E. Threlkeld (a. others) Lancelot Edward Threlkeld,1892

The Making of Global and Local Modernities in Melanesia Holly Wardlow,2016-12-05 Authored by well established and respected scholars this work examines the kinds of efforts that have been made to adopt Western modernity in Melanesia and explores the reasons for their varied outcomes The contributors take the work of Professor Marshall Sahlins as a starting point assessing his theories of cultural change and of the relationship between cultural intensification and globalizing forces They acknowledge the importance of Sahlins ideas while refining extending modifying and critiquing them in light of their own first hand knowledge of Pacific island societies Also presenting one of Sahlins less widely available original essays for reference this book is an exciting contribution to serious anthropological engagement with Papua New Guinea     An Australian Language as Spoken by the Awabakal, the People of Awaba, Or Lake Macquarie (near Newcastle, New South Wales) Lancelot Edward Threlkeld,H. Livingstone,George Taplin,James Günther,William Grant Broughton (Bp. of Sydney),William Ridley,1892     Religions of Melanesia Garry Trompf,2006-09-30 Melansia boasts over one quarter of the world s distinct religions and presents the most complex religious panorama on earth The region is famous for its unusual new religious movements that have adapted traditional beliefs to modernity in surprising ways As the first bibliographical survey to comprehensively cover the entire region Religions of Melanesia is an invaluable research aid for anyone interested in this growing field Trompf s work is a complete listing of scholarly publications and provides readable and concise descriptions that will clearly guide the researcher toward the most relevant sources This survey covers 2188 entries organized topically and regionally Trompf covers such subjects as traditional and modern belief systems and the emergent indigenous Christianity that has taken root Regional coverage includes Irian Jaya Papua New Guinea Solomon Islands Vanuatu New Caledonia and Fiji     Our English for Melanesia Grade 3 Halstead,1996-04-01     The History of Melanesian Society William Halse Rivers Rivers,1914     The History of Melanesian Society William Halse Rivers Rivers,1968     The Sexual Life of Savages in North-western Melanesia Bronislaw Malinowski,2002 This volume provides an ethnographic account of courtship marriage and family life among the people of the Trobriand Islands     Melanesian Pidgin and the Oceanic Substrate Roger M. Keesing,1988 Topics in this volume include interlingual contact in the Pacific to the mid 19th century the Sandalwood period the Tok Pisin language oceanic Austronesian languages structures and sources of pidgin syntax the pidgin pronominal system and calquing pidgin and Solomons languages     Married to Melanesia Muriel Jones,2023-07-05 We were married after three years at opposite ends of the world We then too rapidly for comfort made off in a snowstorm for the South Seas All this we imprudently did in our late forties Thus Muriel Jones introduces her account originally published in 1974 of how she came to start her married life in the Solomon Islands whose impact was traumatic perhaps just because we were not in our first youth or innocent of other tropical experience St Peter s College was the only thing at Siota there was no store and the only post office on the island was so difficult of access that I never visited it we ourselves did most of the postal business quite informally at our end of the island It is not surprising that even high ranking visitors tended to arrive looking like ship wrecked sailors If one was ill enough to see a doctor one was on the whole too ill to be subjected to several hours of sun or rain in an open boat and a probable night en route There is too the account of the old lady whose family on her death wanted to bury her in a coffin instead of the customary mat Poor old lady at the end of all these exertions the coffin with her in it stood in the church for the funeral uneasily supported on two rickety small tables from our sitting room mutely exhorting us to STOW AWAY FROM BOILERS Muriel Jones tells the unusual story of her five Melanesian years of the impact of Christianity on a pagan people of her husband s college and its move to another island of the students the islands and their animals and exotic vegetation of the islanders nine tenths of whom live in communities ranging from twenty to two hundred people and of their changing way of life Her story takes one about as far as it is possible to go from an urban civilisation and in telling it she reveals the resources of her own character Mission Life ,1873

Melanesians and Missionaries Darrell L. Whiteman,2002-05-10 In Melanesians and Missionaries one of the best of the younger generation of missionary anthropologists demonstrates that a commitment to the missionary enterprise on the part of a solid scholar facilitates rather than hinders the anthropological study of a missionary topic This is better anthropology because Dr Whiteman is able to probe more deeply into his topic and demonstrates that he understands and appreciates both Melanesians and missionaries Charles H Kraft Professor of Anthropology School of World Mission Fuller Theological Seminary Pasadena

Melanesian Pidgin and Tok Pisin John W.M. Verhaar, S.J.,1990-01-01 The First International Conference on Pidgins and Creoles in Melanesia was planned mainly for Tok Pisin but no predetermined themes had been proposed to the participants Nevertheless in this collection of papers several principal themes stand out One is that of a revived interest in substratology both for Tok Pisin and for Bislama Another is what in fact amounts to a change in perspective from universalism as supposedly competitive with the substratological orientation towards a generalist approach to typology which reduces the apparent polarity from a theoretical point of view A third is the pervasive interest of contributors in wider language issues in the social and political life of Papua New Guinea These interests go back to the linguistic and social experience of the participants most of whom have a long record of living among the people whose languages they have studied on a day to day basis and to the relative remoteness of their inspiration from the more theoretical and perhaps ultimately untestable issues which surround the universalist approach and its claims for a bioprogram foundation for language

Life of John Coleridge Patteson : Missionary Bishop of the Melanesian Islands Charlotte M. Yonge,2019-12-06 In Life of John Coleridge Patteson Missionary Bishop of the Melanesian Islands Charlotte M Yonge presents a meticulously researched biography that sheds light on the life and enduring legacy of Patteson a key figure in the missionary movement during the Victorian era Yonge s literary style is both eloquent and accessible blending rigorous historical scholarship with vivid narrative craftsmanship She situates Patteson s work within the broader context of colonial missionization and intercultural exchange in the Melanesian Islands exploring the complexities of his faith commitment and the challenges faced in his evangelistic endeavors Yonge an eminent author and a prominent Victorian figure herself was deeply influenced by her own Anglican faith and concern for social issues which likely spurred her dedication to chronicling Patteson s story Her background in literature and religious thought enabled her to approach the subject with both empathy and critical insight creating a nuanced portrayal that transcends mere hagiography and examines the moral and ethical implications of missionary work in a colonial context This book is a compelling read for scholars students and general readers interested in missionary history Victorian literature or the intricate dynamics between culture and religion Yonge s portrayal of Patteson not only humanizes the missionary experience but also invites reflection on the broader implications of faith in action within diverse societies
