Poussaint, 1992-11-01 Two of America's most trusted and respected authorities on child care provide answers to nearly 1000 questions on the problem of raising African American children Along with the traditional demands of parenthood today's parents must grapple with such daunting issues as drugs AIDS violence and educational pressures But black parents face an even more challenging task they must actively combat negative messages of racism while teaching their children to succeed in a white dominated culture In this thorough guide to parenting two noted child psychiatrists both African American focus on the special concerns of black parents They offer comprehensive advice on nearly 1 000 common childrearing questions paying particular attention to such problems as building self esteem and helping black children cope with the often unconscious racism and microaggressions of white society Authoritative and comprehensive Raising Black Children is an indispensable resource for every African American family and for teachers of all races who seek to gain sensitivity to the needs of their black pupils A necessary addition to all parenting and parent teacher collections Linda Cullum Library Journal

Why the Center Can't Hold Tom O'Neill, 2016 Things fall apart the centre cannot hold These words from Yeats's poem The Second Coming provide Why the Center Can't Hold with its organizing theme And although Yeats was describing the grim atmosphere of post World War I Europe O'Neill regards the poem's pronouncements as eerily predictive of the state of the world as we are currently observing it O'Neill takes them as predictive of the agency in particular of the United States the Center in bringing about in the world the more general chaos we are now observing relative to various refugee and migrant crises the emergence of sophisticated and even postmodern forms of militant and cyber terrorism banking and other monetary crises environmental catastrophes under the aegis of climate change the defunding of public higher education the persistence of virulent forms of racism and other types of intolerance the concentration of wealth in fewer and fewer hands the marginalisation and even outright elimination of human labor forces etc O'Neill provides historical analyses that illuminate why this is the case and he also asks what changes in the United States in its politics in its socio cultural formations and in its beliefs and supposedly common values might help us to avoid the seemingly inevitable and lamentable destruction that lies ahead

Our Martin Luther King Special Day: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the captivating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. Our Martin Luther King Special Day : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Our Martin Luther King Special Day : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
