Our Cities:

Can Our Cities Survive? José Luis Sert, 1942      Our Cities United States. National Resources Committee. Urbanism Committee, United States. National Resources Committee. Research Committee on Urbanism, 1937      Our Cities John Gorman Keane, 1985      Our Cities United States. National Resources Committee, 1937      Love Our Cities Jeff Pishney, Eric Jung, 2023-04-11

Love Our Cities operates from a simple idea come alongside those who want to make a difference in their cities so they can come alongside individuals in their communities to make things better. Founding members of the nonprofit organization Love Our Cities Jeff Pishney and Eric Jung have seen how a city wide volunteer day can catalyze community improvement by engaging individuals with the city they inhabit. Each chapter of Love Our Cities addresses their method behind the madness why it works and the practical next steps that anyone can use to kick off city wide volunteer efforts. Jeff Pishney and Eric Jung understand that the best way to support a community is to meet the specific needs of that area. By using their past experiences investing in Modesto and other cities they provide a clear actionable approach to enact city wide change. Their volunteer days have been uniquely successful in connecting ongoing initiatives building networks and growing community buy in for programs and organizations already on the ground. Their message in Love Our Cities is broken into four parts. Part One depicts their journey from the initial Love Modesto efforts in 2009 to the 100 some cities participating in their Love Our Cities network in 2020. Part Two explains the elements that are necessary to know prior to any community engagement in order to create a solid foundation for long term success. Part Three examines the nuts and bolts of running a city wide volunteer day. Part Four takes it to the next level describing how successful city wide volunteer days have changed the game and outlining what a year round city movement might look like. By shining a spotlight on the cities they've partnered with over the years Jeff Pishney and Eric Jung hope that their community minded approach in Love Our Cities encourages readers to dream about their own city's potential and how they can make a difference.

Saving Our Cities William W. Goldsmith, 2016-08-23

In Saving Our Cities William W Goldsmith shows how cities can be places of opportunity rather than places with problems. With strongly revived cities and suburbs working as places that serve all their residents metropolitan areas will thrive thus making the national economy more productive the environment better protected the citizenry better educated and the society more reflective sensitive and humane. Goldsmith argues that America has been in the habit of abusing its cities and their poorest suburbs which are always the first to be blamed for society's ills and the last to be helped. As federal and state budgets regulations and programs line up with the interests of giant corporations and privileged citizens they impose austerity on cities shortchange public schools make it hard to get nutritious food and inflict the drug war on unlucky neighborhoods. Frustration with inequality is spreading. Parents and teachers call persistently for improvements in public schooling and education experiments abound. Nutrition indicators have begun to improve as rising health costs and epidemic obesity have led to widespread attention to food. The futility of the drug war and the high costs of unwarranted unprecedented prison growth have become clear Goldsmith documents a positive development progressive politicians in many cities and some states are proposing far reaching improvements supported by advocacy groups that form powerful voting blocs ensuring that Congress takes notice When more cities forcefully demand enlightened federal and state action on these four interrelated problems inequality schools food and the drug war positive movement will occur in traditional urban planning as well so as to meet the needs of most residents for improved housing better transportation and enhanced public spaces
