Other Victim:

Second Victim Sidney Dekker, 2013-03-26 How do people cope with having caused a terrible accident How do they cope when they survive and have to live with the consequences ever after We tend to blame and forget professionals who cause incidents and accidents but they are victims too They are second victims whose experiences of an incident or adverse event can be as traumatic as the first Privacy of rape victims United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Criminal Justice, 1977 Reporting Crimes to the Police Caroline Wolf Harlow, 1985 The Victim's Voice in the Sexual Misconduct Crisis Mary L. Schuster, 2019-11-19 The Victim's Voice in the Sexual Misconduct Crisis investigates how a victim's voice identity credibility and proof are challenged or established in the current sexual misconduct crisis Using communication and rhetorical analysis gender studies and law and society perspectives Mary Schuster examines concerns such as victim impact statements offered in sentencing hearings of convicted offenders due process and Title IX requirements in campus sexual assault investigations and laws and Title VII standards governing workplace sexual harassment complaints Schuster also analyzes the testimony offered in the 1991 and 2018 U S Senate Judiciary Hearings regarding the Supreme Court nominations of Clarence Thomas and Brett Kavanaugh social movements such as Me Too and global activists efforts to challenge gender stereotypes and hierarchies This book argues that we cannot outlaw or legislate away sexual misconduct but must instead focus on cultural social and systemic changes in order to change the current climate Moreover the author argues for zero tolerance for sexual misconduct but recommends a gradation of punishment or sanctions for offenders offering examples of successful educational and therapeutic efforts to alter misconceptions regarding sexual misconduct Scholars of gender studies communication legal studies and rhetoric will find this book particularly useful

Figuring Victims in International Criminal Justice Maria Elander, 2018-06-12 Most discourses on victims in international criminal justice take the subject of victims for granted as an identity and category existing exogenously to the judicial process This book takes a different approach Through a close reading of the institutional practices of one particular court it demonstrates how court practices produce the subjectivity of the victim a subjectivity that is profoundly of law and endogenous to the enterprise of international criminal justice Furthermore by situating these figurations within the larger aspirations of the court the book shows how victims have come to constitute and represent the link between international criminal law and the enterprise of transitional justice The book takes as its primary example the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia ECCC or the Khmer Rouge Tribunal as it is also called Focusing on the representation of victims in crimes against humanity victim participation and photographic images the book engages with a range of debates and scholarship in law feminist theory and cultural legal theory Furthermore by paying attention to a broader range of institutional practices Figuring Victims makes an innovative scholarly contribution to the debates on the roles and purposes of international criminal justice
An Introduction to Logic - Second Edition Richard T.W. Arthur, 2016-11-30 In lively and readable prose Arthur presents a new approach to the study of logic one that seeks to integrate methods of argument analysis developed in modern informal logic with natural deduction techniques The dry bones of logic are given flesh by unusual attention to the history of the subject from Pythagoras the Stoics and Indian Buddhist logic through Lewis Carroll Venn and Boole to Russell Frege and Monty Python A previous edition of this book appeared under the title Natural Deduction This new edition adds clarifications of the notions of explanation validity and formal validity a more detailed discussion of derivation strategies and another rule of inference Reiteration

Drug-Facilitated Sexual Assault Marc A. LeBeau, Ashraf Mozayani, 2001-09-05 This text is intended for all those involved in the investigation of sexual assault crimes and to educate them as to how drugs are used as weapons in committing sexual assaults Designed as a handbook for all those involved in the investigation and prosecution of drug assisted sexual assaults this handbook begins with the history of drug facilitated crimes and provides an overview of how these crimes have changed over the last decade The last decade witnessed a dramatic increase in reports about sexual assault victims being knocked out through the use of drugs The handbook continues with the many challenges that face the investigator of drug facilitated sexual assault DFSA These challenges include 1 an awareness of the many drugs used to commit DFSA such as ethanol and rohypnol their effects on the human body and their pharmacokinetic properties 2 understanding and acknowledging the complexities of reporting this type of crime and 3 properly collecting and analyzing the physical evidence A key element making DFSA difficult to investigate is the drugs used their effects on the victim and the difficulty in detecting the presence of the drugs after ingestion The handbook concludes by providing an outline of ideas and suggestions to overcome the difficulties encountered in DFSA cases
