Daily Lives and Daily Routines in the Long Eighteenth Century Gudrun Andersson, Jon Stobart, 2021-08-12 This book explores the ways in which the lives and routines of a wide range of people across different parts of Europe and the wider world were structured and played out through everyday practices. It focuses on the detail of individual lives and how these were shaped by spaces and places, by movement and material culture, both the buildings they occupied and the objects they used in their everyday lives. Drawing on original research by a range of established and emerging scholars, each chapter peers into the lives of people from various social groups as they went about their daily lives, from citizens on the streets to aristocrats at home in their country houses and from the urban elite at leisure to seamen on board ships bound for the East Indies. For all these people, daily routines were important in structuring their lives, giving them a rhythm that was knowable and meaningful in its temporal regularity, be that daily, weekly or seasonal. So too were their everyday encounters and relationships with other people, within and beyond the home; these shaped their practices, movements and identities and thus served to mould society in a broader sense.

Kina - den nye supermakten Sun Heidi Sæbø, 2019-02-23 Kunnskapsrikt og spennende om det nye Kina. Kina har gjennomgått en spektakulær utvikling de seneste 30 årene. Kina har vokst i rekordfart, skyskraperne har skutt i været og millioner av kinesere har tatt steget fra fattigdom til middelklasse. Selv om Kina nå er blant verdens supermakter, vet nordmenn forbløffende lite om landet. Den anerkjente utenriksjournalisten Sun Heidi Sæbø har reist i president Xi Jinpings fotspor for å gi leseren innsikt i dagens Kina og landets moderne historie. Den kinesiske suksessen har også mange nattsider. Vi får lese om miljøskandaler, folkeforflyttinger, protestene i 1989 og fredsprisvinner Liu Xiaobos skjebne. Til sammen tegner Sæbø et interessant og til tider skremmende bilde av dette fascinerende landet som bare kommer til å bli enda mektigere og viktigere fremover.

Encyclopedia of Exploration to 1800 Raymond John Howgego, 2003 A comprehensive reference guide to the history and literature of exploration, travel and colonization from the earliest times to the year 1800. The vast scope of the Encyclopedia of Exploration makes it a work unlike any other in its combination of historical, biographical and bibliographical data. It includes a catalogue of all known expeditions, voyages and travels, as well as biographical information on the travellers themselves, which places them in their historical context. The Encyclopedia of Exploration to 1800 is a massive undertaking, resulting in a work that extends to 1.2 million words in almost 1200 pages. The 2327 major articles have generated index entries totalling more than 7500 names of persons or ships mentioned in the text. Within the text itself, there are about 4000 cross references between articles. Altogether, nearly 20 000 bibliographical citations accompany the articles. A considerable quantity of information in this book is presented here for the first time in English.

European Everyday Life in Canton and Macao 1730-1830 Lisa Hellman, 2018-10-16 Lisa Hellman offers the first study of European everyday life in Canton and Macao. How foreigners could live, communicate, move around, even whom they could interact with, were all things strictly regulated by the Chinese authorities. The Europeans sometimes adapted to and sometimes subverted these rules. Focusing on this conditional domesticity shows the importance of gender relations, especially the construction of masculinity. Using the Swedish East India Company, a minor European actor in an expanding Asian empire, as a point of entry highlights the multiplicity of actors taking part in local negotiations of power. The European attempts at making a home in China contribute to a global turn in everyday history but also to an everyday turn in global history.

Cannabis Robert Clarke, Mark Merlin, 2016-06-28 Cannabis Evolution and Ethnobotany is a comprehensive interdisciplinary exploration of the natural origins and early evolution of this famous plant, highlighting its historic role in the development of human societies. Cannabis has long been prized for the strong and durable fiber in its stalks, its edible and oil-rich seeds, and the psychoactive and medicinal compounds produced by its female flowers. The culturally valuable and often irreplaceable goods derived from cannabis deeply influenced the commercial, medical, ritual, and religious practices of cultures throughout the ages, and human desire for these commodities directed the evolution of the plant toward its contemporary varieties. As interest in cannabis grows and public debate over its many uses rises, this book will help us understand why humanity continues to rely on this plant and adapts it to suit our needs.

Örgryte genom tiderna F. Stenström, 1920 Visual, Material and Textual Cultures of Food and Drink in China, 200 BCE-1900 CE Stacey Pierson, 2022-08-25 This collection of essays examines aspects of the history of food and drink in China through an innovative interdisciplinary lens. Arranged in chronological and thematic order, the chapters present the research of a diverse group of international scholars and cover subjects ranging from Han period tomb paintings, jade goblets used for ceremonial elixirs, and pottery figurines of kitchen servants to Tang gold vessels, Ming porcelain wine cups, and 18th century imperial tea houses. This volume can therefore be read as a material history of Chinese food and drink through utensils and ingredients such as tea and wine, as well as a developmental survey of drinking and dining practices, food cultures, and culinary concepts in historical China. It will appeal to anyone with an interest in Chinese culinary history, Chinese art and archaeology, as well as world food cultures.
