Mission Baby Vinita Somaiya,2022-03-19 Hi I am Trisha Agarwal a 35 year old married woman with a beautiful life but no children As much as I d like to believe that becoming a mother is a possibility I know that there is an equal or maybe a higher probability that I will win a lottery than getting pregnant Trisha had always been a happy go lucky person who looked at the brighter side of things till the day she started planning a baby Soon she realized that there was nothing natural about trying to conceive naturally To add to her woes her younger sister Mishti was blessed with a baby without much ado With her

biological clock ticking at a pace faster than daily inflation she decided to take charge and embrace the world of fertility treatments with the confidence that in no time she would be flaunting her baby bump But soon she realized that the world of fertility treatments was not just overwhelming but also complex demanding and expensive From a wide range of blood tests to ovulation trackers hormonal medicines transvaginal scans painful injections and seeking divine intervention she endured it all and yet did not give up hope She has come a long way from where she started considering her dwindling bank balance has been through a roller coaster of emotions blame the hormonal injections and learned a few valuable lessons about herself she still sucks at accepting failures in this incredible but daunting mission of conceiving a baby Will she succeed in this arduous mission

Chinatown Gangs Ko-lin Chin, 2000-02-10 In Chinatown Gangs Ko-lin Chin penetrates a closed society and presents a rare portrait of the underworld of New York City's Chinatown Based on first hand accounts from gang members gang victims community leaders and law enforcement authorities this pioneering study reveals the pervasiveness the muscle the longevity and the institutionalization of Chinatown gangs Chin reveals the fear gangs instill in the Chinese community At the same time he shows how the economic viability of the community is sapped and how gangs encourage lawlessness making a mockery of law enforcement agencies Ko-lin Chin makes clear that gang crime is inexorably linked to Chinatown's political economy and social history He shows how gangs are formed to become equalizers within a social environment where individual and group conflicts whether social political or economic are unlikely to be solved in American courts Moreover Chin argues that Chinatown's informal economy provides yet another opportunity for street gangs to become providers or protectors of illegal services These gangs therefore are the pathological manifestation of a closed community one whose problems are not easily seen and less easily understood by outsiders Chin's concrete data on gang characteristics activities methods of operation and violence make him uniquely qualified to propose ways to restrain gang violence and Chinatown Gangs closes with his specific policy suggestions It is the definitive study of gangs in an American

Gendered Violence at International Festivals Louise Platt, Rebecca Finkel, 2020-03-24 Gendered Violence at International Festivals is a groundbreaking collection that focusses on this highly important social issue for the first time Including a diverse range of interdisciplinary studies on the issue the book contests the widely held notion that festivals are temporal spaces free from structural sexism inequalities or gender power dynamics Rather they are spaces where these concerns are enhanced and enacted more freely and where the experiential environment is used as an excuse or as an opportunity to victim blame and shame In this emerging and under researched area the chapters not only present original work in terms of topics but also in theoretical and methodological approaches All of the chapters are cross or interdisciplinary drawing on gender sexualities cultural and ethnicity studies Studies from a range of highly regarded academics based around the world examine the subject by looking at examples from a wide range of destinations including Spain Argentina Nigeria Zimbabwe Australia Canada and the UK This significant book progresses understanding and debates about gendered festival experiences and emphasises the symbolic and physical violence often associated with them This will be of great interest to undergraduate and postgraduate students and academics in the field of Events Studies It will also be of use to practitioners or non profit workers in the festival industries including festival management organisations and planning committees

Strange Things Are Happening Richard Norris, 2024-03-21 The rainbow reaches right across the sky for miles and miles and has landed right in the middle of our field My mother Alison is standing at the beginning I'm sure it's a beginning rather than the end as there's no pot of gold in sight The point where everything forms or perhaps is not quite formed as yet That's my favourite place A place alive with possibility Strange Things Are Happening begins with the wonder of that rainbow and continues with many escapades down the rabbit hole From punk and the beginnings of the DIY scene through Acid House psychedelia the rise of electronic dance music and much more Richard Norris has been involved in countless countercultural revolutions From misadventures in Amsterdam with Timothy Leary with Sun Ra at customs and Shaun Ryder in Joe Strummer's beaten up Cadillac in Tijuana to his extraordinarily influential output in The Grid and Beyond

The Wizards Sleeve Richard Norris story is one of collaboration and community fuelled by relentless psychedelic curiosity Strange Things Are Happening is a record of a life lived in the moment forever in thrall to discovery exploration and innovation the search for what lies at the other end of that rainbow
