Seven Plays By Elmer Rice:

Seven Plays by Elmer Rice, 1950 Seven Plays Elmer Rice, 1950 Donated by Sydney Harris Modern Drama and the Rhetoric of Theater W. B. Worthen, 2015-01-30 The history of drama is typically viewed as a series of inert styles Tracing British and American stage drama from the 1880s onward W B Worthen instead sees drama as the interplay of text stage production and audience How are audiences manipulated What makes drama meaningful Worthen identifies three rhetorical strategies that distinguish an O'Neill play from a Yeats or these two from a Brecht Where realistic theater relies on the natural qualities of the stage scene poetic theater uses the poet's word the text to control performance Modern political theater by contrast openly places the audience at the center of its rhetorical designs and the drama of the postwar period is shown to develop a range of post-Brechtian practices that make the audience the subject of the play Worthen's book deserves the attention of any literary critic or serious theatergoer interested in the relationship between modern drama and the spectator

Owens, 2021-01-28 Through an examination of a range of performance works ranging from Jean Cocteau's ballet The Eiffel Tower Wedding Party 1921 to Julie Taymor's monumental production of Spider-Man: Turn Off the Dark 2010 and Mexican playwright Isaac Gomez's La Ruta 2018 Staging Technology asks what becomes visible when we encounter plays, operas and musicals that are themselves about fraught human-machine interfaces What can theatrical production tell us about the way technology functions as an element of ideology and power in narrative drama About the limits of the human Staging Technology bridges the divide between the technical practices of theatre production and critical theoretical approaches to interpreting drama to examine the way dramatic theatre's technologies are shaped by larger historical ideological and economic forces At the same time it examines how those technologies themselves have influenced 20th and 21st century playwrights composers and librettists choice of subject matter for staged representation Examining performance works from the modernist and post-modern European and American canon of drama opera and performance art including works by Eugène Ionesco Samuel Beckett Heiner Müller Sophie Treadwell Harold Pinter Tristan Tzara Jean Cocteau Arthur Miller Robert Pinsky John Adams and Alice Goodman Staging Technology transforms how we think about the interrelationship between theatre practice performance narrative drama and text In it Craig N Owens synthesizes approaches to interpretation and practice from disparate realms offering insights into overarching ways of making meaning that are illustrated through focused and innovative readings of individual works for the dramatic stage Staging Technology provides a new and transformative paradigm for thinking about dramatic literature the practices of representational theatre production and the historical and social contexts they inhabit
