Sewing Room Uncommon Reflections On Life Love And Work:

The Sewing Room Barbara Cawthorne Crafton,1997-10-01 In these insightful essays Barbara Cawthorne Crafton reflects on a broad range of experiences ministering among merchant seafarers the homeless the bereaved AIDS patients and others in need of personal and spiritual help She shares honestly her own emotions as she grapples with the harsh realities of the world while delighting in the humor and joy found in everyday living Crafton compassionately recounts the unique stories of the men women and children she worked with during her service as a port chaplain in New York and New Jersey and as a minister at Trinity Church on Wall Street In doing so she weaves together threads of the mundane and the traumatic the lovely and the ugly and the down to earth and the holy creating an original tapestry of the richness of life Finding Time

For Serenity Barbara Cawthorne Crafton,2004-09 Restore the balance and bring perspective to daily life with these wise funny friendly words from a master storyteller Drawing on her experiences as wife grandmother priest retreat leader and spiritual director Crafton is the wise and funny friend every woman needs every day Meditations on the Psalms

Barbara Cawthorne Crafton,2003-08 365 days of meditations based on passages from the Psalms I hope that the ancient texts upon which these reflections are based will come alive for you in a new way writes Barbara Crafton in Meditations on the Book of Psalms The Psalms written by ordinary people are filled with all the same emotions and issues that challenge comfort and confound us today Their complaints joys celebrations envy doubting fear and hope are ours as well In this book of meditations for each day of the year best selling author Barbara Crafton combines reflection on these ancient texts with contemporary stories to help us explore the spiritual nature of our lives From the desire to start anew in January to time management and remembering to lighten up in December Crafton s meditations are the perfect daily companion for anyone who finds nourishment in biblically based devotional reading Days of Grace Mary C. Earle,2009-08-01 Using the metaphor of pilgrimage this book invites readers to reflect on living with illness The heart of the book is a collection of 30 meditations each followed by a reflection a short prayer and a suggested spiritual practice The meditations voice the difficulties and the challenges of living with illness and call the reader toward a deepening understanding compassion and generosity While the meditations intend to offer comfort they are also written from the conviction that God invites us to grow even in these circumstances When living with chronic terminal or progressive illness discovering a way to pray can be quite a challenge These 30 meditations provide a welcome means with practices inspired by the psalms The Almost Daily

eMOs Barbara Cawthorne Crafton,2000-01-01 In the spirit of Internet slangue e mails from Mother Barbara Crafton known affectionately as Mo Crafton are called eMos This collection of e mail meditations has the immediacy of the Internet and a depth of theological thought that leave Crafton readers wanting more She says of her eMos I am interested in the possibilities of electronic communication in the service of the life of faith and have found the eMos to be a winner in keeping people thinking and communicating about the things of God in terms of a common experience of a brief theological reflection
