Teaching for EcoJustice Rita J. Turner, 2015-05-22 Teaching for EcoJustice is a unique resource for exploring the social roots of environmental problems in humanities based educational settings and a curriculum guidebook for putting EcoJustice Education into practice It provides model curriculum materials that apply the principles of EcoJustice Education giving pre and in service teachers the ability to review examples of specific secondary and post secondary classroom assignments lessons discussion prompts and strategies that encourage students to think critically about how modern problems of sustainability and environmental destruction have developed their root causes and how they can be addressed The author describes instructional methods she uses when teaching each lesson and shares insights from evaluations of the materials in her classroom and by other teachers Interspersed between lessons is commentary about the rationale behind the materials and observations about their effect on students

Investing in Nature William Ginn, 2013-04-10 In 2004 U S consumers spent 52 billion purchasing bottled water while the government only invested 5 percent of that amount to purchase critical watersheds parks and wildlife refuges systems vital to clean water and healthy environments How can we reverse the direction of such powerful economic forces A group of dedicated business people turned environmental entrepreneurs is pioneering a new set of tools for land conservation deals and other market based strategies These pragmatic visionaries have already used these methods to protect millions of acres of land and to transform the practices of entire industries They are transforming the very nature of conservation by making it profitable Drawing on his vast experience in both business and land conservation at The Nature Conservancy TNC William Ginn offers a practical guide to these innovative methods and a road map to the most effective way to implement them From conservation investment banking to emerging markets for nature s goods and services to new tax incentives that encourage companies to do the right thing Ginn goes beyond the theories to present real world applications and strategies And just as importantly he looks at the lessons learned from what has not worked including his own failed efforts in Papua New Guinea and TNC s controversial compatible development approach in Virginia In an era of dwindling public resources and scarce charitable dollars these tools reveal a new and perhaps the only pathway to achieving biodiversity goals and protecting our lands Conservation professionals students of land conservation and entrepreneurs interested in green business will find Ginn s tales of high finance deals involving vast tracts of pristine land both informative and exciting More than just talk Investing in Nature will teach you how to think big about land conservation

Grand Canyon to Hearst Ranch Elizabeth Austin, 2020-02-21 Finalist for the 2020 WILLA Literary Award Creative Nonfiction Inspired by her first breathtaking trip in the Grand Canyon Harriet Hunt Burgess dedicated her life to saving land for future generations Beginning in the 1970s she persevered through four decades overcoming daunting obstacles and taking extraordinary risks to conserve hundreds of thousands of acres of land in the American West Without Burgess iconic and irreplaceable landscapes like the Lake Tahoe region and the California coast would be much different today As Harriet Burgess once explained The land we save is our legacy It's what we give to our children The Grand Canyon was the catalyst for Harriet's conservation mission and the spark for Grand Canyon to Hearst Ranch Author Elizabeth Austin has interwoven her own exhilarating and life-changing dory trip through the depths of the Grand Canyon with the compelling story of Harriet's early life and five of her most significant conservation achievements as founder president of the American Land Conservancy

Seedtime Scott Chaskey, 2014-01-21 Scott Chaskey working farmer poet and spiritual father of the community farming movement considers the web of biodiversity and resilience at the heart of our cultural inheritance by masterfully weaving history politics botany literature mythology and memoir into a beautiful and instructive book It's hard to think of a subject more fundamental to the sustenance of the human race than seeds Having coevolved with the Earth's plants insects and animals seeds are entwined with the core myths of ancient cultures and the development of human consciousness Their story remains vitally important today as the corporations that manufacture GMOs threaten our food security and the future of seed cultivated agriculture The stakes for those concerned with preserving biodiversity and ecological integrity are high Balancing a wide view of politics and history Chaskey alights from life on the farm he has cultivated for 25 years to conjure Gregor Mendel's breeding experiments that yielded our modern understanding of genetics he also introduces us to several bioneers such as the geobotanist Nikolay Vavilov and agriculturalist Cary Fowler who are preserving global biodiversity through seeds Integrating scholarship with accessible storytelling Seedtime is a celebration as well as a call to action urging us to renew our role as citizens of nature in ecologist Aldo Leopold's phrase not as conquerors of it

Dead Reckoning Helen Whybrow, 2005 There are few thrills as exciting as weather at its worst We often hear on the news that the day was the hottest coldest wettest or snowiest on record Is the climate really becoming more extreme as a result of global warming The facts are in this book Extensively illustrated with colour photographs of some of the most extreme weather ever captured on camera more than fifty colour maps and tables of weather records for over three hundred U.S. cities this book is both an entertainment and an indispensable reference Also included are historical examples of some of the more bizarre weather events observed heat bursts electrified dust storms snow rollers pink snowstorms luminous tornadoes falls of fish and toads ball lightning super bolts and other strange

meteorological events Here s the must have book for Weather Channel and Guinness Book of World Records fans Urban Land ,2000      Encyclopedia of Appalachia Rudy Abramson,Jean Haskell,2006 The Encyclopedia details subjects traditionally associated with Appalachia folklore handcrafts mountain music food and coal mining but goes far beyond regional stereotypes to treat such wide ranging topics as the aerospace industry Native American foodways ethnic diversity in the coalfields education reform linguistic variation and the contested notion of what it means to be Appalachian both inside and outside the region Researched and developed by the Center for Appalachian Studies and Services at East Tennessee State University this 1 864 page compendium includes all thirteen states that constitute the northern central and southern subregions of Appalachia from New York to Mississippi With entries on everything from Adventists to zinc mining the Encyclopedia of Appalachia is a one stop guide to all things Appalachian BOOK JACKET      Wilderness Comes Home Christopher McGrory Klyza,2001 The first book to look at wilderness in the northeastern US Wilderness Comes Home features a new approach based on ecological reserve design to protect biological diversity rewilding and restoring lands to wilderness and embedding wilderness in a landscape of sustainably managed farmland and forestland It addresses major theoretical and practical aspects of this important issue whether why and how to reestablish wilderness areas in the Northeast Although Western wilderness models already exist for undeveloped areas Eastern models are still evolving Protection and social management are being urged not for the forest primeval but for recovering areas in which returning species such as moose and peregrine falcons roam over new growth softwoods and hardwoods interspersed with the stone walls that once marked field boundaries      People and Places of Nature and Culture Rod Giblett,2014-05-27 Using the rich and vital Australian Aboriginal understanding of country as a model People and Places of Nature and Culture affirms the importance of a sustainable relationship between nature and culture While current thought includes the mistaken notion perpetuated by natural history ecology and political economy that humans have a mastery over the Earth this book demonstrates the problems inherent in this view In the current age of climate change this is an important appraisal of the relationship between nature and culture and a projection of what needs to change if we want to achieve environmental stability      Voices of the Land Jamie Crelly Purinton,2004 A visual and written tribute Voices of the Land brings together a diverse community who speaks out for greater stewardship of our landscape The authors whether ecologist farmer chef mushroom gatherer architect or writer share of their own unique relationships to the land Together with evocative photographs that detail the intricacies of nature Voices of the Land encourages homeowners to be responsive to the existing character and ecology of the land as it becomes a home All royalties will go to land conservation and preservation efforts
