Other Apostolates Today Selected Letters:

Other Apostolates Today Pedro Arrupe,1981 Selected Letters and Addresses Pedro Arrupe,1979 The Chant of Life Mark L. MacDonald,2000 What does it mean to inculturate liturgy Why is it necessary What value does it hold for the people Does it impact the church as a whole What does the process of inculturation teach about liturgy Bishop McDonald as editor has assembled a broad list of contributors who address the issues of liturgical inculturation from theological scriptural musical spiritual and pastoral perspectives in the context of the Native American community The discussions are of value to the wider church as it looks forward to a new era How Shall We Pray? Ruth A. Meyers,2000-01-01 A significant collection of articles on expanding our language about God compiled by Ruth A Meyers for the Standing Liturgical Commission Topics discussed include theological biblical and historical perspectives on Supplemental Liturgical Materials biblical origins of inclusive language historical and theological perspectives on expanding liturgical language and gender and trinitarian language Selected Letters and Addresses: One Jesuit's spiritual journey Pedro Arrupe,1979 Other Apostolates Today Pedro Arrupe,1981 Crossings and Dwellings Kyle B. Roberts,Stephen Schloesser, J.S.,2017-07-31 In Crossings and Dwellings Kyle Roberts and Stephen Schloesser S J bring together essays by eighteen scholars in one of the first volumes to explore the work and experiences of Jesuits and their women religious collaborators in North America over two centuries following the Jesuit Restoration Long dismissed as anti liberal anti nationalist and ultramontanist restored Jesuits and their women religious collaborators are revealed to provide a useful prism for looking at some of the most important topics in modern history immigration nativism urbanization imperialism secularization anti modernization racism feminism and sexual reproduction Approaching this broad range of topics from a variety of disciplinary perspectives this volume provides a valuable contribution to an understudied period Companions in the Mission of Jesus Brian E. Daley,1987 A sequel and companion to Place Me with Your Son this anthology of passages from the writings of St Ignatius of Loyola and from the foundation documents of the Society of Jesus are arranged thematically so as to be suitable for prayerful reading during the Lenten and Easter seasons International Handbook of the Religious, Moral and Spiritual Dimensions in Education Marian de Souza,Gloria Durka,Kathleen Engebretson,Robert Jackson,Andrew McGrady,2007-06-04 Traditionally spirituality has resided and been contained within religious frameworks but while the links between the two areas are still acknowledged by many in the contemporary world spirituality is perceived by some as an aspect of human life that is distinct from religion Consequently many are searching for meaning within and without religious traditions today and seeking answers to ethical and moral questions that have been generated by the knowledge and technological explosion One outcome is the renewed interest in the religious spiritual and moral dimensions of education throughout the life cycle This International Handbook presents the research and professional practice of scholars who are daily engaged in the consideration of these dimensions in education The result is a collection of essays which reflects the discipline in all of its internationality as it is today Embedded within the chapters is also an agenda for the future where the religious moral and spiritual dimensions in education are proposed as an exciting and challenging way forward for educators at all levels in society As well it offers a vision for the emergence of a peaceful and just world Courage and Conviction Anthony J. Gittins,2018-01-15

Today many Christians concerned and challenged by contemporary trends in society and religion are bewildered and perhaps tempted to leave the Church and manage on their own Courage and Conviction is addressed to discerning adult Christians who seek something between high theology and pious platitudes Ranging from consideration of Christian identity via the challenge of faith filled living in a world of diversity to suggestions for mature discipleship today these reflections building on Scripture studies cultural anthropology and life experience are offered by way of support encouragement and perhaps further enlightenment Discovering Pope Francis Brian Yong Lee,Thomas L. Knoebel,2019-10-07

2020 Association of Catholic Publishers third place award in theology 2020 Catholic Press Association third place award in Pope Francis books The dangerous tendency to reduce theological positions to political ones has always fueled divisions in the Church and it plagues debates surrounding Pope Francis s teaching today This collection of essays was born of a landmark international symposium designed to promote theological understanding by contextualizing the thought of Pope Francis from his understanding of history to his theology of mission within important theological conversations rarely heard in the US Catholic Church Its contributors demonstrate decisively that Pope Francis s magisterium is the fruit of a profound and distinctive yet deeply Catholic intellectual engagement with the theological and ecclesial traditions of the Church The Routledge Handbook of African Theology Elias Kifon Bongmba,2020-05-25

