Movies Seventeen Stories:

Make Your Story a Movie John Robert Marlow, 2012-12-11 50 Billion of Advice in One Book Have you ever wondered why some books and stories are adapted into movies and others aren't? Or wished you could sit down and pick the brains of the people whose stories have been adapted or the screenwriters, producers and directors who adapted them? Author John Robert Marlow has done it for you. He spoke to book authors, playwrights, comic book creators and publishers as well as Hollywood screenwriters, producers and directors responsible for adapting fictional and true stories into Emmy winning TV shows, Oscar winning films, billion dollar megahits and smaller independents. Then he talked to the entertainment attorneys who made the deals. He came away with a unique understanding of adaptations and an understanding he shares in this book which stories make good source material and why, what Hollywood wants and doesn't, what you can and can't get in a movie deal, how to write and pitch your story to maximize the chances of a Hollywood adaptation and how much and when you can expect to be paid. This book contains the distilled experience of creators, storytellers and others whose works have earned over 50 billion worldwide. Whether you're looking to sell film rights, adapt your own story alone or with help, or option and adapt someone else's property, this book is for you. A Supposedly Fun Thing I'll Never Do Again David Foster Wallace, 2009-11-23

These widely acclaimed essays from the author of Infinite Jest on television, tennis, cruise ships and more established David Foster Wallace as one of the preeminent essayists of his generation. In this exuberantly praised book, a collection of seven pieces on subjects ranging from television to tennis, from the Illinois State Fair to the films of David Lynch, from postmodern literary theory to the supposed fun of traveling aboard a Caribbean luxury cruiseliner, David Foster Wallace brings to nonfiction the same curiosity, hilarity and exhilarating verbal facility that has delighted readers of his fiction, including the bestselling Infinite Jest.

Movies in the Age of Obama David Garrett Izzo, 2014-08-26 The historic election of Barack Obama to the presidency of the United States had a significant impact on both America and the world at large. By voting an African American into the highest office, those who elected Obama did not necessarily look past race, but rather didn't let race prevent them from casting their ballots in his favor. In addition to reflecting the changing political climate, Obama's presidency also spurred a cultural shift, notably in music, television and film. In Movies in the Age of Obama: The Era of Post-Racial and Neo-Racist Cinema, David Garrett Izzo presents a varied collection of essays that examine films produced since the 2008 election. The contributors to these essays comment on a number of films in which race and otherness are pivotal elements. In addition to discussing such films as Beasts of the Southern Wild, Black Dynamite, The Blind Side, The Butler, Django Unchained, The Help and Invictus, this collection also includes essays that probe racial elements in The Great Gatsby, The Hunger Games and The Mist. The volume concludes with several essays that examine the 2013 Academy Award winner for best picture, 12 Years a Slave. Though Obama's election may have been the main impetus for a resurgence of black films, this development is a bit more complicated. Moviemakers have long responded to the changing times, so it is inevitable that the Obama presidency would spark an increase in films that comment either subtly or overtly on the current cultural climate By looking at the issue these films address Movies in the Age of Obama will be of value to film scholars of course but also to those interested in other disciplines including history politics and cultural studies On Story—Screenwriters and Filmmakers on Their Iconic Films Barbara Morgan, Maya Perez, 2016-10-04 On Story is film school in a box a lifetime's worth of filmmaking knowledge squeezed into half hour packages Kenneth Turan film critic for the Los Angeles Times Austin Film Festival AFF is the first organization focused on the writer's creative contribution to film Its annual Film Festival and Conference offers screenings panels workshops and roundtable discussions that help new writers and filmmakers connect with mentors and gain advice and insight from masters as well as refreshing veterans with new ideas To extend the festival's reach AFF produces On Story a television series currently airing on PBS affiliated stations and streaming online that presents footage of high caliber artists talking candidly and provocatively about the art and craft of screenwriting and filmmaking often using examples from their own films On Story Screenwriters and Filmmakers on Their Iconic Films presents renowned award winning screenwriters and filmmakers discussing their careers and the stories behind the production of their iconic films such as L A Confidential Thelma Louise Groundhog Day Guardians of the Galaxy The Silence of the Lambs In the Name of the Father Apollo 13 and more In their own lively words transcribed from interviews and panel discussions Ron Howard Callie Khouri Jonathan Demme Ted Tally Jenny Lumet Harold Ramis and others talk about creating stories that resonate with one's life experiences or topical social issues as well as how to create appealing characters and bring them to life Their insights production tales and fresh practical and proven advice make this book ideal for film lovers screenwriting students and filmmakers and screenwriters seeking inspiration A Year of Hitchcock Jim McDevitt, Eric San Juan, 2009-04-01 Alfred Hitchcock's career spanned more than five decades during which he directed more than 50 films many of them indisputable classics Notorious Strangers on a Train Rear Window Vertigo North by Northwest and Psycho among others In A Year of Hitchcock 52 Weeks with the Master of Suspense authors Jim McDevitt and Eric San Juan provide a comprehensive examination of Hitchcock's film to film development spanning from the beginning of his career in silents to his final film in 1976 including his work on two French propaganda shorts he directed during World War II and segments he directed for Alfred Hitchcock Presents Organized into 52 chapters and arranged in chronological order the book invites readers to spend a year with the director's most notable works all of which are available on DVD Each film is examined in the context of Hitchcock's career as the authors consider the themes central to his work discuss each film's production comment on the cast script and other aspects of the film and assess the film's value to the Hitchcock viewer From The Lodger to Family Plot 68 works directed by Hitchcock are analyzed Each analysis is supplemented by key film facts trivia awards a guide to his cameos a filmography and a listing of available DVD releases Whether readers decide to undertake the journey through his films one week at a time or pick and choose at their discretion A Year of Hitchcock will open the eyes of any viewer who
