

How to Perfect a Security Interest

Filing

Perfection by filing takes place when the secured party files a financing statement with the secretary of state where the debtor is located.

The financing statement should include:

1. The debtor's name;
2. A description of the collateral; and
3. The secured party's name.

Automatic

There is automatic perfection for purchase money security interests in consumer goods.

(Note: temporary automatic perfection is available in some instances as well.)

Possession

Perfection can take place by possession for tangible negotiable documents, goods, instruments, money, or tangible chattel.

The secured party is only perfected so long as the item is possessed (unless the 20-day rule applies, discussed below).

Control

Security interests in investment property, deposit accounts, and electronic chattel paper may be perfected by control.

Deposit accounts must be perfected by control.

Secured Transactions In A Nutshell:

Secured Transactions in a Nutshell Henry J. Bailey, 1976 Secured Transactions in a Nutshell Richard B. Hagedorn, 2007 Hagedorn's Secured Transactions in a Nutshell provides extensive coverage of the 1999 version of UCC Article 9 now enacted by all states Coverage of the 1972 version of Article 9 and pre code law is included to provide historical perspective The text covers The scope of Article 9 The security agreement and attachment of the security interest Relationship of the debtor and secured party prior to default Perfection of the security interest by filing and other means Multistate choice of law and perfection issues Priority of the secured party and others in and out of bankruptcy Default and enforcement of the security interest Reforming Collateral Laws to Expand Access to Finance Heywood W. Fleisig, 2006 Most readers especially those with car loans or home mortgages know about collateral property that the lender can take away from the borrower in the event that the borrower defaults In low middle income countries it is understood that conservative lenders exclude firms from credit markets with their excessive collateral requirements Usually this is because only some property is acceptable as collateral large holdings of urban real estate and sometimes new motor vehicles Microenterprises SMEs and the poor have little of this property but they do have an array of productive assets that could easily be harnessed to serve as collateral It is only the legal framework which prevents firms from using these assets to secure loans In countries with reformed laws governing collateral property such as equipment inventory accounts receivable livestock are considered excellent collateral This book aims to better equip project managers to implement reforms to the legal and institutional framework for collateral secured transactions It discusses the importance of movable property as a source of collateral for firms the relationship between the legal framework governing movable assets and the financial sector consequences for firms better loan terms increased access more competitive financial sector and how reforms can be put in place to change the lending environment Searching the Law, 3d Edition Frank Bae, Edward Bander, Francis Doyle, Joel Fishman, Paul Richert, 2021-12-13 Specialized Legal Research , SECURES TRANSACTIONS CASES AND MATERIALS George E.
