Disabled Literature Miles Beauchamp, Wendy Chung, Alijandra Mogilner, 2015 This book by Beauchamp Chung Mogilner and Svetlana Zakinaova examines how authors have used characters with disabilities to elicit emotional reactions in readers additionally how writers use disabilities to present individuals as the other rather than simply as people Finally the book discusses how literature has changed or is changing with regards to its presentation of those with a disability The Philosophy of Childing Christopher Phillips, 2016-05-17 Weaving together philosophy social science and neuroscience research personal anecdotes and dialogues The Philosophy of Childing takes a radically different approach to the traditional boundaries between childhood and adulthood to reveal how rather than lapse into adulthood we can achieve what the Greeks arete all around excellence when we look to children and youth as a lodestar for our development Childhood is our primary launching pad a time of life when learning is more intense than at any other when we gain the critical knowledge and skills that can help ensure that we remain adaptable This book weaves together the thinking of philosophers from across the ages who make the unsettling assertion that with the passage of time we are apt to shrink mentally emotionally and cognitively If we follow what has become an all too common course we denature our original nature which brims with curiosity empathy reason wonder and a will to experiment and understand and we regress our sense of who we are will become fuzzier and everyone in our orbit will pay a price Mounting evidence shows that we begin our lives with a moral intellectual and creative bang and in this groundbreaking heavily researched and highly engaging volume Christopher Phillips makes the provocative case that childhood isn't merely a state of becoming while adulthood is one of being as if we've arrived and reached the summit His life changing proposition is that if we embrace the defining qualities of youth we're not destined to become frail dispirited or unhinged we'll grow in a way defined by wonder curiosity imaginativeness playfulness and compassion in essence unlimited potential A Measure of Intelligence Pepper Stetler, 2024-08-20 In a quest to advocate for her daughter Pepper Stetler uncovers the dark history of the IQ test leading her to question what exactly we are measuring when we measure intelligence When Pepper Stetler learned that her daughter Louisa who has Down Syndrome would be required to take periodic IQ tests to secure support in school she asked a simple question Why The hunt for an answer set Stetler on a winding often dark investigation into how the IQ came to be the irrefutable standard for measuring intelligence Blending a mother's love and dedication to her daughter with incisive historical and cultural analysis A Measure of Intelligence investigates the origins of the IQ test and its influence on our oppressive culture of high stakes testing As she unravels the history of the IQ exposing its roots in eugenics racism xenophobia and ableism Stetler realizes that the desire to quantify intelligence is closely tied to the desire to segregate society A Measure of Intelligence is at once a mother's determined quest a demand for a fundamental reevaluation of how we understand an individual's perceived potential and a recognition of what we miss when we judge one another by this warped scale      We are Many, We are One Colleen McDonald, 1996      Record - , 1977      The Mother's Almanac Marguerite Kelly, Elia Parsons, 1992-05-01 A national bestseller with more than 750 000 copies in print now revised for the new mothers of the 90s the latest findings on health advice for working mothers facts about the influence of TV and more B W illustrations throughout      Siblings at School: A Small Group Curriculum and Writing Project ,
