Cohen, Teresa Barker, 2016 Through their scientific research and clinical practice husband and wife team Gene D Cohen and Wendy L Miller uncovered new clues about how the aging mind can build resilience and continue growth even during times of grave illness thus setting aside the traditional paradigm of aging as a time of decline Sky Above Clouds tells the inside story of how attitude community creativity and love shape a life with or without health even to our dying Cohen and Miller draw deeply on their own lessons learned as they struggle through aging illness and loss within their own family and eventually Cohen's own untimely death ReAction! Mark A. Griep, Marjorie L. Mikasen, 2009-08-12 ReAction gives a scientist's and artist's response to the dark and bright sides of chemistry found in 140 films most of them contemporary Hollywood feature films but also a few documentaries shorts silents and international films Even though there are some examples of screen chemistry between the actors and of behind the scenes special effects this book is really about the chemistry when it is part of the narrative It is about the dualities of Dr Jekyll vs inventor chemists the invisible man vs forensic chemists chemical weapons vs classroom chemistry chemical companies that knowingly pollute the environment vs altruistic research chemists trying to make the world a better place to live and finally about people who choose to experiment with mind altering drugs vs the drug discovery process Little did Jekyll know when he brought the Hyde formula to his lips that his personality split would provide the central metaphor that would come to describe chemistry in the movies This book explores the two movie faces of this supposedly neutral science Watching films with chemical eyes Dr Jekyll is recast as a chemist engaged in psychopharmaceutical research but who becomes addicted to his own formula He is balanced by the often wacky inventor chemists who make their discoveries by trial and error Sherlock Holmes and the Discarded Cigarette Fred Thursfield, 2012-01-09 London 1895 A well known author a theoretical invention made real and the importance of a sometimes overlooked clue challenge Holmes and Watson to prevent the perfect crime Ms. Holmes of Baker Street C. Flat Aesthetics Christian Moraru, 2022-12-15 Flat Aesthetics seeks to secure a more granular and ontologically demotic handle on the contemporary in American literature While contemporaneity can be viewed as our period Christian Moraru approaches the contemporary as some thing made by things themselves The making of the contemporary is variously restaged by the body of fictional prose under scrutiny here Thus this corpus itself participates in the making of contemporaneity In dialogue with object oriented ontology and various new materialisms Moraru contends that the contemporary does not preexist objects or the novels featuring them it is not their background but an outcome of things self presentation As objects beings or existents present themselves in the present in our now they foster thing configurations that together compose the form of and essentially make the contemporary the present's cultural material signature as Moraru calls it To decipher this signature Flat Aesthetics provides a cross sectional reading of postmillennial American fiction Discussed are solely post 2000 works by writers who have also established themselves over the past two decades or so from Nicole Krauss Michael Chabon and Ben Lerner to Colson Whitehead and Emily St John Mandel Their output Moraru claims bears witness to the onset of a flat aesthetics in American letters after September 11 2001 Organized into five parts the book canvases objectual constellations of contemporaneity shaped by material dynamics of language museality and display spatiality zombification and thing rhetoric and post anthropocentric kinship

