A History of Horses Told by Horses H. A. Levin, 2009-04-01 On a peaceful country morning a horse named Bess approaches and connects telepathically with the author. At the mare's urging, the author agrees to write A History of Horses Told by Horses, in which equines trace the historical links between humans and horses, express their thoughts on the impact that humans have on the Earth, and state their mission. The horse's hopes are to partner with compassionate people, especially women, to redirect the course of humanity in a positive way. The story, told through the eyes of horses, is real. The places and people are real. The multi-layered message relates to the human condition on a personal level as well as on a global scale. Equine history spans more than 55 million years and five continents. Horses desire to form meaningful relationships with people. Each horse's connection with a human is unique. A horse's assistance is tailored to a person's individual needs.
