Other Hand Of God The Holy Spirit As The Universal Touch And Goal:

The Other Hand of God Kilian McDonnell, 2003 If the Spirit is not equal to the Father and the Son can the Trinity survive Is the role of the Spirit in salvation as important as that of the Son Why was the divinity of the Spirit problematic in the early Church If the Son Jesus Christ is the way the truth and the life what role does the Spirit have in God's reaching out to touch the Church and the world Is there any contact with any experience of God apart from the Spirit In what sense is the Spirit the goal of the Christian life The Other Hand of God addresses these theological queries Chapters are To Do Pneumatology is to Do Trinity Struggling with Ambiguity The Way of Doxology To Do Pneumatology is to Do Eschatology Movement Toward Fixity Holy Spirit in Patristic Eschatology To Do Pneumatology Is to Start at the Beginning No Unified Vision in the New Testament Losing the Battle to Stay with the Imprecision of the Scriptures The Mission of the Spirit Junior Grade God Beyond the Self of God The Return The Highway Back to the Father The Spirit Is the Touch of God The Tradition of Subordinationism Basil Not Subordination but Communion of Life with the Father and the Son Gregory Nazianzus The Divine Pedagogy in Steps The Council of Constantinople The Triumph of Discretion To Do Pneumatology is to Start with Experience Experience of the Spirit in the Early Church William of St Thierry so I May Know by Experience Bernard of Clairvaux Today We Read in the Book of Experience The Role of Pneumatology in an Integral Theology The Continuing Quest for a Theology of the Holy Spirit and Toward a Theology in the Holy Spirit Kilian McDonnell OSB STD a monk and priest of St John's Abbey Collegeville Minnesota is the founder and the president of the Institute for Ecumenical and Cultural Research in Collegeville For years he was a consultant to the Pontifical Council for Unity in Rome He has been involved both nationally and internationally in dialogues with the Lutherans Presbyterians Pentecostals and Disciples of Christ He has published on John Calvin Christian initiation and on the baptism of Jesus in the Jordan as well as collections of poetry The Catholic Theological Society of America has honored him for his contributions to theology The Holy Spirit as Person and Power Rob Yule, 2020-01-10 In just over one hundred years the Pentecostal charismatic movement has transformed world Christianity Noted for their rediscovery of spiritual gifts and commitment to world evangelization 700 million Pentecostals and charismatics now account for more than 27 percent of the global Christian movement The Pentecostal charismatic movement has been more noted for its activism than for theological reflection But this may be changing The Holy Spirit as Person and Power challenges traditional theology to take account of what has been disclosed in the dynamism and variety of charismatic experience The author is a theologically trained practitioner impacted in midlife by a transforming experience of the Holy Spirit He has been a hands on leader in the renewal movement Now in his later years he reflects on the meaning of the grace imparted to the church by the renewing activity of God's Spirit This is not the work of an enthusiast claiming a new revelation Rather the author draws attention to many nuances in the Bible's description of the Spirit that have been overlooked in traditional pneumatology By relating these insights to Orthodox Catholic Protestant and evangelical theology

