Roadkill On The Three Chord Highway Art And Trash In American Popular Music:

Roadkill on the Three-Chord Highway Colin Escott, 2002-07-26 It's the real stories not the publicists' confections that concern Colin Escott. We hear Perry Como's story in his own words; it wasn't all smooth. We learn about the astonishing twists and turns in Roy Orbison's life and the stories behind the songs we know so well. And we go down with Vernon Oxford, the last great honky-tonk singer who came to Nashville just a little too late. These are stories for anyone who loves what Escott calls little songs from great sorrows. They will fascinate even the most casual fan of popular music and they're told here in sympathetic, engaging and illuminating prose.

Roadkill on the Three-chord Highway Colin Escott, 2002. First Published in 2002. Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis, an informal company. We Wanna Boogie Marvin Schwartz, 2014-09-01. Rock and roll pioneer and Newport native Sonny Burgess is a member of the Rockabilly Hall of Fame. In this book, full of personal interviews and remembrances, Burgess and his band tell of their original recordings for Sun Records in the 1950s, their shows with greats such as Elvis Presley, Johnny Cash and Jerry Lee Lewis, and their success in the contemporary rockabilly revival. This also is the history of a once prominent and spirited Delta community of extensive agricultural wealth. Newport was home to numerous music clubs that hosted national artists as well as illicit backroom gambling. Burgess is a product of this history, and his vivacious music is shaped by his hometown and the dramatic transformation of southern rural life it witnessed.

How The Beatles Destroyed Rock 'n' Roll Elijah Wald, 2011-10. How the Beatles Destroyed Rock n Roll is an alternative history of American music that instead of recycling the familiar clichés of jazz and rock looks at what people were playing, hearing and dancing to over the course of the 20th century, using a wealth of original research, curious quotations and an irreverent fascination with the oft-despised commercial mainstream.

Perry Como Malcolm Macfarlane, Ken Crossland, 2015-05-07. Perry Como put aside his career as a barber to become one of the top American crooners of the 20th century and also one of the first multimedia stars. His record sales exceeded 100 million. In 1948, Como was the first popular singer to cross over to television, and The Perry Como Show became the benchmark for a broadcast music and variety show. Como's career illuminates developments in the music and television business in the middle of the last century. This biography features 73 photographs, a complete discography, a listing of all television appearances and a year-by-year chronology of Perry Como's life from 1912 to 2001.

Chasing the Rising Sun Ted Anthony, 2007-07-13 Chasing the Rising Sun is the story of an American musical journey told by a prize winning writer who traced one song in its many incarnations as it was carried across the world by some of the most famous singers of the twentieth century Most people know the song House of the Rising Sun as 1960s rock by the British Invasion group the Animals a ballad about a place in New Orleans a whorehouse or a prison or gambling joint that's been the ruin of many poor girls or boys Bob Dylan did a version and Frijid Pink cut a hard rocking rendition But that barely scratches the surface few songs have traveled a journey as intricate as House of the Rising Sun The rise of the song in this country and the launch of its world travels can be traced to Georgia Turner a poor sixteen year old daughter of a miner living in Middlesboro Kentucky in 1937 when the young folk music collector Alan Lomax on a trip collecting field recordings captured her voice singing The Rising Sun Blues Lomax deposited the song in the Library of Congress and included it in the 1941 book Our Singing Country In short order Woody Guthrie Pete Seeger Lead Belly and Josh White learned the song and each recorded it From there it began to move to the planet's farthest corners Today hundreds of artists have recorded House of the Rising Sun and it can be heard in the most diverse of places Chinese karaoke bars Gatorade ads and as a ring tone on cell phones Anthony began his search in New Orleans where he met Eric Burdon of the Animals He traveled to the Appalachians to eastern Kentucky eastern Tennessee and western North Carolina to scour the mountains for the song's beginnings He found Homer Callahan who learned it in the mountains during a corn shucking he discovered connections to Clarence Tom Ashley who traveled as a performer in a 1920s medicine show He went to Daisy Kentucky to visit the family of the late high lonesome singer Roscoe Holcomb and finally back to Bourbon Street to see if there really was a House of the Rising Sun He interviewed scores of singers who performed the song Through his own journey he discovered how American traditions survived and prospered and how a piece of culture moves through the modern world propelled by technology and globalization and recorded sound
