Historical Association American Historical Association, 1921 George Washington Barbara J. Mitnick, William S.

Washington's character the clarity of his political purposes and the intensity of his charisma The Journal of Negro History Carter Godwin Woodson, Rayford Whittingham Logan, 1963 The scope of the Journal include the broad range of the study of Afro American life and history The Holiness Revival of the Nineteenth Century Melvin Easterday Dieter, 1996 This new edition expands and updates the only general interpretation of the rise and influence of perfectionist revivalism in America and Europe Fifteen years of expanding research on the holiness movement reinforce this volume's continuing seminal value to cultural and social research The new concluding essay describes the history of the revival through the turn of the century This book expands our understanding of the fragmentation and coalescence of American religion by analyzing the factors which created numerous new holiness denominations Dieter also outlines the historical and theological factors that separate this largely Wesleyan and Methodist wing of evangelicalism from the fundamentalism of Reformed evangelicals The identification of such nuances will prove especially helpful to those struggling with the extreme diversity in American religion especially in evangelicalism For students and scholars of American religious movements as well as students of the feminist temperance abolitionist and populist movements in American society Father James Page Larry Eugene Rivers, 2021-02-02 This first of its kind biography tells the story of Rev James Page who rose from slavery in the nineteenth century to become a religious and political leader among African Americans as well as an international spokesperson for the cause of racial equality Winner of the Rembert Patrick Award by The Florida Historical Society Florida Non Fiction Book Award by the Florida Book Awards Harry T and Harriette V Moore Award by the Florida Historical Society James Page spent the majority of his life enslaved during which time he experienced the death of his free father witnessed his mother and brother being sold on the auction block and was forcibly moved 700 miles south from Richmond VA to Tallahassee FL by his enslaver John Parkhill Page would go on to become Parkhill's chief aide on his plantation and unusually a religious leader who was widely respected by enslaved men and women as well as by white clergy educators and politicians Rare for enslaved people at the time Page was literate and left behind ten letters that focused on his philosophy as an enslaved preacher and later as a free minister educator politician and social justice advocate In Father James Page Larry

supremacy nor a calculating schemer fomenting rebellion Rivers emphasizes Page's agency in pursuing a religious vocation in seeking to exhibit manliness in the face of chattel slavery and in pushing back against the overwhelming power of his enslaver Post emancipation Page continued to preach and to advocate for black self determination and independence through black land ownership political participation and business ownership The church he founded Bethel Missionary Baptist Church in Tallahassee would go on to be a major political force not only during Reconstruction but through today Based upon numerous archival sources and personal papers as well as an in depth interview of James Page and a reflection on his life by a contemporary this deeply researched book brings to light a fascinating life filled with contradictions concerning gender education and the social interaction between the races Rivers biography of Page is an important addition and corrective to our understanding of black spirituality and religion political organizing and civic engagement Alexander Hamilton and the Persistence of Myth Stephen F. Knott, 2002 Knott observes that Thomas Jefferson and his followers and later Andrew Jackson and his adherents tended to view Hamilton and his principles as un American While his policies generated mistrust in the South and the West where he is still seen as the founding plutocrat Hamilton was revered in New England and parts of the mid Atlantic states Hamilton's image as a champion of American nationalism caused his reputation to soar during the Civil War at least in the North However in the wake of Gilded Age excesses progressive and populist political leaders branded Hamilton as the patron saint of Wall Street and his reputation began to disintegrate BOOK JACKET female imagery as a pictorial language of provocative sensuality Van Hook first places the American artists in an international context by discussing the works of their French teachers including Jean L on G r me and Alexandre Cabanel She goes on to explore why they soon had to distance themselves from that context primarily because their art was perceived as either openly sensual or too obliquely foreign by American audiences Van Hook delineates the modes of representation the American painters chose which ranged from the more traditional allegorical or mythological subjects to a decorative figure painting indebted to Whistler Changing American culture ultimately rejected these idealized female images as too genteel and eventually too academic and European Angels of Art is the first study to discuss the predominance of images of women across stylistic boundaries and within the wider context of European art It relies heavily on contemporary sources both to document critical responses and to find intersecting patterns in attitudes toward women and art Library of the World's Best Literature, Ancient and Modern: Biographical dictionary Charles Dudley Warner,Hamilton Wright Mabie,Lucia Isabella Gilbert Runkle,George Henry Warner,1902 Library of the World's Best Literature: Biographical dictionary Charles Dudley Warner,Hamilton Wright Mabie,Charles Henry Warner,Lucia Isabella Gilbert Runkle,1897 Library of the World's Best Literature, Ancient and Modern: Dictionary of authors Charles Dudley Warner,Hamilton Wright Mabie,Lucia Isabella Gilbert Runkle,George Henry Warner,1897
