Models And Interpretations Selected Essays:

Models and Interpretations J. A. Barnes, 1990-02-23 This book of essays by John Barnes will be of interest to sociologists anthropologists and philosophers of social science A Model-Theoretic Realist Interpretation of Science E.B.

Ruttkamp, 2013-03-14 In this book Emma Ruttkamp demonstrates the power of the full blown employment of the model theoretic paradigm in the philosophy of science Within this paradigm she gives an account of sciences as process and product She expounds the received statement and the non statement views of science and shows how the model theoretic approach resolves the spurious tension between these views In this endeavour she also engages the views of a number of contemporary philosophers of science with affinity to model theory This text can be read by specialists working in philosophy of science or formal semantics by logicians working on the structure of theories and by students in philosophy of science this text offers a thorough introduction to non statement accounts of sciences as well as a discussion of the traditional statement account of science Small Places, Large Issues Thomas Hylland Eriksen, 2015-08-20 This introduction to social and cultural anthropology has become a modern classic revealing the rich global variation in social life and culture across the world Presenting a clear overview of anthropology it focuses on central topics such as kinship ethnicity ritual and political systems offering a wealth of examples that demonstrate the enormous scope of anthropology and the importance of a comparative perspective Unlike other texts on the subject Small Places Large Issues incorporates the anthropology of complex modern societies Using reviews of key works to illustrate his argument Thomas Hylland Eriksen's lucid and accessible overview remains an established introductory text in anthropology This fourth edition is updated throughout and increases the emphasis on the interdependence of human worlds It incorporates recent debates and controversies ranging from globalisation and migration research to problems of cultural translation and discusses the challenges of interdisciplinarity in a lucid way interdisciplinarity in a lucid way Stepping Back and Looking Ahead: Twelve Years of Studying Religious Contact at the Käte Hamburger Kolleg Bochum, 2023-09-04 This book includes a collection of articles by leading researchers on the topic of religious contact in the study of religion Resulting from the final conference of the Käte Hamburger Kolleg Dynamics in the History of Religions one of the largest research initiatives in the interdisciplinary study of religion worldwide in recent years 2008-2020 this book encapsulates the twofold aim of this conference first to step back and reflect upon the merits and challenges of studying religious dynamics as a result of intra inter and extra religious contact and second to look beyond and pave ways for future approaches to study religion as a social phenomenon The anthropology of power, agency, and morality Victor de Munck, Elisa J. Sobo, 2022-06-07 The works of F G Bailey 1924-2020 provide a seminal template for good ethnography Central to this is Bailey's ability to conceptually connect the well described micro contexts of individual interactions to the macro context of culture Bailey's core concerns the tension between individual and collective interests the will to power and the dialectics of social forces which foster both collective solidarity as well as divisiveness and discontent are themes of universal interest the beauty of his work lies in his analyses of how these play out in local arenas between real people His models provide nuanced yet explicit road maps to analysing the different leadership styles of everyday people and contemporary leaders This volume seeks to inspire new generations of anthropologists to revisit Bailey's seminal texts to help them navigate their way through the ethnographic thicket of their own research Humping My

Drum J. A. Barnes, 2007 HUMPING MY DRUM by J A Barnes PUBLISHER S DESCRIPTION After a lifetime of not keeping a diary John Barnes has reconstructed his past from a good memory and those few documents that do record his life and times His story starts with his childhood in Reading his schooldays and undergraduate career Although six years of war interrupted his academic progress they gave him experiences in the Fleet Air Arm that may have prepared him for the rigors of his first anthropological fieldwork in Northern Rhodesia The life of an academic is seldom smooth and various universities in England and Australia augmented his scholastic duties with ample tests of his diplomatic and political skills In pages crowded with the names of colleagues friends family and rivals Barnes brings a social scientist's eye to bear on the disciplines of anthropology and sociology themselves Selected Essays in Monetary Economics (Collected Works of Harry Johnson) Harry

