Steven Logan

Moriyama And Teshima:

In Search of a Soul Raymond, 2012-03-23 A great architect's personal account of conceiving designing and building the new Canadian War Museum a homage to the courage of all Canadians It's astonishing says historian Jack Granatstein of Raymond Moriyama's design for the new Canadian War Museum There is a context there's understanding there's intelligence This is the best museum in the whole world Without question In Search of a Soul is revered architect Moriyama's personal account of conceiving and creating this important perhaps iconic national monument which opened to great acclaim on May 8 2005 the sixtieth anniversary of VE Day Illustrated throughout with full colour plans drawings and photos it is a compelling story of one architect's commitment to a vision and to the country that provided his inspiration How can architecture reflect the ambience of battle without overpowering the visitor or glorifying war What is Canadian What does war mean Moriyama explores the difficult questions he wrestled with as the design took shape In this bold new museum and equally bold book a great Canadian artist challenges us to address these troubling questions Concrete Toronto Michael McClelland, Graeme Stewart, 2007 In the sixties architecture fell in love with concrete Architecture has since shifted its fondness to glass and steel and concrete buildings have fallen out of favor and into disrepair But they represent an exciting era of faith in architecture and technical innovation that has yet to be documented Concrete Toronto acts as a guidebook to the city's extensive concrete heritage Architects journalists professors concrete experts and even the original architects use a wealth of new and archival photos drawings interviews articles and case studies to celebrate Toronto's concrete past

Restoration and Recovery of an Industrial Region John M. Gunn, 2012-12-06 Sudbury Ontario is one of the world's most polluted areas A century of industrial activities has resulted in thousands of acidified lakes and vast areas of denuded land This book describes in a manner accessible to a wide audience the damage and the efforts at environmental restoration at Sudbury which resulted in its winning a United Nations award in 1992 for land reclamation The book has been written by a distinguished group of contributors ranging from experts in acid rain and land reclamation to environmental engineers and toxicologists The Routledge Handbook on Greening High-Density Cities Peng Du, Kheir Al-Kodmany, Mir M. Ali, 2024-06-17 This new handbook provides a platform to bring together multidisciplinary researchers focusing on greening high density agglomerations from three perspectives climate change social implications and people's health Written by leading scholars and experts the chapters aim to summarize the state of the art and produce a reference book for policymakers practitioners academics and researchers to study design and build high density cities by integrating green spaces The topics covered in the book include but are not limited to Urban Heat Island Green Space and Carbon Sequestration Green Space and Social Equity Green Space and Public Health Biophilic Cities Urban Agriculture Vertical Farms Urban Farming Technologies Nature and Biodiversity Nature and Health Biophilic Design Green Infrastructure Urban Revitalization Post Covid Cities Smart and Resilient Cities Tall Buildings and Sustainable Vertical Cities Integrated Practice in Architecture George Elvin, 2007-03-09 Endorsed by The American Institute of Architects this work is about integrated practice in architecture which is the collaborative design construction and life cycle management of buildings In the Suburbs of History Steven Logan, 2020-12-07 In the 1960s socialist and capitalist urban planners architects and city officials chose the urban periphery as the site to test out new ideas in modernist architecture and planning the outskirts of Prague and a bedroom suburb of Toronto would be the sites for experimental urban development In the Suburbs of History overcomes the divisions between East and West to reassemble the shared histories of modern architecture and urbanism as it shaped and re shaped the periphery Drawing on archives interviews architectural journals and site visits to the peripheries of Prague and Toronto Steven Logan reveals the intertwined histories of capitalist and socialist urban planning From socialist utopias to the capitalist visions of the edge city the history of the suburbs is not simply a history of competing urban forms rather it is a history of alternatives that advocated collective solutions over the dominant model of single family home ownership and car dominated spaces
