Intimacies Alan Frank, Patricia Clough, Steven Seidman, 2013-07-24 In the last decade or so there has been a shift in the popular and academic discussion of our personal lives Relationships and not necessarily marriage have gravitated to the center of our relational lives Many of us feel entitled to seek intimacy an emotionally depthful social bonding rather than simply security or companionship from our relationships Unlike in a marriage centred culture intimacy is today pursued in varied relationships from familial to friends and to romances And intimacies are being forged in multiple venues from face to face to virtual cyber contexts A new scholarship has addressed this changing terrain of personal life there is today a vast literature on cohabitation parenthood without marriage sex and love outside marriage queer families cyber intimacies and friendships However much theorizing and research has focussed either on the interior subjective or sociocultural aspects of intimacies not their interaction This volume aims to break new ground Intimacies explores the psychological terrain of intimacy in depthful ways without abandoning its sociohistorical context and the centrality of power dynamics Drawing on a rich archive that includes the social sciences feminism queer studies and psychoanalysis the contributors examine changing cultures of intimacy fluid and solid attachments and intimacies from hook ups to sibling bonds to erotic love a politics of intimacy that may involve state enforced hierarchies class misrecognition social exclusion and violence embodied experiences of intimacy and dynamics of endings and loss a pluralization of intimacies that challenge established ethical hierarchies This volume aims to define the cutting edge of this emerging field of scholarship and politics It challenges existing paradigms that assume rigid hierarchical approaches to relational life Intimacies will be of interest for psychoanalysts and for students or scholars in sexualities gender studies family studies feminism studies queer studies social class cultural studies and philosophy

The Black Period Hafizah Augustus Geter, 2022-09-20 Acclaimed poet Hafizah Augustus Geter reclaims her origin story in this lyrical memoir The New Yorker combining biting criticism and haunting visuals Hafizah Augustus Geter is a genuine artist not bound by genre or form Her only loyalty is the harrowing beauty of the truth Tayari Jones author of An American Marriage Winner of the PEN Open Book Award Winner of the Lambda Literary Award A New Yorker Best Book of the Year A Kirkus Reviews Best Nonfiction Book of the Year A Brittle Paper Notable African Book of the Year Finalist for the Chautauqua Prize I say the Black Period and mean home in all its shapeshifting ways A book of great hope Hafizah Augustus Geter's The Black Period creates a map for how to survive a country a closet a mother's death and the terror of becoming who we are in a world not built to accommodate diverse identities At nineteen she suddenly lost her mother to a stroke Weeks later her father became so heartsick that he needed a triple bypass Amid the crumbling of her world Hafizah struggled to know how to mourn a Muslim woman in a freshly post 9 11 America Weaving through a childhood populated with southern and Nigerian relatives her days in a small Catholic school and learning to accept her own sexuality and in the face of a chronic pain disability that sends her pinballing through the grind that is the American Dream Hafizah discovers that grief is a political condition In confronting the many layers of existence that the world tries to deny it becomes clear that in order to emerge from erasure she must map out her own narrative Through a unique combination of gripping memoir history political analysis cultural criticism and Afrofuturist thought alongside stunning original artwork created by her father renowned artist Tyrone Geter Hafizah leans into her parents lessons on the art of Black revision to create a space for the beauty of Blackness Islam disability and queerness to flourish As exquisitely told as it is innovative and with a lyricism that dazzles The Black Period is a reminder that joy and tenderness require courage too of her words of wisdom compiled into book format With Smart Martha's Catholic Guide for Busy Moms Tami gives moms practical solutions for managing their homes but more importantly for nurturing their souls and familial relationships From prioritizing family dinners to organizing your home and schedule Tami gives moms the tools they need to help themselves and their families live happier holier lives Lisa M Hendey author of The Handbook for Catholic Moms The Mother-Daughter Book Club Heather Vogel Frederick, 2010-05-11 Acclaimed author Heather Vogel Frederick will delight daughters of all ages in a novel about the fabulousness of fiction family and friendship The book club is about to get a makeover Even if Megan would rather be at the mall Cassidy is late for hockey practice Emma's already read every book in existence and Jess is missing her mother too much to care the new book club is scheduled to meet every month But what begins as a mom imposed ritual of reading Little Women soon helps four unlikely friends navigate the drama of middle school From stolen journals to secret crushes to a fashion fiasco first dance the girls are up to their Wellie boots in drama They can't help but wonder What would Jo March do Waiting to Be Arrested at Night Tahir Hamut Izgil, 2023-08-01 Winner of the National Book Critics Circle John Leonard Prize awarded to the best first book of the year Named one of the best books of the year by THE NEW YORK TIMES THE WASHINGTON POST THE ECONOMIST TIME A poet's account of one of the world's most urgent humanitarian crises and a harrowing tale of a family's escape from genocide One by one Tahir Hamut Izgil's friends disappeared The Chinese government's brutal persecution of the Uyghur people had continued for years but in 2017 it assumed a terrifying new scale The Uyghurs a predominantly Muslim minority group in western China were experiencing an echo of the worst horrors of the twentieth century amplified by China's establishment of an all-seeing high-tech surveillance state Over a million people have vanished into China's internment camps for Muslim minorities Tahir a prominent poet and intellectual had been no stranger to persecution After he attempted to travel abroad in 1996 police tortured him until he confessed to fabricated charges and sent him to a re-education through labor camp But even having endured three years in the camp he could never have predicted the Chinese government's radical solution to the Uyghur question two decades later Was the first sign when Tahir was interrogated for hours after a phone call with a fellow poet in the Netherlands Or when his old friend was sentenced to life in prison simply for calling for Uyghurs' legal rights to be enforced Perhaps it was when the police seized Uyghurs' radios and installed jamming equipment to cut them off from the outside world Once Tahir noticed that the park near his home was nearly empty because so many neighbors had been arrested he knew the police would be coming for him any day One night after Tahir's daughters were asleep he placed by his door a sturdy pair of shoes a sweater and a coat so that he could stay warm if the police came for him in the middle of the night It was clear to Tahir and his wife that fleeing the country was the family's only hope Waiting to Be Arrested at Night is the story of the political social and cultural destruction of Tahir Hamut Izgil's homeland Among leading Uyghur intellectuals and writers he is the only one known to have escaped China since the mass internments began His book is a call for the world to awaken to the unfolding catastrophe and a tribute to his friends and fellow Uyghurs whose voices have been silenced

