Love and Russian Literature Ira Nadel, 2023-11-30 Russia haunted the British cultural imagination throughout the 20th century whether as a romantic source of literary and political inspiration or as a warning of creeping totalitarianism In this new book Ira Nadel charts the story of that influence through the work of some of the key figures in British literature across the century including Joseph Conrad Somerset Maugham Jane Harrison Virginia Woolf and H G Wells Framed by the story of two romantic encounters between Walter Benjamin and the actress Asja Lacis in

Moscow in 1926 and between Isaiah Berlin and Anna Akhmatova in 1945 Love and Russian Literature casts a vivid new light on the ways in which responses to Russia shaped the history of British modernism Towards a Dark Horizon Maureen Reynolds,2013-02-21 It is the 1930s and having survived the Great Depression the Neill family must now face up to the hardships of war The legacy Ann Neill has inherited from her kindly employer has been a godsend but just as their lives seem set to improve the threat of war with Germany looms and they seem headed for a similarly dark horizon Full of dark family secrets Towards A Dark Horizon tells the next part of the story of Ann and Lilly Neill their father Johnny as well as the Ryan clan and the budding relationship between Danny and Maddie But in the turbulent years before and after the start of the Second World War no one can escape the conflict or what fate has in store In Towards A Dark Horizon Maureen Reynolds continues her compelling story describing the trials and tribulations of working class life in the close knit community of pre war and wartime Dundee Our Man Down in Havana Christopher Hull,2019-03-05 When U S immigration authorities deported Graham Greene from Puerto Rico in 1954 the British author made an unplanned visit to Havana and the former MI6 officer had stumbled upon the ideal setting for a comic espionage story Three years later he returned in the midst of Castro s guerrilla insurgency against a U S backed dictator to begin writing his iconic novel Our Man in Havana Twelve weeks after its publication in January 1959 the Cuban Revolution triumphed soon transforming a capitalist playground into a communist stronghold Combining biography history politics and a measure of psychoanalysis Our Man Down in Havana investigates the real story behind Greene s fiction It includes his many visits to a pleasure island that became a revolutionary island turning his chance involvement into a political commitment His Cuban novel describes an amateur agent who dupes his intelligence chiefs with invented reports about concrete platforms and unidentifiable pieces of giant machinery With eerie prescience Greene s satirical tale had foretold the Cold War s most perilous episode the 1962 Cuban Missile Crisis Portraits from Life Jerome Boyd Maunsell,2018-01-05 What happens when novelists write about their own lives directly in memoirs and autobiographies rather than in novels How do they present themselves and what do their self portraits reveal In a series of biographical case studies Portraits from Life examines how seven canonical Modernist writers Joseph Conrad Ford Madox Ford Henry James Wyndham Lewis Gertrude Stein H G Wells and Edith Wharton depicted themselves in their memoirs and autobiographies during the first half of the twentieth century Drawing on a range of life writing sources in this innovative group portrait Jerome Boyd Maunsell reconstructs the periods during which these authors worked on their memoirs often towards the end of their lives and shows how memoirs and autobiographies are just as artful as novels The seven portraits in the book also create a rich network of encounters as many of these writers knew each other and wrote about each other in their reminiscences Portraits from Life investigates the difficulties and possibilities of autobiography the relation of fact and fiction biography and autobiography the ethical issues of dealing with real people the thin generic lines between novels and autobiographies and the deceptive workings of memory and how all these writers dealt with these concerns as they looked back on their lives An act of portraiture and biography as well as an act of criticism moving from London to Paris and through two world wars it also pieces together a fresh and constantly inter connecting narrative of the Modernist era in England and France
