Figures of Identity Clark S. Muenzer, 1990-10-01 The question of coherence in Goethe's novels which like Faust compelled his attention throughout his creative life has only recently occupied a few critics Professor Muenzer's study offers the most comprehensive effort of this kind by examining the problematic nature of self definition through the four novels and its emergence as a discursive process of the imagination The self of these texts Muenzer suggests evolves as a symbolic construct that records a pattern of pursuit for each of their protagonists and orients the reader toward three basic goals of human aspiration Thus Werther aspires to purposefulness as a center of teleological fulfillment while the hero of Wilhelm Meister's Apprenticeship refers to an ideological center of participation in his social desire Eduard in The Elective Affinities presumes to occupy a center of archaeological power through his typically self assertive strategies In the last of his novels Wilhelm Meister's Journeymanhood Goethe articulates the need to balance all such self involved behavior with an attitude of self denial Apparently the mind can orient itself through centers of purpose order and power but it must also recognize the illusion of their attainment Identity does not involve a substantive presence and the result of self definition for Goethe is interpretive work Each of Professor Muenzer's interpretations has been guided by this premise The interests of all of Goethe's novelistic protagonists he concludes serve as orienting postures toward goals that cannot be literally achieved Consequently symbolic resolutions are proposed These then introduce new problems as points of departure in subsequent works The hidden agenda of Goethe's work as a novelist is a self that exists as a textual problem a series of interpretive moves that endlessly defer the attainment of self presence by supplementing each other in narrative fictions David

'Being Towards Death' Sylvie Avakian, 2021-04-19 This book draws the philosophical contribution of Martin Heidegger together with theological spiritual insights from the East especially that of Nikolai Berdyaev Thus it brings into dialogue the West with the East and philosophy with theology By doing so it offers Christian theology an existential spiritual language that is relevant and meaningful for the contemporary reader In particular the work explores Heidegger's being towards death Sein zum Tode as the basis for theological philosophical thinking Only the one who embraces being towards death has the courage to think and poetize This thinking in turn makes being towards death possible and in this circular movement of thinking and being the mystery of being reveals itself and yet remains hidden Since the work aims at demonstrating being towards death through language it transitions away from the common formulations and traditionally accepted ways of writing dogmatic theology towards an original philosophical reflection on faith and spirituality At different points however the work also retrieves the profound thoughts and theologies of the past the insightful creativity of which cannot be denied
