Severe Learning Disabilities And Challenging Behaviours Designing High Quality Services:

Severe Learning Disabilities and Challenging Behaviours Eric Emerson, Peter McGill, Jim Mansell, 2013-11-11 This is a timely book The question of how to help people with challenging behaviour and how to design and manage services so that staff families and users feel that what should be done is being done is at the top of the agenda Failure to deal competently with the issue results in disaffection poor quality services and a less than optimal quality of life for service users Moreover the credibility of services for all people with learning disabilities is intimately connected with how we cope with challenging behaviour a point made recently by a Department of Health Working Group chaired by Jim Mansell Department of Health 1993 The book is welcome because it draws together what is known about the important questions from a British perspective although of course most of the underlying issues have world wide relevance The contributors while all having a good deal of experience and authority do not put forward simple portrayals of the problems nor glib solutions and this is one of the book's major strengths Clarity in the field of challenging behaviour is sometimes elusive What is presented here forces the reader to confront arguments in a rational and logical fashion

Challenging Behaviour Eric Emerson, 2001-05-28 This is a thoroughly revised expanded and updated new edition giving a comprehensive cross disciplinary overview of challenging behaviour

Deinstitutionalization and Community Living Jim Mansell, Kent Ericsson, 2013-11-11

Interaction in Action Dave Hewett, Melanie Nind, 2013-10-28 First Published in 1998 The authors aim in editing Interaction in Action is to follow up on the thinking and practical guidance contained in their previous work on Intensive Interaction They hope to illustrate that Intensive Interaction is not just something that goes on in hospital schools Here we see the approach used not only by teachers but also by speech therapists occupational therapists social workers psychologists and parents We see the approach used in people's homes as well as in education and day centres The contributors have been asked to share their insights the way they think about Intensive Interaction as well as the way that they do it This means that the chapters contain both reflective analysis and vivid description The contributions illustrate how Intensive Interaction has grown and developed as an educational approach and as a way of being with people and they illustrate the impact on all those involved

Intellectual Disabilities - E-Book Helen Atherton, Debbie Crickmore, 2022-03-13 This leading textbook previously known as Learning Disabilities aims to further the practice of professionals and agencies who support people with intellectual disabilities It emphasizes the strengths rather than deficits of people with intellectual disabilities highlights the crucial role of family and friends and places individuals firmly at the heart of everything that impacts them Intellectual Disabilities Toward Inclusion centres on the concepts of respecting the personhood of people with intellectual disabilities and their rights to holistic health and to live their best lives Most of the 27 chapters are co-authored by respected international authors and the content has been fully updated to reflect contemporary policy legislation and service configuration This unique text will challenge and reframe typically held views and provides an international focus that recognizes we have much to learn from the experiences and perspectives of other nations around the world Comprehensive overview of the field relevant to contemporary practice Content organized around three central themes Who am I Maximizing my health Living my best life Well written and accessible Artwork and perspectives of people with intellectual disabilities bring content to life Authors from a range of professional backgrounds representing Australia Austria Germany Iceland Ireland Malta the Netherlands Norway South Africa Spain the UK and the United States Activities case studies diagrams and useful web links Additional material in an online resource complements reader activities found throughout the text