Johnson, 2013-07-18 This volume consists of selected previously published key essays which have proved most useful for teaching advanced monetary economics A short introduction was added which places the selection of essays and the issues they cover in the contemporaneous context of simultaneous high inflation and high unemployment As relevant today as they were when they were first written they enable the reader to anticipate intelligently what is likely to happen and why The Protohistoric Pueblo World, A.D. 1275-1600 E. Charles Adams, Andrew Ian Duff, 2004-07 In the centuries before the arrival of Europeans the Pueblo world underwent nearly continuous reorganization Populations moved from Chaco Canyon and the great centers of the Mesa Verde region to areas along the Rio Grande the Little Colorado River and the Mogollon Rim where they began constructing larger and differently organized villages many with more than 500 rooms Villages also tended to occur in clusters that have been interpreted in a number of different ways This book describes and interprets this period of southwestern history immediately before and after initial European contact A D 1275 1600 a span of time during which Pueblo peoples and culture were dramatically transformed It summarizes one hundred years of research and archaeological data for the Pueblo IV period as it explores the nature of the organization of village clusters and what they meant in behavioral and political terms Twelve of the chapters individually examine the northern and eastern portions of the Southwest and the groups who settled there during the protohistoric period The authors develop histories for settlement clusters that offer insights into their unique development and the variety of ways that villages formed these clusters These analyses show the extent to which spatial clusters of large settlements may have formed regionally organized alliances and in some cases they reveal a connection between protohistoric villages and indigenous or migratory groups from the preceding period This volume is distinct from other recent syntheses of Pueblo IV research in that it treats the settlement cluster as the analytic unit By analyzing how members of clusters of villages interacted with one another it offers a clearer understanding of the value of this level of analysis and suggests possibilities for future research In addition to offering new insights on the Pueblo IV world the volume serves as a compendium of information on more than 400 known villages larger than 50 rooms It will be of lasting interest not only to archaeologists but also to geographers land managers and general readers interested in Pueblo culture

A Theory of Legal Punishment Matthew Altman,2021-05-05 This book argues for a mixed theory of legal punishment that treats both crime reduction and retribution as important aims of the state A central question in the philosophy of law is why the state s punishment of its own citizens is justified Traditionally two theories of punishment have dominated the field consequentialism and retributivism According to consequentialism punishment is justified when it maximizes positive outcomes According to retributivism criminals should be punished because they deserve it This book recognizes the strength of both positions According to the two tiered model the institution of punishment and statutory penalties as set by the legislature are justified based on their costs and benefits in terms of deterrence and rehabilitation The law exists to preserve the public order Criminal courts by contrast determine who is punished and how much based on what offenders deserve The courts express the community s collective sense of resentment at being wronged This book supports the two tiered model by showing that it accords with our moral intuitions commonly held compatibilist theories of freedom and assumptions about how the extent of our knowledge affects our obligations It engages classic and contemporary work in the philosophy of law and explains the theory s advantages over competing approaches from retributivists and other mixed theorists The book also defends consequentialism against a longstanding objection that the social sciences give us little guidance regarding which policies to adopt Drawing on recent criminological research the two tiered model can help us to address some of our most pressing social issues including the death penalty drug policy and mass incarceration This book will be of interest to philosophers legal scholars policymakers and social scientists especially criminologists economists and political scientists