Theology has a rich tradition across the African continent and has taken myriad directions since Christianity first arrived on its shores This handbook charts both historical developments and contemporary issues in the formation and application of theologies across the member countries of the African Union Written by a panel of expert international contributors chapters firstly cover the various methodologies needed to carry out such a survey Various theological movements and themes are then discussed as well as biblical and doctrinal issues pertinent to African theology Subjects addressed include Orality and theology Indigenous religions and theology Patristics Pentecostalism Liberation theology Black theology Social justice Sexuality and theology Environmental theology Christology Eschatology The Hebrew Bible and the New Testament The Routledge Handbook of African Theology is an authoritative and comprehensive survey of the theological landscape of Africa As such it will be a hugely useful volume to any scholar interested in African religious dynamics as well as academics of Theology or Biblical Studies in an African context The Laity as Participants in the Mission of the Church Humphrey C.

Anameje,2017-06-05 The church is made up of both the clergy and the laity And for it to properly fulfill the mission for which it was instituted by Christ all its members each according to his or her God given gift must contribute both to the upbuilding of the church and to its mission On the part of the laity their active participation in the general mission of the church ad intra and ad extra has been a great challenge in the life and practice of the church throughout its history The Second Vatican Council in its spirit of aggiornamento makes some positive difference This work critically examines the conciliar documents some relevant postconciliar documents and theological reflection of some theologians And finally it proffers solutions that will enhance the active participation of the laity in the mission of the church in general and the church in Southeast Nigeria in particular

Toward a Theology of Inculturation Aylward Shorter, 2006-01-30 Inculturation is a word come only recently into theological language having its origin and impetus in a revolution in the perception of Christian mission even of Christian identity Toward a Theology of Inculturation is the first book to bring together the many strands of current and historical Catholic thought on what might be called a theology of a multicultural church Inculturation Shorter argues is the recognition that faith must in effect become culture to be fully received and lived In the course of a wide ranging discussion the author explores the intimate relationship between inculturation and theology focusing in particular on scripture the history of missions especially in Africa and contemporary Catholic thought Shorter concludes with an exploration of the future of the church a multicultural church Toward a Theology of Inculturation offers a substantive explication of what inculturation is what it is not how and when it occurs and what its limits are or should be The Eucharist as Orikonso

Damian Onwuegbuchulam Eze, 2008 In this book the author relying on the research he carried out in Igboland Nigeria leads us to see the action of God's grace already active in the Igbo religious culture called Omenala Ndigbo before the coming of Christian missionaries and how these cultural values have prepared the people to receive the Gospel But as he points out these cultural values on which the Christian message ought to have been built from the beginning were grossly misunderstood and neglected The Igbo people are now mainly Christians But because the Gospel has not yet become their culture some of them have double allegiance to the doctrines of the Church and to the practices of Omenala Ndigbo The author opines that to build the Catholic Church in Igboland on a solid foundation the Eucharist must take the central place since the Eucharist makes the Church and is the source and summit of the life of the Church Thus the work which uses the analytical and hermeneutical method known as inculturation is on Eucharistic Ecclesiology from an Igbo perspective and will be useful for the Church both at the local and universal levels for self understanding and renewal ecumenism dialogue and mission

Understanding Religious Change in Africa and Europe: Crossing Latitudes Nathan Irmiya Elawa, 2020-04-15 This book examines and compares the religious experience of an African group with a European one It offers an ethnographical investigation of the Jukun of north central Nigeria The author also organically weaves into the narrative the Christianization of the Irish in a comparative fashion Throughout he makes the case for an African Christianity connected to a Celtic Irish Christianity and vice versa as different threads in a tapestry This work is a product of a synthesis of archival research in three continents interviews with surviving first generation Christians who were active practitioners of the Jukun indigenous religion and with former missionaries to the Jukun On the Irish side it draws from extant primary sources and interviews with scholars in Celtic Irish studies In addition pictures diagrams and excerpts from British colonial and missionary journals provide a rich contextual understanding of Jukun religious life and practices The author is among the emerging voices in the study of World Christianity who advocate for the reality of poly centres for Christianity This perspective recognizes voices from the Global South in the expansion of Christianity This book serves as a valuable resource for historians anthropologists theologians and those interested in missions studies both scholars and lay readers seeking to deepen their understanding of World Christianity

