Serving Science And Society In The New Millenium Compass Series:

Preaching in the New Millennium Frederick J. Streets, 2005-01-01 Fifteen distinguished religious leaders reflect upon the moral social and political nature of our time The sermons originated in the Tercentennial celebrations at Yale University and they provide a vivid snapshot of the rich religious history of Yale and its contribution to the character of our nation

Materials Science and Engineering Serving Society R.P.H. Chang, R. Roy, M. Doyama, S. Somiya, 1998-12-23 This symposium was organised with the aim of encouraging collaboration in international science and engineering communities for the benefit of human kind It consisted of invited talks by experts on materials and poster presentation papers Approximately 140 scientists participated and the resulting proceedings present an up to date review of the research in this area

Society and the Environment Michael Carolan, 2018-05-15 Society and the Environment examines today's environmental controversies within a socio organizational context After outlining the contours of pragmatic environmentalism Carolan considers the pressures that exist where ecology and society collide such as population growth and its associated increased demands for food and energy He also investigates how various ecological issues such as climate change are affecting our very own personal health Finally he drills into the social structural dynamics including political economy and the international legal system that create ongoing momentum for environmental ills This interdisciplinary text features a three part structure in each chapter that covers fast facts about the issue at hand examines its wide ranging implications and offers balanced consideration of possible real world solutions New to this edition are Movement Matters boxes which showcase grassroots movements that have affected legislation Discussion questions and key terms enhance the text's usefulness making Society and the Environment the perfect learning tool for courses on environmental sociology

Advanced Materials & Processes, 1998 The Destiny of Humanity L Zhang Ph.D., 2022-07-10 In recent years humanity has experienced dramatic advances in medicine science and technology But we also face unprecedented challenges including deadly conflicts major disasters and even global pandemics Importantly the modern human experience has demonstrated the awesome power of scientific principles to dramatically improve health and extend life We've also created the internet along with powerful computers mobile devices and robots It is therefore worth exploring the idea that these scientific principles may also help humanity to overcome these unprecedented challenges facing humanity By analyzing major scientific principles of chemistry biology physics and statistics we can apply their relevance to human traits the interaction between humans and nature and the interaction among humans The Destiny of Humanity crystallizes a unifying moral compass that is compatible with advanced science and technology to guide the application of powerful emerging technologies It aims to elicit a new way of thinking about the grave challenges facing humanity

Integrated Watershed Management H. M. Gregersen, Peter F. Ffolliott, Kenneth N. Brooks, 2007 Land and water management is especially critical as the use of upstream watersheds can drastically affect large numbers of people living in downstream watersheds This work examines the institutional and technical context for managing watersheds and river basins including the involvement of both the public and private sectors The Compass ,1999

Cultural Protest in Journalism, Documentary Films and the Arts Daniel H. Mutibwa,2019-02-13 Cultural Protest in Journalism Documentary Films and the Arts Between Protest and Professionalisation entails a comprehensive account of the history and trajectory of contemporary journalistic documentary film and arts and cultural actors rooted partially or wholly in radical alternative community voluntary participatory and independent movements primarily in Britain and Germany It focuses particularly on the examination of production and organisational contexts of selected case studies some of which date from the countercultural era The book takes a transnational and interdisciplinary approach encompassing a range of theoretical perspectives drawn from the political economy of communication tradition alternative media scholarship journalism studies critical sociological and cultural studies of media industries cultural industries research and critical and social theory in conjunction with extensive ethnographic fieldwork It does so to reveal the obscure nature of media and cultural production and organisation at seventeen media and cultural actors based in Britain and Germany including South Africa and Nigeria A particular focus is placed on how such actors balance competing imperatives of a civic socio political professional artistic and commercial nature as well as various systemic pressures and on how they navigate the resultant ambivalences paradoxes and tensions in their day to day work In essence the book highlights key insights into a changing nature and quality of engagement with social and political realities in protest cultures
