Fodor's

Oslo And Bergen:

Norway Fodor's, Rebecca Miller, Fodor's Travel Publications, Inc. Staff, 1998 There is a conspiracy painted in Rembrandt's The Nightwatch. The sinister title of the painting alone suggests we should look for it. And we should listen too to the sound track of the painting. Amongst all the hullabaloo the dogs barking the drummer drumming the clattering of thirteen pikes the hallowing of Banning Cocq the loudest sound is of a musket shot. You can see the flame of the firing bursting forth behind the head of the foreground shining figure in yellow who carries the head of his halberd where his prick should be and whose belly is groped by the shadow of the hand of his companion. Where did the bullet go? We should investigate and when we do in the end with a little ingenious adventuring we can plainly see that the whole gaudy endeavour of this painting of Rembrandt's Nightwatch probably the third most celebrated painting in the Western World after Leonardo's Mona Lisa a subversive painting if every there was one and Michelangelo's Sistine offering certainly a pagan painting paid for by a Christian pope is going to stir up trouble. It is in that tradition where great painters are known by their Christian names. Rembrandt's great subversive act his Jaceuse. The painting is a demonstration of murder with the murderers all picked out in detail. How delicious is the thought that Rembrandt got paid and got paid quite well for revealing the truth about that part time home guard Amsterdam burgher party playing at soldiers in the Golden Age of Holland's greatest fifteen minutes of Warhole good fortune. BOOK JACKET Oslo and Bergen BERLITZ, Ken Bernstein, Walter Imber, 1981 Oslo and Bergen, 1981

them There are therefore many more interested parties involved in both providing and deciding issues relating to the provision of air transport in these situations most especially central regional and local governments who are charged with financing these activities The book contains 17 chapters from experts in remote region air transport within the following 5 sections Key economic and socio economic issues Subvention mechanisms Route development initiatives Infrastructure provision Issues affecting the provision of air services in remoter regions