Highball, Lawrence Treadwell, 2022-06-30 Highball is an old signal from the train conductor to engineer that the train was clear to start from its stop and proceed at speed Two green balls one above the other were the visual signal Railroads were running long before motion pictures Soon after silent movies were invented directors liked trains in their films as railroading became an important business for America passengers and freight trains From the beginning Hollywood loved trains In the book are over 450 films with the title the year distributed director cast producer distributor and an overview which set forth the key train link Hollywood produced all sort type of films comedy mystery drama Western war adventure crime construction musical and epic with combinations of genre Every film in the book has a railroad link or connection of some sort which makes this a stand alone edition Movies included begin in the Silent Era 1920s and continue to the present day The Hollywood Golden Age through World War II produced great films and continued using different techniques and emphasis Dangerous cargoes revivals scenarios and technology reflect the extraordinary genius of moviemakers today With jet aircraft passenger train travel declined to the extent that passenger trains became too expensive for America's railroads to operate. In 1971 Congress created Amtrak, a quasi-public corporation. The National Railroad Passenger Corporation. Freight continued with the railroads which today consist of five major train class I companies: CSX, NS, Norfolk Southern, BNSF, Burlington, and Santa Fe. UP, Union Pacific, and KCS, Kansas City Southern. Canadian Pacific, CP, operates both passenger and freight trains. Movies produced overseas are included with the United Kingdom being a large contributor to the book. The reference book is a must for all railroaders and movie lovers to recall their favorites and to see movies that they missed. All aboard Clues, Myths, and the Historical Method Carlo Ginzburg, 2013-10-15 Carlo Ginzburg considers how we assign historical context to events. More than twenty years after Clues, Myths, and the Historical Method was first published in English, this extraordinary collection remains a classic. The book brings together essays about Renaissance witchcraft, National Socialism, sixteenth-century Italian painting, Freud's wolf man, and other topics. In the influential centerpiece of the volume, Carlo Ginzburg places historical knowledge in a long tradition of cognitive practices and shows how a research strategy based on reading clues and traces embedded in the historical record reveals otherwise hidden information. Acknowledging his debt to art history, psychoanalysis, comparative religion, and anthropology, Ginzburg challenges us to retrieve cultural and social dimensions beyond disciplinary boundaries. In his new preface, Ginzburg reflects on how easily we miss the context in which we read, write, and live. Only hindsight allows some understanding. He examines his own path in research during the 1970s and its relationship to the times, especially the political scenes of Italy and Germany. Was he influenced by the environment? he asks himself, and if so, how? Ginzburg uses his own experience to examine the elusive and constantly evolving nature of history and historical research. Understanding Language Understanding Ashwin Ram, Kenneth Moorman, 1999 This book highlights cutting-edge research relevant to the building of a computational model of reading comprehension as in the processing and understanding of a natural language text or story. The book takes an interdisciplinary approach to the study of reading with contributions from computer science, psychology, and philosophy. Contributors cover the theoretical and psychological foundations of the research in discussions of what it means to understand a text, how one builds a computational model, and related issues in knowledge representation and reasoning. The book also addresses some of the broader issues that a natural language system must deal with, such as reading in context, linguistic novelty, and information extraction. Evidence-Based Practices in Deaf Education Harry Knoors, Marc Marschark, 2018-08-28 This volume presents the latest research from internationally recognized researchers and practitioners on language literacy and numeracy, cognition, and social and emotional development of deaf learners. In their contributions, authors sketch the backgrounds and contexts of their research, take interdisciplinary perspectives in merging their own research results with outcomes of relevant research of others, and examine the consequences and future directions for teachers and teaching. Focusing on the topic of transforming state-of-the-art research into teaching practices in deaf education, the volume addresses how we can improve outcomes of deaf education through professional development of teachers the construction and implementation of evidence based teaching practices and consideration of the whole child thus emphasizing the importance of integrative interdisciplinary approaches      It Didn't Mean Anything Alexander N.

Howe,2008-03-17 This critical study of American detective fiction examines the history and development of the detective genre through the lens of psychoanalysis Applying the ideas of French psychoanalyst Jacques Lacan the author identifies and categorizes popular works according to the fictional protagonist s hysteria obsessive neurosis perversion or psychosis The first chapter identifies several instances of hysteria within the fiction of two of the genre s pioneers Edgar Allan Poe and Arthur Conan Doyle Chapter Two traces the development of the hard boiled detective s code of honor through the works of Dashiell Hammett Raymond Chandler and Mickey Spillane identifying the often paradoxical nature of this code and its origins in obsessive neurosis Chapter Three analyzes the anti detective fiction of Philip K Dick in terms of paranoid psychosis and the final chapter returns to the question of hysteria taking up the female hard boiled detectives of author Marcia Muller

Advances in Experimental Social Psychology Mark P. Zanna,1999 Advances in Experimental Social Psychology continues to be one of the most sought after and most often cited series in this field Containing contributions of major empirical and theoretical interest this series represents the best and the brightest in new research theory and practice in social psychology

Sherlock Holmes and Conan Doyle S. Vanacker,C. Wynne,2012-11-12 Sherlock Holmes is an iconic figure within cultural narratives More recently Conan Doyle has also appeared as a fictional figure in contemporary novels and films confusing the boundaries between fiction and reality This collection investigates how Holmes and Doyle have gripped the public imagination to become central figures of modernity      Liminality in Fantastic Fiction Sandor Klapcsik,2012-01-09 This critical work diversifies Victor Turner s concept of liminality a basic category of postmodernism in which distinct categories and hierarchies are questioned and limits erode Liminality involves an oscillation between cultural institutions genre conventions narrative perspectives and thematic binary oppositions Grounded on this notion the text investigates the liminality in Agatha Christie s detective fiction Neil Gaiman s fantasy stories and Stanislaw Lem s and Philip K Dick s science fiction Through an examination of destabilized norms this analysis demonstrates that liminality is a key element in the changing trends of fantastic texts