he has produced a book with ecumenical implications for all branches of world Christianity The Immanent Person of the Holy Spirit from Anselm to Lombard Matthew Knell, 2009-11-01 This study shows that there has not yet been any comprehensive study of the person of the Holy Spirit in the twelfth century and that such a study has something to add to concepts of twelfth century thought as well as modern debates in pneumatology The richness of debate that took place with the advent of scholasticism and its clashes with more traditional approaches to Christian study raised issues about western conceptions of the Spirit that were both grounded in scripture And The church fathers writings and thoroughly tested by reason and debate The Gifts of the Spirit Verna M. Linzey, 2014 In this clear yet thorough guide Dr Linzey explains how the Holy Spirit works in our lives to fulfill His plans Types of Pentecostal Theology Christopher A. Stephenson, 2016-10 In this the first critical study of the major theologians of pentecostalism Christopher A Stephenson establishes four original categories that classify recent pentecostal theologians methodologies in systematic constructive theology The Lord is the Spirit Andrew K Gabriel, 2012-05-31 The Lord is the Spirit 2 Cor 3 17 and yet one might be excused for thinking otherwise when reading studies on God s attributes omnipotence omniscience omnipresence immutability impassibility and the like Although Christians throughout the ages have defended the deity of the Holy Spirit theologians have not adequately taken the doctrine of the Holy Spirit into account when formulating a theology of the divine attributes The resulting understandings of God fall short of being fully Trinitarian Gabriel builds on contemporary Trinitarian theology by advocating for the integration of insights from pneumatology into the doctrine of God s attributes Three case studies are presented impassibility immutability and omnipotence Gabriel writes from an evangelical and Pentecostal vantage point as he engages in ecumenical dialogue with a wide spectrum of historical and contemporary theological voices The Gospel Revisited Kenneth J. Archer, 2011-01-01 This book is a constructive attempt at formulating a contemporary Pentecostal theology grounded in worship and witness The theological vision expounded here is grounded in the Pentecostal story with its emphasis upon the fivefold Gospel The doxological confession of Jesus as Savior Sanctifier Spirit Baptizer Healer and soon coming King provide the basic organizational structure of a Pentecostal narrative theology Each chapter takes seriously these central convictions and allows them to shape form and reform various theological loci Important issues such as methodology hermeneutics and theology as embodied worship and witness are addressed The result is a vibrant and integrative theology fueled by a dynamic spirituality Spirit and Salvation Veli-Matti Karkkainen , 2016 This fourth volume in Veli Matti K rkk inen s ambitious five volume systematic theology develops a constructive Christian pneumatology and soteriology in dialogue with the Christian tradition with contemporary theology in all its global and contextual diversity and with other major living faiths Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism K rkk inen constructs a wide and deep theology of the Holy Spirit examining creation and the sciences other cosmic powers and beings the concepts of spirits in other religions and the Spirit s place in society and politics He also goes beyond traditional ways of understanding salvation election forgiveness justification sanctification and glorification and includes discussions of Spirit baptism healing and restoration reconciliation liberation and peace building carefully comparing Christian perspectives with the salvific views of other religions The Lord and Giver of Life David Hadley Jensen, 2008-01-01 In this exciting collection an array of contemporary theologians reflect on the work of the Holy Spirit in relation to some of the world's most pressing issues and problems Offering a corrective to disembodied discussions of the Spirit this book provides a look at the Holy Spirit set loose and sustaining the gift and struggle for life in the midst of today's troubled world Among other topics the contributors examine the Spirit's activity in the reading of Scripture the reality of religious pluralism the growing ecological crisis the rise of consumerism and issues of empire Contributors include John B Cobb Jr Roger Haight SJ Barbara A Holmes David H Jensen Molly T Marshall Sallie McFague Amy Plantinga Pauw Joerg Rieger Eugene F Rogers Jr and Amos Yong Divine Agency and Divine Action, Volume III William J. Abraham, 2018-11-01 Volume III of a tetralogy devoted to Divine Agency and Divine Action articulates a comprehensive vision of systematic theology focused on divine action from creation to eschatology Volume I developed the foundational conceptual work by showing that the concept of action is a radically open concept that readily makes possible the appropriation of divine action for today Volume II explained that in exploring divine action one needs to specify the actual divine actions under review and thus showed that there could be no progress with extensive soundings across the tradition from Paul to Molina Work on divine action requires extended work in doctrinal criticism rooted in the history of theology as a prelude to normative work that communicates a normative vision of divine action for today This vision is best explored by taking up the great themes of systematic theology from creation to eschatology yet treating them in a deflationary manner that sees systematic theology as university level postbaptismal Christian instruction Leading scholar William J Abraham recognises that we live in a golden period of theological studies the range and depth of material is extraordinary yet we also live in a period of disorientation and confusion that calls for a fresh engagement with the demands of systematic theology Divine Agency and Divine Action Volume III meets that demand by insisting that systematic theology has its own content and modes of inquiry that it belongs intimately to the journey of faith and that it requires authentic academic clarity and rigor It reclaims the rightful place of systematic theology as the center of gravity for theological studies but does so in a manner that makes it available to both the church and to the academy Life in the Spirit Andréa Snavely, 2015-05-12 What would the church look like if Christians saw their lives as constituted by the Spirit's presence to live as Jesus lived In a time when being led by the Spirit is defined more by achieving the American Dream than by Jesus's life answering this question rightly seems all the more critical for the church to survive in a culture increasingly hostile to Christianity Building upon the work of post-Constantinians John Howard Yoder and Stanley Hauerwas and upon the Trinitarian Spirit Christology of Leopoldo Sanchez this account of the Christian life provides a framework for seeing one's Christian life as one transformed by the Spirit to live in the resurrection reality of Jesus's sonship with the Father in the Spirit In the process one will discover that for Jesus being led by the Spirit meant trusting his Father to the point of death on a cross trusting God to resurrect him even if he did not save him Should it mean the same for Christians today If so this would require the church to reimagine its ministries for the Spirit to work repentance and faith rather than simple agreement For Christians living in the Spirit their lives might look very different

