Mother Love Mother Hate The Power Of Maternal Ambivalence:

Mother Love/mother Hate Rozsika Parker, 1995 Many a loving mother has had fleeting feelings of hatred toward her children the desire to hurl a howling baby out the window or to lock a teenager out of the house In this provocative book Rozsika Parker argues that these ambivalent feelings not only are common but can actually have a creative impact on mothering Mother Love Mother Hate boldly illustrates how a mother's desire for devotion coexists with the impulse to hurt and desert Parents will find Parker's insight into the conflicts that beset them illuminating and deeply reassuring Reversing the conventional psychoanalytic approach in which maternal ambivalence has been understood chiefly from the point of view of the child this book gives precedence to the mother's perspective Drawing on interviews with mothers clinical material from her practice as a psychoanalytic psychotherapist and a wide range of psychoanalytic and literary sources including Virginia Woolf Anne Tyler Simone de Beauvoir D W Winnicott Melanie Klein and John Bowlby Parker explores experiences of maternal ambivalence in a culture painfully and profoundly uneasy about its very existence BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

Textual Mothers/Maternal Texts Elizabeth Podnieks, Andrea O'Reilly, 2011-04-07 Textual Mothers Maternal Texts focuses on mothers as subjects and as writers who produce auto biography fiction and poetry about maternity International contributors examine the mother without child with child and in her multiple identities as grandmother mother and daughter The collection examines how authors use textual spaces to accept negotiate resist or challenge traditional conceptions of mothering and maternal roles and how these texts offer alternative practices and visions for mothers Further it illuminates how textual representations both reflect and help to define or re shape the realities of women and families by examining how mothering and being a mother are political personal and creative narratives unfolding within both the pages of a book and the spaces of a life The range of chapters maps a shift from the daughter centric stories that have dominated the maternal tradition to the matrilineal and matrifocal perspectives that have emerged over the last few decades as the mother's voice moved from silence to speech Contributors make aesthetic cultural and political claims and critiques about mothering and motherhood illuminating in new and diverse ways how authors and the protagonists of the texts read their own maternal identities as well as the maternal scripts of their families cultures and nations in their quest for self knowledge agency and artistic expression

The Monster Within Barbara Almond, 2011-11 Weaving together case histories with rich examples from literature and popular culture Almond uncovers the roots of ambivalence tells how it manifests in lives of women and their children and describes a spectrum of maternal behaviour from normal feelings to highly disturbed mothering

Mothering and Ambivalence Brid Featherstone, Wendy Hollway, 2002-09-11 Children's rights lone motherhood and the breakdown of families are all issues at the forefront of current social debate in the West with little agreement on what constitutes good parenting or how the needs of both mother and child are best met The feminist contribution to this debate is particularly important in keeping in view the diverse identities of all those who provide mothering The psychoanalytic contribution is often undervalued and misunderstood Mothering and Ambivalence brings together authors from therapeutic academic and social work backgrounds to discuss dependency anxiety and gender relations within families Drawing on extensive professional experience the contributors combine a psychoanalytic and feminist approach to mothering which transcends the polarized and simplistic political debate about women s and children s needs They also show how such an approach can inform and improve professional practice

Woman's Inhumanity to Woman Phyllis Chesler, 2009-05-01 Man s inhumanity to man the phrase is all too familiar But until Phyllis Chesler s now classic book a profound silence prevailed about woman s inhumanity to woman Women s aggression may not take the same form as men s but girls and women are indeed aggressive often indirectly and mainly toward one another They judge harshly hold grudges gossip exclude and disconnect from other women Like men women are exposed to the messages of misogyny and sexism that permeate cultures worldwide Like men women unconsciously buy into negative images that can trigger abuse and mistreatment of other women But like other social victims many do not realize stereotyping affects members within the victimized group as well as those outside the group They do not realize their behavior reflects society s biases How women view and treat other women matters Are women oppressed Yes Do oppressed people internalize their oppressors attitudes Without a doubt Prejudice must first be acknowledged before it can be resisted or overcome More than men women depend upon one another for emotional intimacy and bonding and exclusionary and sexist behavior enforces female conformity and discourages independence and psychological growth Continuing the pioneering work begun in Women and Madness Chesler s bestselling book that broke the story on double standards in psychology Woman s Inhumanity to Woman draws on important studies revolutionary theories literature and hundreds of original interviews Chesler urges us to look within to treat other women realistically ethically and kindly and to forge bold and compassionate alliances This is a necessary next step for women without which they will never be liberated