Introduction to Biblical Interpretation (Foundations for Spirit-Filled Christianity) Jacqueline Grey,Paul W. Lewis,2024-09-24 This introduction to biblical interpretation expands the interpretive task to encompass both comprehension of the Bible s content and active participation in God s redemptive plan The authors help readers engage with the beauty of God s Word and read it holistically for their intellectual and spiritual growth They address the nature of interpretation emphasize the Holy Spirit s role in the production interpretation and application of the Bible as a communication of the triune God and explore the Bible s genres and historical contexts through the lens of God s redemptive story They also provide principles and accessible guidelines for biblical interpretation in global contexts including a simple outline for beginning students to follow as they start interpreting and applying Scripture Above all the authors emphasize the transformative nature of reading Scripture This series reflects the changing face of global Christianity Series volumes highlight themes of interest to Pentecostal Charismatic students however the books are respectful and inclusive of a variety of church traditions Series editors are Jerry Ireland Paul W Lewis and Frank D Macchia First Fieldwork Laura Zimmer-Tamakoshi, 2018-08-31 First Fieldwork Pacific Anthropology 1960 1985 explores what a generation of anthropologists experienced during their first visits to the field at a time of momentous political changes in Pacific island countries and societies and in anthropology itself Answering some of the same how and why questions found in Terence E Hays Ethnographic Presents Pioneering Anthropologists in the Papua New Guinea Highlands 1993 First Fieldwork begins where that collection left off in the 1950s and covers a broader selection of Pacific Islands societies and topics Chapters range from candid reflections on working with little known peoples to reflexive analyses of adapting research projects and field sites in order to better fit local politics and concerns Included in these accounts are the often harsh emotional and logistical demands placed on fieldworkers and interlocutors as they attempt the work of connecting and achieving mutual understandings Evident throughout is the conviction that fieldwork and what we learn from and write about it are necessary to a robust anthropology By demystifying a phase begun in the mid 1980s when critics considered attempts to describe fieldwork and its relation to ethnography as inevitably biased representations of the unknowable truth First Fieldwork contributes to a renewed interest in experiential and theoretical nuances of fieldwork Looking back on the richest of fieldwork experiences the contributors uncover essential structures and challenges of fieldwork connection context and change What they find is that building relationships and having others include you in their lives once referred to as achieving rapport is determined as much by our subjects as by ourselves As they examine connections made or attempted during first fieldwork and bring to bear subsequent understandings and questions new contexts from which to view and think about their experiences the contributors provide readers with multidimensional perspectives on fieldwork and how it continues to inspire anthropological interpretations and commitment A crucial dimension is change Each chapter is richly detailed in history theirs ours colonial postcolonial and the then and now of theory and practice While change is ever present specifics are not Reflecting back the authors demonstrate how that specificity defined their experiences and ultimately their ethnographic reproductions How to Read Ethnography Paloma Gay y Blasco, Huon Wardle, 2019-04-08 How to Read Ethnography is an essential guide to approaching anthropological texts It helps students to cultivate the skills they need to critically examine and understand how ethnographies are built up as well as to think anthropologically and develop an anthropological imagination of their own The authors reveal how ethnographically informed anthropology plays a distinctive and valuable role in comprehending the complexity of the world we live in This fully revised second edition includes fresh excerpts from key texts for analysis and comparison along with lucid explanations In addition to concerns with argument authority and the relationship between theory and data the book engages with the purpose value and accountability of ethnographic texts as well as with their reception and usage A brand new chapter looks at the kinds of collaboration between informants consultants and anthropologists that go into the making of ethnographic writing The Routledge International Handbook of Automated Essay Evaluation Mark D. Shermis, Joshua Wilson, 2024-06-27 The Routledge International Handbook of Automated Essay Evaluation AEE is a definitive guide at the intersection of automation artificial intelligence and education This volume encapsulates the ongoing advancement of AEE reflecting its application in both large scale and classroom based assessments to support teaching and learning endeavors It presents a comprehensive overview of AEE s current applications including its extension into reading speech mathematics and writing research modern automated feedback systems critical issues in automated evaluation such as psychometrics fairness bias transparency and validity and the technological innovations that fuel current and future developments in this field As AEE approaches a tipping point of global implementation this Handbook stands as an essential resource advocating for the conscientious adoption of AEE tools to enhance educational practices ethically The Handbook will benefit readers by equipping them with the knowledge to thoughtfully integrate AEE thereby enriching educational assessment teaching and learning worldwide Aimed at researchers educators AEE developers and policymakers the Handbook is poised not only to chart the current landscape but also to stimulate scholarly discourse define and inform best practices and propel and guide future innovations

The Interpretation and Uniformity of the UNCITRAL Model Law on International Commercial Arbitration Dean Lewis, 2016-03-22 Numerous jurisdictions worldwide have augmented their ratification of the New York Convention of 1958 with the UNCITRAL Model Law 1985 UML which takes a giant step forward toward global uniformity in legal application and understanding of the arbitration process This book develops a standard or benchmark for the UML objective of uniformity using the relevant legislation and case law of Hong Kong Singapore and Australia to consider whether a uniform approach to implementation of the UML and its interpretation is being achieved across those jurisdictions The author s methodological tools are eminently adaptable to other jurisdictions Given the importance of the ability to set aside an arbitral award the body of case law on setting aside and the directly related area of enforcement the emphasis throughout is on Article 34 In addition the study considers the meaning of uniformity in law and in the context of the UML the correct approach to interpretation of the UML pre and post Article 2A the interpretational relationship between the UML and the Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods CISG the relationship between the UML and the New York Convention the degree of textual uniformity of Article 34 with the three jurisdictions focused on and the degree of applied uniformity of Article 34 both in terms of juristic methodology and similarity of results The author with more than thirty years of practice in the field of commercial arbitration in Hong Kong has had access to voluminous cases spanning decades and brings his specialist expertise to the subject This book considers whether the UML has succeeded in its aim of achieving uniformity It serves as a guide both academic and practical to exploring and adopting the correct approach to the interpretation of the UML as well as to the method of classification of court decisions under the UML This study is of immeasurable academic and practical value

