Hard Feelings Ken Auletta, 2011-08-03 One of America's leading reporters collects his most important entertaining and enlightening articles explaining how and why he wrote them Hard Feelings represents more than five years of Ken Auletta's work for The Village Voice New York magazine the Daily News Esquire and The New Yorker During that period he won a loyal following and established a reputation as the rare journalist who covers both politicians and the government He covered the news and made the news with his famous and controversial New Yorker profile of Mayor Ed Koch and his startling expos of lawyer Roy Cohn in Esquire These pieces also display his versatility hard investigative reporting as well as precise thoughtful essays with subjects ranging from the ambitions of Ted Kennedy to the tribulations of Jimmy Carter the maneuvers of a local politician to the struggles of an embattled high school principal One of Auletta's chief concerns is the press itself how the former publisher of the New York Post managed the news how media expert David Garth manipulates it how Tom Brokaw became a victim of it and how passion for scandal and easy cynicism threaten it The postscripts he has written for this volume address many of the central issues of journalism A case in point is Auletta's own use of controversial taps revealing Mayor Ed Koch's private feelings about relations between blacks and Jews another is his examination of the questionable coverage of Nelson Rockefeller's death Does a public figure have a right to privacy Is there such a thing as too much press access To whom does the reporter owe allegiance What are the ethics of journalism In his stories and his second thoughts on them Ken Auletta offers a provocative analysis of how a reporter works views his profession and evaluates his achievements with intelligence and feeling hard feelings
