Mothering The Self Mothers Daughters Subjects:

Mothering the Self Steph Lawler, 2000 This text examines the ways in which mothers and daughters participate in their understanding of class gender and race locations both using and resisting them Mothering the Self Stephanie Lawler, 2002-01-04 The mother daughter relationship has preoccupied feminist writers for decades but typically it has been the daughter's story at centre stage Mothering the Self brings together these maternal and daughterly stories by drawing on in depth interviews with women who speak both as mothers and as daughters This study examines the ways in which these mothers and daughters participate in their understanding of class gender and race locations both using and resisting them The result is a fresh start from which to consider the far reaching implications of this relationship not simply for mothers and daughters but in terms of how we understand the shaping of the self and its place within the social world Mother, She Wrote Yi-Lin Yu, 2005 In this enjoyable and insightful book Yi Lin Yu takes the heated and ongoing feminist debate over motherhood and maternal subjectivity onto a new plane in search of a new synthesis With its specific focus on the three tiered matrilineal narratives Mother She Wrote is distinguished by its complex and innovative deployment of psychoanalytic subject relations theories and a meticulous and detailed discussion of various literary texts which calls forth a powerful reformulation of these narratives One of the main strengths of this book is this simultaneous and tactful command of theory and literary practice Apart from advocating the burgeoning development of women's writing of matrilineal narratives the author also sheds new light on further research in the area of feminist motherhood and mothering Publisher's description

redefinition of those practices Based on the memories and experiences of educated and professional women of different ages the mother daughter relationship is discussed through various themes separation communication domestic public boundaries male privilege the sexed body reproduction and filial responsibilities Mothers and Daughters in Arab Women's Literature Dalya Abudi,2010-11-11 This study explores the mother daughter relationship as the most fundamental and most intimate female relationship It draws on both early and contemporary writings of Arab women to illuminate the traditional and evolving nature of mother daughter relationships in Arab families and how these family dynamics reflect and influence modern Arab life Mothers of Adult Children Marguerite Guzman Bouvard,2013-09-12 Mothers of Adult Children elucidates what happens when children come of age and leave home creating new lives in the realms of work and relationships Mothers from around the world learn that this is the point in which their relationships with their children must drastically change Mothers often come to terms with the changes by accepting differences and providing moral and emotional support when needed However the evolutionary nature of mothers roles throughout the course of their children s lives is not only determined by the mother child dynamic The mothering of adult children is a transformative role and the stories presented here show that the dynamics between mother and child are also influenced by cultural events Accidents disasters war and other hardships also intervene in these stories of multicultural motherhood This book reveals the problems mothers of adult children face and celebrates the outstanding accomplishments of those who mother through hardship

Theatre History Studies 2016, Vol. 35 Sara Freeman,2016-12-06 Rosemarie K Bank and Michal Kobialka eds Theatre Performance Historiography Time Space Matter Reviewed by Danny Devlin Antigone's Daughters Marta L. Wilkinson,2008 Antigone s Daughters presents various readings of the classical myth of Antigone as interpreted through modern feminist and psychoanalytic literary theories Topics such as femininity education and establishing selfhood amidst the restrictions of the patriarchal society presented by Sophocles provide the foundation for the modern novel This study serves as a model for the comparative interpretation of literary works of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries including the writings of George Sand Indiana Karolina Pavlova A Double Life Nikolai Chernyshevsky What Is to Be Done Emile Zola L Assommoir and Nana Mar a Luisa Bombal La amortajada and Isabel Allende The House of the Spirits Each chapter isolates an aspect of Antigone s struggle within both the public and domestic spheres as she negotiates her independence and asserts her voice A valuable tool for the study of modern literature the universality of Antigone presented in this study prompts the investigation of many classical motifs while providing a thorough study of various national literatures within their own contemporary contexts Mother-Texts Julie Kelso,Marie Porter,2010-07-12 Every day human beings tell and are told stories sometimes in obvious ways sometimes not Most of our communication with each other direct or indirect involves narrative production and reception Narrative is constitutive of human being However whose narratives are heard Feminists argue that the relations between language knowledge gender and power particularly the question as to whether man made and controlled language is a material fit to receive and convey woman s stories are critical issues because historically patriarchy has worked to silence women s dialogue Male knowledge unsurprisingly created and continues to create unrepresentative maternal narratives which lead to unreal expectations of mothers and motherwork It is therefore disconcertingly significant for mothers that neither mothers nor their motherwork have been considered worthy of historical record nor are historical records usually written from a mother s perspective Hence the narrative research in this book which gives recognition to motherhood mothers and or the work they do is valuable It adds to the rapidly accumulating maternal research research that is now available for the historical record Mothers are speaking up developing a canon of literature research narrated in maternal language and claiming maternal knowledge and power

Negotiating Feminisms Eilidh AB Hall,2021-03-04 Negotiating Feminisms examines intergenerational feminism in Chicana family life It analyses literary representations of the ways that Chicanas negotiate feminisms in the family across generations through the maintenance contestation and adaptation of traditional gender roles Using an original theoretical lens of negotiation to read the works of Ana Castillo and Sandra Cisneros this book unpacks intergenerational resistance to patriarchal oppression This book shows how the works of Cisneros and Castillo articulate a politics of negotiation that critiques the gendered ideologies and roles of the family In doing so the book s discussion not only engages with literary representations but also connects these representations to the contextual experience of Chicana family life This book calls for a rethinking of women characters beyond limited and limiting familial roles and uses the framework of feminist negotiation as a means to explore the empowering possibilities of intergenerational female relationships