Theology of the Spirit in Doctrine and Demonstration Teresa Chai, 2015-01-09 This book is a festschrift a book of essays in honor of noted Pentecostal scholars Wonsuk and Julie Ma The list of scholars below representing a broad array of nationalities and academic disciplines have followed the theme of A Theology of The Spirit in contributing articles within areas of their particular interest and expertise Allan Anderson J Kwabena Asamoah Gyadu R G dela Cruz Rose Engcoy Harold D Hunter Dave Johnson Veli Matti Karkkainen Kirsteen Kim Robert Menzies Ekputra Tupamahu and Amos Yong In short the scope of the book is universal in describing the person and work of the Holy Spirit through a number of the various strands of the Pentecostal and Charismatic movements in the world today

Catholicism and the Spirit Stephen Ebo Annan, 2018-02-22 The resurgence of Pentecostal charismatic Christianity epitomized in the global South has thrown Catholicism back on itself and has challenged it to reassess its ecclesial self understanding The Catholic Church has been accused of having forgotten the Spirit Despite the progress made by the Catholic Church to redress this so called pneumatological deficit it nonetheless remains the case that Roman Catholicism and charismatic Christianity seems to be mutually exclusive Why and how does the Roman Catholic Church today still lack a fully developed pneumatological charismatic ecclesiology Catholicism and the Spirit sets out to address such questions and argues that the Church must overcome its ultraconservatism and re envision a robust Spirit led ecclesiology to meet the demands of ecclesial renewal

Theological Interpretation of Culture in Post-Communist Context Ivana Noble, 2016-12-05 Twenty years after the fall of Communism in Central and East Europe is an occasion to reevaluate the cultural and theological contribution from that region to the secularization post secularization debate Czech theologian Ivana Noble develops a Trinitarian theology through a close dialogue with literature music and film which formed not only alternatives to totalitarian ideologies but also followed the loss and reappearance of belief in God Noble explains that by listening to the artists the churches and theologians can deal with questions about the nature of the world memory and ultimate fulfilment in a more nuanced way Then as partakers in the search undertaken by their secular and post secular contemporaries theologians can penetrate a new depth of meaning sending out shoots from the stump of Christian symbolism Drawing on the rich cultures of Central and East Europe and both Western and Eastern theological traditions this book presents a theological reading of contemporary culture which is important not just for post Communist countries but for all who are engaged in the debate on the boundaries between theology politics and arts

Fire of Love Donald J. O.P. Goergen, 2004

Tongues and Trees Aaron Jason Swoboda, 2019-05-21 This book develops a Pentecostal ecological theology ecotheology by utilizing key pneumatological themes that emerge from the Pentecostal tradition It examines the salient Pentecostal and Charismatic voices that have stimulated ecotheology in the Pentecostal tradition and situates them within the broader context of Christian ecumenical ecotheologies Roman Catholic Orthodox Protestant and Ecofeminist The author advances a novel approach to Pentecostal ecotheology through a pneumatology of the Spirit baptized creation the charismatic creational community the holistic ecological Spirit and the eschatological Spirit of ecological mission Significantly this book is the first substantive contribution to a Pentecostal pneumatological theology of creation with a particular focus on the Pentecostal community and its significance for the broader ecumenical community Furthermore it offers a fresh theological approach to imagining and sustaining earth friendly practice in the twenty first century Pentecostal church The Spirit of Peace Mary

Frederick Crowe SJ 1915 2012 sought to understand anew the eternal identity of the Holy Spirit and the Spirit s role in the Church s life Despite Crowe s fame as a professor of Trinitarian theology and his groundbreaking work on Thomas Aquinas s doctrine of complacent love as an analogy for the Holy Spirit s eternal procession no book has ever been published on this influential Canadian Jesuit who established centres around the world dedicated to studying the theological writings of Bernard Lonergan SJ 1904 84 Drawing on Crowe s published works and archival materials Eades emphasizes how Crowe s Trinitarian pneumatology creatively extended Lonergan s theology of the Holy Spirit Making use of Crowe s own historical methodology Eades looks for the emergence of new and significant questions about the Holy Spirit in Crowe s works

Century May Ling Tan-Chow,2016-05-13 In our post 9 11 world where there is a growing religious fundamentalism and when both exclusion and easy tolerance are inadequate options this book offers a creative alternative arguing that Pentecostalism has the potential to be a peaceful harbinger of plurality The potential lies in its spirituality a lively pneumatology and eschatology The eschatological Spirit is seen as orientated towards the other crossing boundaries in redemptive embrace transcending exclusion and easy tolerance This book s non Western perspective and the empirical contextual study of Singapore s multicultural and multi faith context are unique contributions to religion and society This is a book for students pastors teachers and theologians concerned for an approach to mission that is sensitive to their context who want to learn from a creative theological voice from what has been perhaps the largest religious movement in history and who see the immense potential in lively theology by Christians of the Chinese diaspora who can speak to the many millions of ethnic Chinese Christians This book will also appeal to those outside Christianity who are interested in its attempts to engage with a complex multi ethnic and multi religious situation such as that in Singapore
