

The Other Day I Met a Bear

Carey Morgan and Lee David, 1919

The musical score is written on three staves in 4/4 time. The first staff contains the first line of the song, with a 'Leader' part followed by an 'Echo' part. The second staff continues the song, also with a 'Leader' and 'Echo' structure. The third staff concludes the first line of the song. The lyrics are written below the notes.

Leader                      Echo                      Leader                      Echo                      Leader

The oth - er day, (The oth - er day,) I met a bear, (I met a bear,) A great big

Echo                      Leader                      Echo                      All

bear, (A great big bear,) A way out there, (A way out there,) The oth - er day I met a bear, A great big bear a way out there.

2. He looked at me, I looked at him,
He sized up me, I sized up him.

3. And so I ran away from there,
But right behind me was that bear.

4. Ahead of me there was a tree,
A great big tree, O glory be!

5. The closest branch was ten feet up,
I'd have to jump and trust my luck.

6. And so I jumped into the air,
But I missed that branch on the way up there.

7. Now don't you fret, now don't you frown,
'Cause I caught that branch on the way back down.

8. That is the end, there ain't no more,
Unless I meet that bear once more.

Baruch, 2023-01-27 During his public years approximately half of the nine decades of his active life Bernard Baruch has served or advised many of the men who in that time have ruled the Western world Baruch approves of his own ideas and achievements but neither is it rancid for the author at ninety cares less for self vindication than for a rational and decent order among men The spirit of that admirable objective informs his often anecdotal narrative of men and events among them the administration of the War Industries Board the Paris Conference of 1919 the adventures of the prosperous and the trials of the poor in the decade of the 1920 s and some aspects of the New Deal economic mobilization in World War II and the abortive efforts since then for international control of atomic energy Here there are contented recollections of Wilson Churchill Clemenceau and Roosevelt and less contented but still appreciative of Harry Truman Baruch's work is significant for what it reveals about him The American Historical Review That Baruch has unusual talents no one denies Had he been ambitious he might have become the first Jewish President of the United States But not loving power not yearning for the spotlight of publicity and not wishing to assume responsibilities that would be extremely controversial he has chosen to be an unofficial adviser for Presidents And what a good one he has made The Public Years should be a required book for all students of the United States in the twentieth century The Journal of Southern History Looking back at his experiences Baruch interweaves his philosophy of government service and values and his autobiography stands as a personal creed of individualism patriotism and communal responsibility American Jewish Historical Quarterly Mr Baruch relates his association with great and near great persons and his involvement in national and international affairs His comments on past events while profiting from the vantage of hindsight are penetrating and sound This account portrays the keen insight and wisdom of Bernard Baruch in surveying the momentous years between Presidents Wilson and Truman and reveals the sage advice which he provided to those in positions of authority relative to the social economic and military affairs of this nation Naval War College Review It can be said with complete accuracy I think that no living person surpasses Bernard M Baruch in experience study and leadership in all phases of industrial preparedness Ordnance London Bicycle Club Gazette ,1880 The New York Coach-maker's Magazine ,1859
