The Novel of the Spanish Civil War (1936-1975) Gareth Thomas,1990-05-25 This is a major English study of the novels of the Spanish Civil War The book is based on an analysis of some eighty Spanish novels written in Spain and abroad in exile during the Franco period 1936 1975 in which the Civil War is the major theme

The Other Side of Air Jeanne Braselton, 2008-12-10 From Jeanne Braselton author of the crtically acclaimed A False Sense of Well Being comes an irresistible new novel about the power of enduring love poignantly told by an unforgettable narrator who s watching from her place on the other side of air Katy Doyal has loved her husband Ephraim since their very first meeting in Rome Georgia when she was eight years old Now realizing that her time on earth is slipping away Katy is determined to leave behind an orderly life and enlists the help of a stranger a middle aged robust wild haired woman named Rose to become a caretaker to her dear dotty curmudgeon After Katy passes Ephraim is surprised to notice that his grief is easier to bear thanks to the arrival of this outsider Even Katy observing the events from the great beyond is pleased If only Katy and Ephraim's only child Wyatt could be so accepting After moving to California to start his own life Wyatt is still unable to escape his feelings of insecurity and exclusion from his parent's ironclad union a neediness that endangers his own marriage and threatens to overshadow his mother's death and upstage his father's mourning But Rose isn't about to let anything distract her from her sacred mission And Katy watching her family embracing life and love again knows she needs to let go before she can earn her wings The West Virginia Encyclopedia Philip Mallory Conley, 1929 Review ,1999 The Chautauguan ,1892 Confronting Our Canons Joan Lipman Brown, 2010 The contents of this book cover what a Canon is and why it matters the Canon backstory modern Canons factors that make a work Canonical the literary Canon and much more Prologue, 2006 History of the Civil War in America: book 1. The American army, book 2. Secession. book 3. The first conflict. book 4. The first autumn. book 5. The first winter. 1875 Louis-Philippe-Albert Confederate Veteran ,1894 Literary News ,1899 d'Orléans comte de Paris,1876 Richard Brautigan John F. Barber, 2014-12-09 Best known for his novel Trout Fishing in America American writer Richard Gary Brautigan 1935 1984 published eleven novels ten poetry collections and two story collections as well as five volumes of collected work several nonfiction essays and a record album of spoken voice recordings Brautigan's idiosyncratic style and humor caused him to be identified with the counterculture movement of the 1960s The authors of many of these 32 essays knew Brautigan personally and professionally others came to know and respect him through a cultivated connection with his writings The essays many of which are new others of which were published in obscure journals combine personal remembrance of the man and critical appraisal of his still controversial works Includes previously unpublished photographs and artworks Terror Erica R. Edwards, 2021-08-10 WINNER 2022 John Hope Franklin Prize given by the American Studies Association HONORABLE MENTION 2022 Gloria E Anzald a Book Prize given by the National Women's Studies Association Reveals the troubling intimacy between Black women and the making of US global power The year 1968 marked both the height of the worldwide Black liberation struggle and a turning point for the global reach of American power which was built on the counterinsurgency honed on Black and other oppressed populations at home The next five decades saw the consolidation of the culture of the American empire through what Erica R Edwards calls the imperial grammars of blackness This is a story of state power at its most devious and most absurd and at the same time a literary history of Black feminist radicalism at its most trenchant Edwards reveals how the long war on terror beginning with the late Cold War campaign against organizations like the Black Panther Party for Self Defense and the Black Liberation Army has relied on the labor and the fantasies of Black women to justify the imperial spread of capitalism Black feminist writers not only understood that this would demand a shift in racial gendered power but crafted ways of surviving it The Other Side of Terror offers an interdisciplinary Black feminist analysis of militarism security policing diversity representation intersectionality and resistance while discussing a wide array of literary and cultural texts from the unpublished work of Black radical feminist June Jordan to the memoirs of Condoleezza Rice to the television series Scandal With clear moving prose Edwards chronicles Black feminist organizing and writing on the other side of terror which tracked changes in racial power transformed African American literature and Black studies and predicted the crises of our current era with unsettling accuracy Nineteenth-century Novel Dennis Walder, 2001 The essays in this collection show how the conventions of realism were transformed by new ideas about gender and race The Cambridge Companion to the African Novel Abiola Irele, 2009-07-23 An overview of the key novels and novelists of the continent covering multiple cultures and languages Beware of the Other Side(s) Heike Schwarz, 2014-03-15 This interdisciplinary study examines the still vivid phenomenon of the most controversial psychiatric diagnosis in the United States multiple personality disorder now called dissociative identity disorder This syndrome comprehends the occurrence of two or more distinct identities that take control of a person s behavior paired with an inexplicable memory loss Synthesizing the fields of psychiatry and the dynamics of the disorder with its influential representation in American fiction the study researches how psychiatry and fiction mutually shaped a mysterious syndrome and how this reciprocal process created a genre fiction of its own that persists until today in a very distinct self referential mode Youth and Memory in Europe Félix Krawatzek, Nina Friess, 2022-06-06 This volume contends that young individuals across Europe relate to their country's history in complex and often ambivalent ways It pays attention to how both formal education and broader culture communicate ideas about the past and how young people respond to these ideas The studies collected in this volume show that such ideas about the past are central to the formation of the group identities of nations social movements or religious groups Young people express received historical narratives in new potentially subversive ways As young people tend to be more mobile and ready to interrogate their own roots than later generations they selectively privilege certain aspects of their identities and their identification with their family or nation while neglecting others This collection aims to correct the popular misperception that young people are indifferent towards history and prove instead that historical narratives are constitutive to their individual identities and their sense of belonging to something broader than themselves