Italian Women's Autobiographical Writings in the Twentieth Century Ursula Fanning,2017-09-07 This book highlights the centrality of the autobiographical enterprise to Italian women s writing through the twentieth century a century that has frequently been referred to as the century of the self Ursula Fanning addresses the thorny issue of essentialism potentially involved in underlining links between women s writing and autobiographical modes and ultimately rejects it in favor of an argument based on the cultural linguistic and literary marginalization of women writers within the Italian context It is concerned with Italian women writers various ways of grappling with constructions of subjectivity throughout the century and sets out to explore them Fanning reads autobiographical writing as subject to many of the same constraints as fiction and in doing so draws attention to the significance of the recurring use of the terms pure and impure in many critical and theoretical discussions of the autobiographical where pure is used to suggest a truthful representation of a life while impure suggests the messy undertaking of mixing lived experience with fiction Recurring patterns and paradigms are found in the works of the various writers considered eighteen in all and these paradigms are analyzed through close readings of their works These close readings offer insights into approaches to the constructions of subjectivity in the narratives and are informed by feminist theories The chapters focus on selves in relationship taking their lead from the patterns unfolding in the writers work hence the subjects are constructed as daughters with different views of the self in relation to fathers and mothers within the confines of the romantic relationship which involves reconsiderations and rewritings of the romance plot as maternal subjects and as writers with an eye on their relationship to the literary canon as well as to the relationship with readers This book argues that there is such a thing as gendered subjectivity and that its constructions may be traced through the texts analyzed

Musical Mothering Sally Savage, 2024-10-09 This book examines how gender and class discourses shape musical mothering by incorporating knowledges from sociology psychology cultural studies and education Chapters detail the fundamental and functional role that mothers play in children s musical development alongside children s agency in influencing familial experiences Music plays an essential role in the lives of mothers for themselves Through interviews with mothers and grandmothers as well as the author s own autobiographical reflections the author offers a unique interdisciplinary approach to motherhood and music within Australian culture

Maternal Connections: Kandee Kosior, Joan Garvan, 2022-09-15 This is a wonderful and insightful collection of stories and reflections of mothers on the connection with their own mother after becoming a mother themselves The chapters are primarily autobiographical and are told through a range of lens be it a graphic chapter or the more literary An author outlines Anishinaabeg ceremonial practices that honour and represent maternal connections and others demonstrate how art and craft can both assist in working through and carry forward maternal stories Two further pieces use a combination of literary critique feminist theory and post Freudian psychoanalysis to interpret varied texts and another highlights findings from a series of interviews with women reflecting on the attributes and practices they will carry forward or discard from their experience of being mothered

Not Just Any Dress Sandra Weber, Claudia Mitchell, 2004 If dresses could talk what stories might they tell This compelling collection of short stories essays and poems features dress as the structural grounding for autobiographical accounts from women s lives in Western society Often personal in nature these dress stories point unflinchingly to matters of social and cultural import Some of the dresses described inhabit the popular imagination the little girl dress the communion dress the school uniform the prom dress the wedding dress the little black dress and the burial dress Beyond the semiotic tactile and visual aspects of the dresses themselves the narratives delve into what dresses reveal about fundamental aspects of human experience identity embodiment relationship and mortality Bought or made then worn forgotten remembered re constructed and re interpreted each dress offers a new glimpse into how we construct meaning in our daily lives and how dresses serve to reinforce or resist social structures and cultural expectations

Mothers at the Margins Jenny Jones, Marie Porter, Lisa Raith, 2015-06-18 In the last two decades maternal scholarship has grown exponentially Despite this however there are still numerous areas which remain under researched one of which is the experiences of marginalised mothers Far from being a sentimental feel good account of mothering this collection speaks with the voices of mothers through the application of a matricentric lens In particular it speaks with the voices of those mothers who feel alienated or stigmatised mothers who have been rendered

La Mamma Penelope Morris,Perry Willson,2018-06-07 The idea of the mamma italiana is one of the most widespread and recognizable stereotypes in perceptions of Italian national character both within and beyond Italy This figure makes frequent appearances in jokes and other forms of popular culture but it has also been seen as shaping the lived experience of modern day Italians of both sexes as well as influencing perceptions of Italy in the wider world This interdisciplinary collection examines the invented tradition of mammismo but also contextualizes it by discussing other often contrasting ways in which the role of mothers and the mother son relationship have been understood and represented in culture and society over the last century and a half both in Italy and in its diaspora Identity in the 21st Century M. Wetherell,2009-11-05 Bringing together leading scholars to investigate trends in contemporary social life this book examines the current patterning of identities based on class and community gender and generation race faith and ethnicity and derived from popular culture exploring debates about social change individualization and the re making of social class Class, Self, Culture Beverley Skeggs,2013-11-05 Class Self Culture puts class back on the map in a novel way by taking a new look at how class is made and given value through culture It shows how different classes become attributed with value enabling culture to be deployed as a resource and as a form of property which has both use value to the person and exchange value in systems of symbolic and economic exchange The book shows how class has not disappeared but is known and spoken in a myriad of different ways always working through other categorisations of nation race gender and sexuality and across different sites through popular culture political rhetoric and academic theory In particular attention is given to how new forms of personhood are being generated through mechanisms of giving value to culture and how what we come to know and assume to be a self is always a classed formation Analysing four processes of inscription institutionalisation perspective taking and exchange relationships it challenges recent debates on reflexivity risk rational action theory individualisation and mobility by showing how these are all reliant on fixing some people in place so that others can move
