More Than An Athlete Poems By Etan Thomas:

More Than an Athlete Etan Thomas, 2013-05-28 In this his first collection of poems Etan Thomas defies the stereotype of the a political athlete More Than an Athlete Etan Thomas, 2004 If Muhammad Ali and Jim Brown were the athletes without fear back in their day then Etan Thomas is this generation s athlete with a moral conscience and a voice a voice the has the courage to use boldly Kevin Powell Come Hell Or High Water Michael Eric Dyson, Paul Elliott, 2010-10 What Hurricane Katrina reveals about the fault lines of race and poverty in America and what lessons we must take from the flood from best selling hip hop intellectual Michael Eric Dyson Does George W Bush care about black people Does the rest of America When Hurricane Katrina tore through New Orleans and the Gulf Coast hundreds of thousands were left behind to suffer the ravages of destruction disease and even death The majority of these people were black nearly all were poor The federal government s slow response to local appeals for help is by now notorious Yet despite the cries of outrage that have mounted since the levees broke we have failed to confront the disaster s true lesson to be poor or black in today s ownership society is to be left behind Displaying the intellectual rigor political passion and personal empathy that have won him fans across the color line Michael Eric Dyson offers a searing assessment of the meaning of Hurricane Katrina Combining interviews with survivors of the disaster with his deep knowledge of black migrations and government policy over decades Dyson provides the historical context that has been sorely missing from public conversation He explores the legacy of black suffering in America since slavery including the shocking ways that black people are framed in the national consciousness even today With this call to action Dyson warns us that we can only find redemption as a society if we acknowledge that Katrina was more than an engineering or emergency response failure From the TV newsroom to the Capitol Building to the backyard we must change the ways we relate to the black and the poor among us What s at stake is no less than the future of democracy Deconstructing Tyrone Natalie Hopkinson, Natalie Y. Moore, 2006 A portrait of today s African American male evaluates both archetypes and stereotypes exploring black masculinity as it is represented by a range of personalities from professionals and hip hop figures to family men and criminals Original To Create Felicia Pride, 2012-05-03 To Create is a collection of illuminating interviews with an eclectic set of black artists including Harry Belafonte Method Man Nikki Giovanni Edwidge Danticat Edward P Jones Booker T Mattison and more as conducted by the writer entrepreneur educator and consultant Felicia Pride This is an honest inspiring series of conversations in which Pride and her fellow artists talk openly about the challenges and rewards of working creatively across a multitude of platforms Over the course of dozens of frank discussions with writers activists and media creators Pride elicits sincere firsthand perspectives on the struggle to find or to create if it s not there a niche for one s voice in the media landscape The personable and fluid interview style allows the artists to follow their threads of dialogue to unique intimate revelations The interviews transition smoothly between similar themes touching on the do it yourself mentality of creating practical musings on media careers as well as theoretical discussions on art legacy and community Additionally many of the artists musicians and authors discuss finding career longevity through a multi platform approach the connection between the personal and political in art and the ongoing conflict between art and commerce This is one of the most candid and diversified interview collections within the African American community but it is also a stirring look into what it means to be a creator Voices of the Future Etan Thomas,2013-01-15