The Future Is in Your Hands Beth Buggenhagen, Beth Anne Buggenhagen, 2023-11-07 In Senegal portraiture serves as a vital index and creator of social connection People sit for and display portraits keep albums and view illustrated magazines together Through these portraiture practices Senegalese have fashioned idealized images to mend fraught and fragmented lives in the context of decades of migration The Future Is in Your Hands provides an expansive frame for photography to highlight the role of affect in portraiture practices Moving from the colonial to the newly independent Senegal Beth Buggenhagen combines museum ethnographic and archival research on photography's past with lens based artists who address themes of separation visibility rupture and repatriation through portraiture Buggenhagen in collaboration with Senegalese photographers explores how photographs as visual and material objects migrate themselves and like the bodies they represent create a record not only of lived experiences but also of the cycle of migration for this labor exporting country By complicating the history of portraiture in Senegal The Future Is in Your Hands reveals the enduring power of images and the efforts under way to keep this art form safely in Senegalese hands

Handbook of Research on the Relationship Between Autobiographical Memory and

Photography Ingham, Mark Bruce Nigel, Milic, Nela, Kantas, Vasileios, Andersdotter, Sara, Lowe, Paul, 2023-02-17

Autobiographical memory and photography have been inextricably linked since the first photographs appeared during the 19th century. These links have often been described from each other's discipline in ways that often have led to misunderstandings about the complex relationships between them. The Handbook of Research on the Relationship Between Autobiographical Memory and Photography covers many aspects of the multiple relationships between autobiographical memory and photography such as the idea that memory and photography can be seen as forms of mental time and the effect photography has on autobiographical memory. Covering key topics such as identity, trauma, and remembrance, this major reference work is ideal for industry professionals, sociologists, psychologists, artists, researchers, scholars, academicians, practitioners, educators, and students.

Bedlam Kenneth Paul Rosenberg, 2019-10-01. A psychiatrist and award-winning documentarian sheds light on the mental health care crisis in the United States. When Dr. Kenneth Rosenberg trained as a psychiatrist in the late 1980s, the state mental hospitals which had reached peak occupancy in the 1950s were being closed at an alarming rate with many patients having nowhere to go. There has never been a more important time for this conversation as one in five adults, 40 million Americans, experiences mental illness each year. Today the largest mental institution in the United States is the Los Angeles County Jail, and the last refuge for many of the 20,000 mentally ill people living on the streets of Los Angeles is L.A. County Hospital. There, Dr. Rosenberg begins his chronicle of what it means to be mentally ill in America today, integrating his own moving story of how the system failed his sister Merle, who had schizophrenia. As he says, "I have come to see that my family's tragedy, my family's shame is America's great secret." Dr. Rosenberg gives readers an inside look at the historical, political, and economic forces that have resulted in the greatest social crisis of the twenty-first century. The culmination of a seven-year inquiry, Bedlam is not only a rallying cry for change but also a guidebook for how we move forward with care and compassion, with resources that have never before been compiled, including legal advice, practical solutions for parents and loved ones, help finding community support, and information on therapeutic options.
