Life Between the Tides Adam Nicolson, 2025-08-22 Adam

Nicolson explores the marine life inhabiting seashore rockpools with a scientist's curiosity and a poet's wonder in this beautifully illustrated book The sea is not made of water Creatures are its genes Look down as you crouch over the shallows and you will find a periwinkle or a prawn a claw displaying crab or a cluster of anemones ready to meet you No need for binoculars or special stalking skills go to the rocks and the living will say hello Inside each rock pool tucked into one of the infinite crevices of the tidal coastline lies a rippling silent unknowable universe Below the stillness of the surface course different currents of endless motion the ebb and flow of the tide the steady forward propulsion of the passage of time and the tiny lifetimes of the rock pool's creatures all of which coalesce into the grand narrative of evolution In Life Between the Tides Adam Nicolson investigates one of the most revelatory habitats on earth Under his microscope we see a prawn's head become a medieval helmet and a group of winkles transform into a Dickensian social scene with mollusks munching on Stilton and glancing at their pocket watches Or rather is a winkle more like Achilles an ancient hero throwing himself toward death for the sake of glory For Nicolson who writes with scientific rigor and a poet's sense of wonder The American Scholar the world of the rock pools is infinite and as intricate as our own As Nicolson journeys between the tides both in the pools he builds along the coast of Scotland and through the timeline of scientific discovery he is accompanied by great thinkers no one can escape the pull of the sea We meet Virginia Woolf and her Waves a young T S Eliot peering into his own rock pool in Massachusetts even Nicolson's father in law a classical scholar who would hunt for amethysts along the shoreline his mind on Heraclitus and the other philosophers of ancient Greece And of course scientists populate the pages not only their discoveries but also their doubts and errors their moments of quiet observation and their thrilling realizations Everything is within the rock pools where you can look beyond your own reflection and find the miraculous an inch beneath your nose The soul wants to be wet Heraclitus said in Ephesus twenty five hundred years ago This marvelous book demonstrates why it is so Includes Color and Black and White Photographs Burren Country Paul Clements,2011-05-14 For 20 years Paul Clements has been tapping into the Burren's hidden crevices drawn to its history mystery and peculiarities He writes absorbingly about the rocks hills and walls and the range of colours the animals he rubs shoulders with and about subjects which excite him such as the exotic wild flowers ancient ruins early morning birdsong and the smell of whiskey in historic pubs A hunter and gatherer of information and lore on the Burren the author ferrets out little known facts and weaves them together to create these carefully distilled essays Experiments on Reality Tim Robinson,2019-09-05 Long recognized as perhaps the greatest non fiction writer at work in Ireland for his vast polymathic accounts of nature and culture in the Aran Islands and Connemara Tim Robinson is also an essayist of genius whose fascinations range across the globe In Experiments on Reality he shines the light of his intelligence on his own life and on some of the most fascinating questions in science and culture Robinson brings us to his boyhood in Yorkshire National Service in Malaya in the 1950s and his years as a visual artist in Istanbul Vienna and London He revisits some of the scenes of his researches for the maps he made of Aran and Connemara places that continue to throw up remarkable stories and puzzles And he performs astonishing literary thought experiments playing with the boundaries of the essay form scientific inquiry and storytelling Experiments on Reality is a masterpiece from one of the great minds of our time One of the greatest of all landscape writers When the material world is brought forth for us so beautifully with such rapt attention and illuminating insight we are reminded of how lucky we are to be part of it Fintan O Toole Irish Times PRAISE FOR THE CONNEMARA TRILOGY One of the most remarkable non fiction projects undertaken in English Robert MacFarlane Spectator Robinson is a marvel the supreme practitioner of geo graphy the writing of places Fintan O Toole Observer Books of the Year One of contemporary Ireland's finest literary stylists This is a book that does justice in every sense of that phrase to the frequently betrayed people whose stories it incarnates and to their strange and beautiful corner of the world Joseph O Connor Guardian A masterpiece of travel and topographical writing and a miraculous vivid and engrossing meditation on landscape and history and the sacred mood of places Colm T ib n Irish Times Books of the Year One of the finest of contemporary prose stylists John Burnside Irish Times He is that rarest of phenomena a scientist and an artist and his method is to combine scientific rigour with artistic reverie in a seamless blend that both informs and delights John Banville Guardian Breathtaking the West of Ireland has found its ultimate laureate Patricia Craig TLS Dazzling an indubitable classic Giles Foden Cond Nast Traveller Last Night's Fun Ciaran Carson,1998-03-17 Last Night's Fun is a sparking celebration of music and life that is itself a literary performance of the highest order Carson's inspired jumble of recording history poetry tall tales and polemic captures the sound and vigor of a ruthlessly unsentimental music Last Night's Fun is remarkable for its liveliness honesty scholarship and spontaneous joy certainly there has never been a book about Irish music like this one and few books ever written anywhere about the experience of music can compare with it The Bioregional Imagination Tom Lynch,Cheryll Glotfelty,Karla Armbruster,2012 Bioregionalism is an innovative way of thinking about place and planet from an ecological perspective Although bioregional ideas occur regularly in ecocritical writing until now no systematic effort has been made to outline the principles of bioregional literary criticism and to use it as a way to read write understand and teach literature The twenty four original essays here are written by an outstanding selection of international scholars The range of bioregions covered is global and includes such diverse places as British Columbia s Meldrum Creek and Italy s Po River Valley the Arctic and the Outback There are even forays into cyberspace and outer space In their comprehensive introduction the editors map the terrain of the bioregional movement including its history and potential to inspire and invigorate place based and environmental literary criticism Responding to bioregional tenets this volume is divided into four sections The essays in the Reinhabiting section narrate experiments in living in place and restoring damaged environments The Rereading essays practice bioregional literary criticism both by examining texts with strong ties to bioregional paradigms and by opening other less obvious texts to bioregional analysis In Reimagining the essays push bioregionalism to evolve by expanding its corpus of texts coupling its perspectives with other approaches or challenging its core constructs Essays in the Renewal section address bioregional pedagogy beginning with local habitat studies and concluding with musings about the Internet In response to the environmental crisis we must reimagine our relationship to the places we inhabit This volume shows how literature and literary studies are fundamental tools to such a reimagining Music and Irish Identity Gerry Smyth,2016-10-26 Music and Irish Identity represents the latest stage in a life long project for Gerry Smyth focusing here on the ways in which music engages with particular aspects of Irish identity The nature of popular music and the Irish identity it supposedly articulates have both undergone profound change in recent years the first as a result of technological and wider industrial changes in the organisation and dissemination of music as seen for example with digital platforms such as YouTube Spotify and iTunes A second factor has been Ireland s spectacular fall from economic grace after the demise of the Celtic Tiger and the ensuing crisis of national identity Smyth argues that if as the stereotypical association would have it the Irish have always been a musical race then that association needs re examination in the light of developments in relation to both cultural practice and political identity This book contributes to that process through a series of related case studies that are both scholarly and accessible Some of the principal ideas broached in the text include the re establishment of music as a key object of Irish cultural studies the theoretical limitations of traditional musicology the development of new methodologies specifically designed to address the demands of Irish music in all its aspects and the impact of economic austerity on musical negotiations of Irish identity The book will be of seminal importance to all those interested in popular music cultural studies and the wider fate of Ireland in the twenty first century The New Nature Writing Jos Smith,2017-05-04 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com In the last decade there has been a proliferation of landscape writing in Britain and Ireland often referred to as The New Nature Writing Rooted in the work of an older generation of environment focused authors and activists this new form is both stylistically innovative and mindful of ecology and conservation practice The New Nature Writing Rethinking the Literature of Place connects these two generations to show that the contemporary energy around the cultures of landscape and place is the outcome of a long standing relationship between environmentalism and the arts Drawing on original interviews with authors archival research and scholarly work in the fields of literary geographies ecocriticism and archipelagic criticism the book covers the work of such writers as Robert Macfarlane Richard Mabey Tim Robinson and Alice Oswald Examining the ways in which these authors have engaged with a wide range of different environments from the edgelands to island spaces Jos Smith reveals how they recreate a resourceful and dynamic sense of localism in rebellion against the homogenising growth of clone town Britain

