher s request this title is sold without DRM Digital Rights Management

Ashdown,2009-10-16 General William Tecumseh Sherman's devastating March to the Sea in 1864 burned a swath through the cities and countryside of Georgia and into the history of the American Civil War As they moved from Atlanta to Savannah destroying homes buildings and crops killing livestock and consuming supplies Sherman and the Union army ignited not only southern property but also imaginations in both the North and the South By the time of the general's death in 1891 when one said The March no explanation was required That remains true today Legends and myths about Sherman began forming during the March itself and took more definitive shape in the industrial age in the late nineteenth century Sherman's March in Myth and Memory examines the emergence of various myths surrounding one of the most enduring campaigns in the annals of military history Edward Caudill and Paul Ashdown provide a brief overview of Sherman's life and his March but their focus is on how these myths came about such as one description of a 60 mile wide path of destruction and how legends about Sherman and his campaign have served a variety of interests Caudill and Ashdown argue that these myths have been employed by groups as disparate as those endorsing the Old South aristocracy and its Lost Cause and by others who saw the March as evidence of the superiority of industrialism in modern America over a retreating agrarianism Sherman's March in Myth and Memory looks at the general's treatment in the press among historians on stage and screen and in literature from the time of the March to the present day The authors show us the many ways in which Sherman has been portrayed in the media and popular culture and how his devastating March has been stamped into our collective memory The Enchanter

The Stolen Throne. The fragile peace between the Empire of Videssos and the nation of Makuran had shattered. War came and the King of Makuran lay dead on the field of battle. Worse a power mad minister had seized the throne and the rightful heir had disappeared. Abivard son of a Makuran lord who also had fallen in the same battle realized that his only hope of saving his family and his land was to find the missing heir though that would mean he would be branded traitor and become the target of every armed man who served the usurper and of his nation's most powerful sorcerers. Abivard's only hope lay in the form of a perplexing prophecy of a field a hill and a shield shining across the sea. If the prophecy was true it might lead him to the rightful ruler of Makuran but first he would have to survive long enough to solve its riddle. Hammer and Anvil. The once mighty Empire of Videssos had a despot on its throne the pretender Genesios who enjoyed the opulent wealth at his command while barbarian attackers and invading enemies ravaged Videssos borders. Some wondered if Videssos would even exist before many more years had passed. None within the empire dared oppose Genesios but young Maniakes exiled with his father to a faraway island raised a military force and set out to liberate his homeland. The forces against him were formidable he faced Videssos external foes as

Calvert,Kathy Calvert,2003 Annotation Don Forest Quest for the Summits tells the story of one of the most colorful perhaps eccentric people of the Canadian West who is also an award winning mountaineer Yet Don Forest didn t take up the sport until he was in his mid 40s At a time when most men are thinking of retiring from strenuous activities Don was busy setting records He was the first person to climb all 27 of the 11 000 foot peaks in the Canadian Rockies and Columbia Mountains in one year and in 1991 at age 71 he was the oldest person to climb Mount Logan Canada s highest mountain In 1992 he celebrated his 72nd birthday with friends cake and champagne on the summit of Holy Cross Mountain a 9000 foot high mountain in southwest Alberta Kathy Calvert s biography of Don Forest runs the gamut of emotion Her narrative swings from the humor in Don s eccentricities and the pathos of Don s dealing with close friends lost in the mountains to the pride and satisfaction felt when Don s climbing career was recognized by his peers across Canada Advance and Retreat Harry Turtledove,2002-12-01 THE NORTH SHALL RISE AGAIN When Avram became King of Detina he declared he intended to liberate the blond serfs from their ties to the land This noble assertion immediately plunged the kingdom into a civil war that would prove long and bloody and set brother against brother The northern provinces dependent on their serf s labor seceded choosing Avram s cousin Grand Duke Geoffrey as their king To save the kingdom Avram sent armies clad in gray against the slave holding North battling Geoffrey s army arrayed in blue Though King Avram held more land and wealth than Geoffrey Geoffrey s men were better soldiers and the North had better and more powerful wizards Still as the war raged on greater population and superior organization began to tell and the tide turned against the North Even so the war is far from over The South still faces two formidable leaders General Bell whose loss of a leg has only strengthened his resolve and Ned of the Forest whose unicorn riders are the most dangerous force on the Northern side And though the Southern sorcerers have become more adept at war spells use of sorcery is unpredictable as the North learned earlier when its forces held an almost impregnable position but retreated in terror when an overconfident sorcerer s spell went awry Though victory seems in sight for the South its armies must now battle the North on its own ground ground which will prove treacherous and deadly At the publisher s request this title is sold without DRM
