Indurkha,2013-03-09 Many metaphors go beyond pionting to the existing similarities between two objects they create the similarities. Such metaphors, which have been relegated to the back seat in most of the cognitive science research, are the focus of attention in this study, which addresses the creation of similarity within an elaborately laid out interactive framework of cognition. Starting from the constructivist views of Nelson Goodman and Jean Piaget, this framework resolves an apparent paradox in interactionism: how can reality not have a mind-independent ontology and structure but still manage to constrain the possible worlds a cognitive agent can create in it? A comprehensive theory of metaphor is proposed in this framework that explains how metaphors can create similarities and why such metaphors are an invaluable asset to cognition. The framework is then applied to related issues of analogical reasoning, induction, and computational modeling of creative metaphors.

M.C. Escher's Legacy Michele Emmer, Doris Schattschneider, 2007-05-08
 From the reviews of the hardcover edition: This conference to celebrate the centennial of the birth of Escher resulted in an immensely interesting collection of articles. Although Escher himself is no longer among us, M. C. Escher's Legacy, like a garden of continually blooming flowers, allows us to appreciate his heritage anew. Notices of the AMS, April 2003. It is a handsome volume and contains articles from 41 people which cover a wide range of artistic and analytical endeavour. A quick dip into each section produces small gems; there is enough here to provide rich pickings for any interested party, no matter what their particular discipline is. Embedded in the various articles are even snippets which illuminate Escher's intentions and his relationships with his mathematician friends. Even though short, these are rewarding to read. The CD-ROM is an excellent addition to the book and contains much more material, including video excerpts from some of the lectures. Australian Math Soc GAZETTE, May 2003.

Twonism II (Thoughts, Essays, and Poems on Life and Art) Premium Paperback Edition Damon Freed, Beauty is a Verb Jennifer Bartlett, Sheila Fiona Black, Michael Northen, 2011. Beauty is a Verb is the first of its kind: a high quality anthology of poetry by American poets with physical disabilities. Poems and essays alike consider how poetry coupled with the experience of disability speaks to the poetics of each poet included. The collection explores first the precursors whose poems had a complex and sometimes absent relationship with disability, such as Vassar Miller, Larry Eigner, and Josephine Miles. It continues with poets who have generated the Crip Poetics Movement, such as Petra Kupperts, Kenny Fries, and Jim Ferris. Finally, the collection explores the work of poets who don't necessarily subscribe to the identity of crip poetics and have never before been published in this exact context. These poets include Bernadette Mayer, Rusty Morrison, Cynthia Hogue, and C. S. Giscombe. The book crosses poetry movements from narrative to language poetry and speaks to and about a number of disabilities, including cerebral palsy, deafness, blindness, multiple sclerosis, and aphasia due to stroke, among others.