Narratives of Sorrow and Dignity Bardwell L. Smith, 2013-07-11 Bardwell L Smith offers a fresh perspective on mizuko kuyo the Japanese ceremony performed to bring solace to those who have experienced miscarriage stillbirth or abortion Showing how old and new forms of myth symbol doctrine praxis and organization combine and overlap in contemporary mizuko kuyo Smith provides critical insight from many angles the sociology of the family the power of the medical profession the economics of temples the import of ancestral connections the need for healing in both private and communal ways and perhaps above all the place of women in modern Japanese religion At the heart of Smith s research is the issue of how human beings experience the death of a life that has been and remains precious to them While universal these losses are also personal and unique The role of society in helping people to heal from these experiences varies widely and has changed enormously in recent decades In examples of grieving for these kinds of losses one finds narratives not only of deep sorrow but of remarkable dignity

Italian Motherhood on Screen Giovanna Faleschini Lerner, Maria Elena D'Amelio, 2017-10-14

This book is the first scholarly analysis that considers the specificity of situated experiences of the maternal from a variety of theoretical perspectives From Fertility Day to Family Day the concept of motherhood has been at the center of the public debate in contemporary Italy partly in response to the perceived crisis of the family the economic crisis and the crisis of national identity provoked by the forces of globalization and migration secularization and the instability of labor markets Through essays by an international cohort of established and emerging scholars this volume aims to read these shifts in cinematic terms How does Italian cinema represent negotiate and elaborate changing definitions of motherhood in narrative formal and stylistic terms The essays in this volume focus on the figures of working mothers women who opt for a child free adulthood single mothers ambivalent mothers lost mothers or imperfect mothers who populate contemporary screen narratives

Infant Observation Frances Thomson-Salo, 2018-05-11 Seminal and representative papers have been chosen to illustrate the vital importance of infant observation in psychoanalytic training tracing influences on the practice of infant observation and contemporary developments The book outlines the thinking that has evolved since Esther Bick's introduction of this innovative component in Tavistock child psychotherapy and British Psychoanalytical Society training

Clinical Perspectives on Reflective Parenting M. Hossein Etezady, Mary Davis, 2012-08-02 Clinical Perspectives on Reflective Parenting addresses the reasons for focusing on understanding a child's emotional world as a way of becoming a more effective parent The book also addresses techniques for assisting parents to accomplish this understanding

Motherhood In and After Prison Lucy Baldwin, 2022-07-05 Motherhood In and After Prison focuses on how imprisonment impacts incarcerated mothers maternal identity emotions and role It explores both the short and longer term consequences of sending mothers to prison It reveals the devastating and often underestimated impact of maternal imprisonment on mothers themselves on their children and on their families and their place in society Based on special access to mothers and grandmothers who were either still in prison or contributing post release this new book will be of considerable interest to policymakers educators practitioners researchers feminists and women's support groups It follows the author's acclaimed Mothering Justice It contains imprisoned mothers' thoughts gained via first hand interviews and letters The book concludes with recommendations for positive change and improved informed responses to criminalised and imprisoned mothers relating to their lives before prison in prison and after prison including when renegotiating motherhood in the doubly triply quadruply deviant context of a convicted mother Packed with information data analysis and the women's own words the book will be of great interest to both a national and international audience Based on first hand accounts by imprisoned mothers grandmothers of their incarceration Deeply probes their multi layered challenges A feminist matricentric tour de force With extensive new findings and recommendations

Reviews This timely book beautifully educates without judgement and is a must read for policymakers and practitioners alike driving home a most critical message about the colossal and devastating impact of imprisoning mothers Lady Edwina Grosvenor From the Foreword
