Settling Down:

Settling Down and Settling Up Andrea Katherine Medovarski, 2019-04-08 Comparing second generation children of immigrants in black Canadian and black British women's writing Settling Down and Settling Up extends discourses of diaspora and postcolonialism by expanding recent theory on movement and border crossing While these concepts have recently gained theoretical currency this book argues that they are not always adequate frameworks through which to understand second generation children who wish to reside in place in the nations of their birth Considering migration and settlement as complex interrelated processes that inform each other across multiple generations and geographies Andrea Katherine Medovarski challenges the gendered constructions of nationhood and diaspora with a particular focus on Canadian and British black women writers including Dionne Brand Esi Edugyan and Zadie Smith Re evaluating gender and spatial relations Settling Down and Settling Up argues that local experiences often conceptualized through the language of the feminine and the domestic in black women's writings are no less important than travel and border crossings

Settling Down R. Saxe, 2007-12-09 This book examines the lost voices of returning World War II veterans in the immediate postwar years and shows how the developing Cold War silenced or altered dissenting opinions that many vets expressed upon their return

Meaning in Mid-Life Transitions Edmund A. Sherman, Professor Edmund Sherman, 1987-01-01 This book contributes to an understanding of the nature of mid life transitions and crises by focusing on the unique personal meaning of the transitional experience for the individual There is an implicit structure to the way in which such a transition is experienced by the individual and this can be made explicit by the techniques and methods of the approach outlined and illustrated in the book The value of making this structure explicit is that it enables us to understand and assess the nature and dimensions of the transition whether or not it will reach crisis proportions and to assess possible intervention strategies Meaning in Mid Life Transitions should be of interest to human service practitioners as well as teachers and students of human development and behavior It evidences an integrative approach and structural framework including a series of in depth clinical and research studies

On Settling Robert E. Goodin, 2016-05-31 In a culture that worships ceaseless striving settling seems like giving up But is it On Settling defends the positive value of settling explaining why this disdained practice is not only more realistic but more useful than an excessive ideal of striving In fact the book makes the case that we'd all be lost without settling and that even to strive one must first settle Book jacket flap

Flourishing in Babylon Joe Aldred, 2024-04-30 Black theology has long been about oppression and liberation But is there a different story to tell Can the black story be one about a quest for flourishing through agency and self determination and not only an existence of nihilistic struggle Drawing on a fresh reading of Jeremiah's letter to Jewish exiles and his own Pentecostal tradition Joe Aldred offers a fresh understanding of the Black British experience which draws on a realised eschatology rooted in identity empowerment and an agenda In a contested diasporan context in the shadow of empire there exists opportunity to fully flourish without apology or as Jeremiah puts it to those in exile to settle build and grow

Modern Romance Aziz Ansari, Eric Klinenberg, 2016-06-14 The 1 New York Times Bestseller An engaging look at the often head scratching frequently infuriating mating behaviors that shape our love lives Refinery 29 A hilarious thoughtful and in depth exploration of the pleasures and perils of modern romance from Aziz Ansari the star of Master of None and one of this generation s sharpest comedic voices At some point every one of us embarks on a journey to find love We meet people date get into and out of relationships all with the hope of finding someone with whom we share a deep connection This seems standard now but it s wildly different from what people did even just decades ago Single people today have more romantic options than at any point in human history With technology our abilities to connect with and sort through these options are staggering So why are so many people frustrated Some of our problems are unique to our time Why did this guy just text me an emoji of a pizza Should I go out with this girl even though she listed Combos as one of her favorite snack foods Combos My girlfriend just got a message from some dude named Nathan Who s Nathan Did he just send her a photo of his penis Should I check just to be sure But the transformation of our romantic lives can t be explained by technology alone In a short period of time the whole culture of finding love has changed dramatically A few decades ago people would find a decent person who lived in their neighborhood Their families would meet and after deciding neither party seemed like a murderer they would get married and soon have a kid all by the time they were twenty four Today people marry later than ever and spend years of their lives on a quest to find the perfect person a soul mate For years Aziz Ansari has been aiming his comic insight at modern romance but for Modern Romance the book he decided he needed to take things to another level He teamed up with NYU sociologist Eric Klinenberg and designed a massive research project including hundreds of interviews and focus groups conducted everywhere from Tokyo to Buenos Aires to Wichita They analyzed behavioral data and surveys and created their own online research forum on Reddit which drew thousands of messages They enlisted the world s leading social scientists including Andrew Cherlin Eli Finkel Helen Fisher Sheena Iyengar Barry Schwartz Sherry Turkle and Robb Willer The result is unlike any social science or humor book we ve seen before In Modern Romance Ansari combines his irreverent humor with cutting edge social science to give us an unforgettable tour of our new romantic world Low Life -

Irreverent Reflections from the Bottom of a Glass Jeffrey Bernard, 2019-11-28 Described as the Tony Hancock of journalism for forty years Bernard wrote only about himself and the failures of his life with women drink doctors horses which have become legendary Low Life is an irresistible collection of the best of Bernard s celebrated autobiographical contributions to The Spectator once described as a suicide note in weekly instalments Previously published in two volumes entitled Low Life A Kind of Autobiography and Reach for the Ground these books are now available in a single volume containing all his derisive reflections on life Antiauthoritarian grumpy charming politically incorrect funny drunk and always mischievous Bernard could usually be found at the Coach and Horses pub on London s Greek street a lit cigarette in his mouth and a drink in hand He was joined by famous friends including Francis Bacon Lucian Freud Graham Green Peter O Toole Ian Fleming and many others and their conversations as well as with whomever was tending bar at the time served as the basis for his writing There were in fact times when he was too drunk to write hence the famous unwell notice that went next to the large hastily sketched cartoon that filled its space in the magazine

Social Attitudes in Contemporary China Chen Yu,Fang Wei,Liqing Li,Paul Morrissey,Nie Chen,2016-02-12 Unlike many studies of social attitudes which are based on large scale quantitative surveys or which focus on the attitude of elites this book considers the views of ordinary people and is based on in depth qualitative interviews This approach results in rich nuanced data and is especially helpful for highlighting ambivalent attitudes where respondents may hold positive and negative views on a particular topic views which are liable to change The book examines attitudes on a range of subjects of current importance including views on nationalism and internationalism housing preferences and educational ambitions Throughout the book explores how far attitudes are influenced by traditional Chinese values or by the neo liberal outlook fostered by recent reforms and concludes that materialism and individualism have increased