The Dialectics of Mission Elmer A. Guzman, 2023-09-15 Drawing on the resources of contemporary systematic theologians Kevin Vanhoozer and Veli Matti K rkk inen Elmer A Guzman explores the generative dimension of mission for the formation of doctrine for a church that needs to witness in a pluralistic world Guzman argues that understanding doctrinal formation and development depends on the missional dimension of doctrinal hermeneutics In other words these theological concepts and practices are justified based on the negotiation between theological sources identity markers and the context s diversity markers This book shows how perspectives arising from the structural elements in theological methodology shed fresh light on missional theology and the interconnections between the doctrinal loci in theology

Animal Sacrifice and the Origins of Islam

Brannon Wheeler,2022-06-23 Islam is the only biblical religion that still practices animal sacrifice Indeed every year more than a million animals are shipped to Mecca from all over the world to be slaughtered during the Muslim Hajj This multi disciplinary volume is the first to examine the physical foundations of this practice and the significance of the ritual Brannon Wheeler uses both textual analysis and various types of material evidence to gain insight into the role of animal sacrifice in Islam He provides a thick description of the elaborate camel sacrifice performed by Muhammad which serves as the model for future Hajj sacrifices Wheeler integrates biblical and classical Arabic sources with evidence from zooarchaeology and the rock art of ancient Arabia to gain insight into an event that reportedly occurred 1400 years ago His book encourages a more nuanced and expansive conception of sacrifice in the history of religion

Logical Theory and Semantic Analysis

S. Stenlund,2012-12-06 Economic Dynamics: Methods and Models G Gandolfo,1971-01-01 Economic Dynamics Methods and Models aims to give a simple but comprehensive treatment of mathematical methods used in economic dynamics and show how they are utilized to build and to analyze dynamic models The text also focuses on methods and every mathematical technique introduced is followed by its application to selected models The book is divided into three different parts Part I Different Equations discusses general principles first order second order higher order equations simultaneous systems and their economic applications Part II Differential Equations also discusses the same areas as those in Part I but instead features differential equations as what the section name suggests Part III More Advanced Material covers comparative statistics and the comparative principle stability of equilibrium and Liapunov s second method and linear mixed differential and difference equations as well as its other related topics The text is recommended for mathematicians and economists who have an idea on advanced mathematics and would like to know more about its applications in economics

An Alternative Macroeconomic Theory: The Kaleckian Model and Post-Keynesian Economics John E. King,2012-12-06 IE King Michael Kalecki 1899 1970 was one of the most important and also one of the most underrated economists of the twentieth century In the 1930s he made a series of fundamental contributions to macroeconomic theory which anticipated complemented and in some ways surpassed those of Keynes Almost entirely self educated in economics and influenced much by Marxism as by mainstream theory Kalecki very largely escaped the fatal embrace of pre Keynesian orthodoxy which blunted the thrust of the General Theory Many Post Keynesians in particular have found in his work the elements of a convincing alternative to what Joan Robinson Kalecki's greatest advocate in the English speaking world was scathingly to describe as bastard Keynesianism But Kalecki was never interested in theory for its own sake He approached economics from a practical perspective wrote extensively on applied and policy questions and in the last decades of his life turned his attention increasingly to problems of economic development and the management of state socialist economies The Structural Econometric Time Series Analysis Approach Arnold Zellner, Franz C.

Palm, 2004-10-21 Bringing together a collection of previously published work this book provides a discussion of major considerations relating to the construction of econometric models that work well to explain economic phenomena predict future outcomes and be useful for policy making Analytical relations between dynamic econometric structural models and empirical time series MVARMA VAR transfer function and univariate ARIMA models are established with important application for model checking and model construction The theory and applications of these procedures to a variety of econometric modeling and forecasting problems as well as Bayesian and non Bayesian testing shrinkage estimation and forecasting procedures are also presented and applied Finally attention is focused on the effects of disaggregation on forecasting precision and the Marshallian Macroeconomic Model that features demand supply and entry equations for major sectors of economies is analysed and described This volume will prove invaluable to professionals academics and students alike
