The People's Peace Process in Northern Ireland C. Irwin,2002-11-26 Many important lessons have come out of the negotiations for the Belfast Agreement This book explains how public opinion polls were used in support of the Northern Ireland peace process Significantly it was the politicians who decided the questions so that they could map out areas of compromise and common ground that their supporters would accept This book explains how the work was done so that others can apply the benefits of this experience to their own peace building activities Skills in Neighbourhood Work Paul Henderson,David N. Thomas,2013 Completely rewritten and updated this fourth edition retains the practical information but sets it in a contemporary context The authors explain the skills knowledge and techniques needed to work effectively in a neighbourhood setting Amendments to Title I (LEAA) of the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 United States. Incorporating HCP 660 i iv session 2005 06 previously unpublished Policing Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Home Affairs Committee,2010 This report examines the proposal contained in the consultation paper Policing in the 21st century reconnecting police and the people Cm 7925 ISBN 9780101792523 for the introduction in England and Wales of elected Police and Crime Commissioners and the creation of Police and Crime Panels in each force area to scrutinise the Commissioners The Commissioners would replace Police Authorities and be responsible for holding Chief Constables to account The first elections are scheduled for May 2012 Members of the Committee held widely differing views about the principle of elected Commissioners but this inquiry seeks to determine how these proposals can best be delivered The Committee believes there should be a cooling off period of four years if a former senior police officer decides to stand as a Police and Crime Commissioner in the same area in which they have served This restriction is necessary because otherwise they could be in the position of scrutinising decisions they had made while still in office Commissioners should be responsible for the budget staff estate and other assets in their force area Also recommended is a need for greater clarity on what is meant by operational independence there is currently no statutory definition of operational independence and it should be defined in a written memorandum of understanding between the Home Secretary Chief Constables and Police and Crime Commissioners The Police and Crime Panels should be comprised primarily of elected representatives from Councils in the force area but also of a significantly smaller number of independent members Contemporary Approaches in Equality, Diversity and Inclusion Berk Kucukaltan,2023-11-10 Encouraging individuals to adapt and businesses to reshape their resources capabilities and everyday practices this book grounds the contemporary workplace in an EDI mindset that looks beyond temporary pressures and trends to a strong inclusive future Religious Leaders and Conflict Transformation Nukhet A. Sandal,2017-02-16 Religious dimension of contemporary conflicts and the rise of faith based movements worldwide require policymakers to identify the channels through which religious leaders can play a constructive role While religious fundamentalisms are in the news every day we do not hear about the potential and actual role of religious actors in creating a peaceful and just society Countering this trend Sandal draws attention to how religious actors helped prepare the ground for stabilizing political initiatives ranging from abolition of apartheid South Africa to the signing of the Lome Peace Agreement Sierra Leone Taking Northern Ireland as a basis and using declarations and speeches of more than forty years this book builds a new perspective that recognizes the religious actors agency showing how religious actors can have an impact on public opinion and policymaking in today s world Economic Assistance and Conflict Transformation Sean Byrne,2010-10-18 This book examines the role of economic aid in the management and resolution of protracted ethnic conflicts focusing on the case study of Northern Ireland The book describes the results of a study of the role of economic aid within Northern Ireland through the viewpoints of citizens collected in an opinion poll as well as community group leaders whose projects received funding from funding agency civil servants and development officers. The study explains the importance of economic and social development in promoting cross community contact as well as within single identity communities and the need for a multitrack intervention approach to transform the conflict in Northern Ireland. It makes an important contribution to our understanding of how economic assistance impacts on a divided society with a history of protracted violence and provides important perspectives on the peace through development idea. One of the key unanswered questions relating to economic aid and preventing future violence is that of the significance of external economic aid in building peace after violence. By examining the respondents' political imagery, this book expands on existing work on economic aid and peace building in other societies coming out of violence. Northern Ireland's changing social, economic and political context reflects the fact that economic aid and sustainable economic development is a cornerstone of the peacebuilding process. The goal of the book is to provide a foundational knowledge base for students and practitioners about the role of economic aid in building the peace dividend in post accord societies. The book will be of great interest to students of conflict resolution, peacebuilding, Irish politics, peace and conflict studies and politics and IR in general.