Face to Face Gabrielle Warnock, Jeff W. O'Connell, 2000 Portraits of writers taken in Kennys Bookshop Galway Politics of Identity in Post-Conflict States Éamonn Ó Ciardha, Gabriela Vojvoda, 2015-12-14 Ireland and the Balkans have come to represent divided and re united communities They both provide effective microcosms of national ethnic political military religious ideological and cultural conflicts in their respective regions and as a result they demonstrate real and imaginary divisions This book will specifically focus on the history politics and literature of Bosnia Herzegovina and Northern Ireland while making comparative reference to some of Europe's other disputed and divided regions Using case studies such as Kosovo and Serbia Lithuania Germany Poland Russia and Belarus Greece and Macedonia it examines space place and border discourse the topography of war and violence post war settlement and reconciliation and the location and negotiation of national ethnic religious political and cultural identities The book will be of particular interest to scholars and students of cultural studies history politics Irish studies Slavonic studies area studies and literary studies Unfolding Irish landscapes Derek Gladwin, Christine Cusick, 2016-01-01 This is the first scholarly edited collection devoted to the work of the Anglo Irish writer and cartographer Tim Robinson Weaving a Way Home Leslie Van Gelder, 2008 Weaving a Way Home will appeal to those deeply interested in knowing how we forge relationships with places and how that shapes who we are BOOK JACKET