Earthing the Gospel Gerald A. Arbuckle, 2002-12-26 Christians are much the richer for this accomplishment of a long cherished dream by an experienced missionary social anthropologist Gerald Arbuckle has provided a book for the contemporary pastoral care team that mediates basic insights on ministry via the social sciences He also challenges church workers to rethink and reassess their work in light of the profound cultural changes taking place around them Earthing the Gospel introduces pastoral workers in the First World to methods of social analysis pioneered by missionaries worldwide It includes case histories personal stories and the results of fieldwork of hundreds of people in both the First and Third Worlds Applying the insights of social anthropology to the parishes on the home front Arbuckle offers the tools required to address issues of mission and inculturation in the First World Above all Earthing the Gospel is practical It presumes no special knowledge of anthropology as it zeroes in on topical issues racism fundamentalism the modern family youth and senior citizen subcultures affecting parishes and communities today Each chapter ends with questions for reflection and action For pastoral teams and workers on every level the insights gained from mission around the world can applying the methods described here be just as fruitful in our own back yards

Morality Truly Christian, Truly African Paulinus Ikechukwu Odozor C.S.Sp., 2014-11-15 Given the largely Eurocentric nature of moral theology in the history of the Roman Catholic Church what will it take to invest the theological community in the history and moral challenges of the Church in other parts of the world especially Africa What is to be gained for the whole Church when this happens in a deep and lasting way In this timely and important study Paulinus Ikechukwu Odozor brings greater theological clarity to the issue of the relationship between Christianity and African tradition in the area of ethical foundations He also provides a constructive example of what fundamental moral theology done from an African and Christian especially Catholic moral theological point of view could look like Following a brief history of the development of African Christian theology Odozor examines responses of African theologians to African tradition and Christian responses to the reality of non Christian religions In a context where the African religious experience and heritage are powerful sources of meaning and identity Christian evangelization raises questions both about the African primal religions and about Christianity itself and its claims Odozor takes up the subject of moral reasoning in an African Christian theological ethics and concludes with case studies that show how the African Church has tried to inculturate moral discourse on a religiously pluralistic continent and relate the healing gospel message to African situations Students and scholars of moral theology and ethics and church leaders will profit from the issues raised in Morality Truly Christian Truly African The Jesuits Markus Friedrich, 2022-03 Since its founding by Ignatius of Loyola in 1540 the Society of Jesus The Jesuits has been intimately involved in the unfolding of the modern world The young Jesuit order played a crucial role in the Counter Reformation especially in Poland southern Germany and several other parts of Europe The Jesuits were also participants in the establishment and spread of European empires engaging in missionary activity in east and south Asia in the 16th and 17th centuries and becoming central to the spreading of Christianity in the New World At the same time Jesuits often tangled with the Roman curia and the Pope leading to the suppression of the Jesuits in 1773 After the subsequent restoration of the order in 1814 the Jesuits continued to be leaders in Catholic education and theology In 2013 Jorge Bergoglio became the first Jesuit Pope taking the name Pope Francis I In this book Markus Friedrich presents the first comprehensive account of the Jesuits from a non Catholic perspective Drawing on his expertise as a historian of the early modern world Friedrich situates the Jesuit order within the wider perspective of European history In particular he places the Jesuits in the context of social cultural and imperial history showing that the Jesuits were not monolithic but rather were very sensitive to local context and that the order's core texts especially Ignatius's Spiritual Exercises were templates to engage with rather than instructions manuals to be followed slavishly The Mind of Pope Francis Massimo Borghesi, 2018-10-04 A commonly held impression is that Pope Francis is a compassionate shepherd and determined leader but that he lacks the intellectual depth of his recent predecessors Massimo Borghesi's The Mind of Pope Francis Jorge Mario Bergoglio's Intellectual Journey dismantles that image Borghesi recounts and analyzes for the first time Bergoglio's intellectual formation exploring the philosophical theological and spiritual principles that support the profound vision at the heart of this pope's teaching and ministry Central to that vision is the church as a coincidentia oppositorum holding together what might seem to be opposing and irreconcilable realities Among his guiding lights have been the Jesuit saints Ignatius and Peter Faber philosophers Gaston Fessard Romano Guardini and Alberto Methol Ferrer and theologians Henri de Lubac and Hans Urs von Balthasar Recognizing how these various strands have come together to shape the mind and heart of Jorge Mario Bergoglio offers essential insights into who he is and the way he is leading the church Notably this groundbreaking book is informed by four interviews provided to the author via audio recordings by the pope himself on his own intellectual formation major portions of which are published here for the first time
