Our Dialogue With Rome The Second Vatican Council And After:

Our Dialogue with Rome; the Second Vatican Council and After George Bradford Caird, 1967 Our Dialogue With Rome G. B. Caird, 1990-01-01 Our Dialogue With Rome George Bradford Caird, 1967 T&T Clark Companion to Nonconformity Robert Pope, 2013-11-21 Protestant Nonconformity the umbrella term for Congregationalists Presbyterians Baptists Methodists and Unitarians belongs specifically to the religious history of England and Wales Initially the result of both unwillingness to submit to the State's interference in Christian life and a dissatisfaction with the progress of reform in the English Church Nonconformity has been primarily motivated by theological concern ecclesial polity devotion and the nurture of godliness among the members of the church Alongside such churchly interests Nonconformity has also made a profound contribution to debates about the role of the State to family life and education culture in general trade and industry the development of philanthropy and charity and the development of pacifism In this volume for the first time Nonconformity and the breadth of its activity come under the expert scrutiny of a host of recognised scholars The result is a detailed and fascinating account of a movement in church history that while currently in decline has made an indelible mark on social political economic and religious life of the two nations Reforming Rome Donald W. Norwood, 2015-01-16 Few people realize that Karl Barth one of the twentieth century's greatest Protestant theologians was among a select group of non Catholic guests who were invited to the Second Vatican Council 1962-65 to assist in the reform and renewal of the Roman Catholic Church In Reforming Rome Donald Norwood offers the first book length study of Barth's involvement with Vatican II and his significant impact on the reform of the Catholic Church Norwood examines Barth's critical engagement with the Roman Catholic Church from his time at the Catholic University of Munster to his connection with Vatican II his conversations with Pope Paul VI and seminars and interviews he gave about the Council afterward On the basis of extensive research Norwood amplifies Barth's own very brief account of Vatican II Barth himself often felt that he was better understood by Roman Catholics such as Hans Urs von Balthasar and Joseph Ratzinger than he was by his own Reformed colleagues This study written by a fellow Reformed theologian helps us to see why The Trinity and the Religions , Loe Joo Tan, 2018-09-15 Will the followers of other religions who have not heard of the gospel be saved Since the Second Vatican Council the Catholic church has been grappling with this question culminating in a recent document Dominus Iesus in 2000 In the post-DI climate the British theologian Gavin D Costa has been described as a representative post-DI theologian of religions And with good reason since other theologians such as Jacques Dupuis whose work along the lines of neo-Rahnerianism have been curtailed by DI D Costa's work has spanned the past three decades and is aimed at developing a theology that echoes developments within the Catholic church's efforts to grapple with the existence of other religions In doing so he has appropriated the doctrine of the Trinity by reasoning it provides the very resources for interacting with Others and developed a form of Trinitarian inclusivism Based on the work of patristic theologians such as

Lewis Ayres and Michel Barnes and their conception of a Pro Nicene theological matrix this book is an attempt to assess whether D Costa's utilization of trinitarian resources for contemporary concerns is faithful to the tradition The book concludes that while there is much to commend in D Costa's system there remain some features not fully consonant with classical Trinitarianism

Receptive Ecumenism as Transformative Ecclesial Learning Paul D. Murray, Gregory A. Ryan, Paul Lakeland, 2022-05-26 Receptive Ecumenism asks not what other churches can learn from us but what can we learn and receive with integrity from our ecclesial others Since the publication of Receptive Ecumenism and the Call to Catholic Learning Exploring a Way for Contemporary Ecumenism OUP 2008 this fresh ecumenical strategy has been adopted critiqued and developed in different Christian traditions and in local national and international settings including the most recent bilateral dialogue of the Anglican Roman Catholic International Commission ARCIC III The thirty eight chapters in this new volume by academics church leaders and ecumenical practitioners who have adopted and adapted Receptive Ecumenism in various ecclesial and cultural contexts show how Receptive Ecumenism has grown and matured Part One demonstrates how Receptive Ecumenism itself is capable of being received with integrity into very different ecclesiologies and ecclesial traditions In Part Two this approach to transformative ecumenical learning is applied to some recurrent ecclesial problems such as the understanding and practice of ministry revealing new insights and practical opportunities Part Three examines the potential and challenges for Receptive Ecumenism in different international settings Part Four draws on scripture hermeneutics and pneumatology to offer critical reflection on how Receptive Ecumenism itself implements transformative ecclesial learning Addressing the 70th Anniversary of the World Council of Churches Archbishop Justin Welby said that One of the most important of recent ecumenical developments has been the concept of Receptive Ecumenism This volume provides an indispensable point of reference for understanding and applying that concept in the life of the Christian churches today

New Testament Theology George Bradford Caird, 1995 Generations of students have known G B Caird as a penetrating and lucid guide to the many questions and problems posed by modern biblical study His brilliant commentaries on St Luke the Book of Revelation and St Paul's Prison Epistles as well as his other studies on theology and the Bible have won for him a place among the twentieth century's foremost biblical scholars This new and masterly presentation of New Testament theology completed and edited since the author's death by Professor L D Hurst takes the unique step of setting up an imaginary debate amongst the various authors of the New Testament themselves As central concepts predestination sin atonement the church sacrament ethics eschatology and christology are discussed between such figures as Luke Paul John and the author of Hebrews the work moves to its climax with a presentation of the theology of Jesus himself The result provides a particularly fresh and illuminating picture of the ideas at the heart of Christianity deserving a place on the shelf of every serious pastor theologian and student of the Bible