Historical Dictionary of Ireland Frank A. Biletz, 2013-11-14 All places undergo change but in few has this change been quite as sweeping as Ireland both the independent Republic of Ireland and dependent Northern Ireland so it is good to see where it is heading at present Obviously that has to be judged on the background of where it is coming from not only over the past decade or so but over centuries and indeed millennia This new edition of Historical Dictionary of Ireland is an excellent resource for discovering the history of Ireland This is done through a chronology an introductory essay and an extensive bibliography The cross referenced dictionary section has over 600 entries on significant persons places and events political parties and institutions including the Catholic church with period forays into literature music and the arts This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Ireland Where Land Meets Sea

Anna Ryan, 2016-02-11 Drawing together philosophical empirical and academic thinking this book focuses on generating awareness of the relationship forged between self and surroundings It details research undertaken at two coastal sites the South Wall in Dublin city and the Maharees peninsula in Co Kerry Ireland Sixty two participants were engaged in photography and drawing to enable this exploration of spatial experience The participants photographs and drawings present how spatial sensibilities can be revealed by becoming more attentive to the immediacy of bodily knowledge our more than cognitive experience Their communications resonate with the philosophers and theorists considered including Merleau Ponty Edward Casey Gilles Deleuze Dalibor Vesely and contemporary cultural geographers From exploring the experienced spatiality of the meeting of land and sea this book begins to suggest an alternative politics of the coast Wittgenstein in Ireland Richard Wall, 2000 Having visited Ireland regularly during the 1930s Ludwig Wittgenstein resigned his Cambridge philosophy professorship in 1947 and moved there living in a fishing village on the Atlantic coast and hotels in Dublin and the Wicklow Mountains Although Wittgenstein spent some time out of the country Ireland was effectively his base for three very productive years during which he worked on what would become one of his key books the posthumously published Philosophical Investigations Wittgenstein in Ireland represents the first sustained account of Wittgenstein s time in Ireland placing it in its historical context Wall pays a good deal of attention to the representation of the Irish landscape in which the Austrian philosopher found himself able to work a large part of his writings were produced in the bleak landscapes of Ireland and Norway

Ireland, Memory and Performing the Historical Imagination Mary P. Caulfield, 2014-12-09 This book explores the performance of Irish collective memories and forgotten histories It proposes an alternative and more comprehensive criterion of Irish theatre practices These practices can be defined as the rejected contested and undervalued plays and performativities that are integral to Ireland s political and cultural landscapes Atlas of the Irish Rural Landscape F. H. A. Aalen, Kevin Whelan, Matthew Stout, 1997-01-01 Lush and green the beauty of Ireland s landscape is legendary The Atlas of the Irish Rural Landscape has harnessed the expertise of dozens of specialists to produce an exciting and pioneering study which aims to increase understanding and appreciation for the landscape as an important element of Irish national heritage and to provide a much needed basis for an understanding of landscape conservation and planning Essentially cartographic in approach the Atlas is supplemented by diagrams photographs paintings and explanatory text Regional case studies covering the whole of Ireland from north to south are included along with historical background The impact of human civilization upon Ireland s geography and environment is well documented and the contributors to the Atlas deal with contemporary changes in the landscape resulting from developments in Irish agriculture forestry bog exploitation tourism housing urban expansion and other forces The Atlas of the Rural Irish Landscape is a book which aims to educate and inform the general reader and student about the relationship between human activity and the landscape It is a richly illustrated beautifully written and immensely authoritative work that will be the guide to Ireland s geography for many years to come The Poetry of James Joyce Reconsidered Marc C. Conner, 2012-04-29 To many James Joyce is simply the greatest novelist of the twentieth century. Scholars have pored over every minutia of his public and private life from utility bills to deeply personal letters in search of new insights into his life and work. Yet for the most part they have paid scant attention to the two volumes of poetry he published. The nine contributors to The Poetry of James Joyce Reconsidered convincingly challenge the critical consensus that Joyce's poetry is inferior to his prose. They reveal how his poems provide entries into Joyce's most personal and intimate thoughts and ideas. They also demonstrate that Joyce's poetic explorations of the nature of knowledge, sexual intimacy, the changing quality of love, the relations between writing and music, and the religious dimensions of the human experience were fundamental to his development as a writer of prose. This exciting new work is sure to spark new interest in Joyce's poetry and will become an essential and indispensable resource for students and scholars of his life and work.
