Nouwen, 2002 The late Henri Nouwen is one of this century's greatest spiritual writers and in one volume are included two of his most inspirational pastoral works The Life of the Beloved asks how one can live a spiritual life in a completely secular culture Our Greatest Gift is a meditation on dying and caring for the dying and is a classic essay on death and how to die well This comes directly out of Nouwen's personal experience of being with the dying and asks How can my death become fruitful in the lives of others Two classics in one volume by a deep and profound thinker

Wounded Prophet Michael Ford, 2009-03-04 Henri Nouwen a Dutch Roman Catholic priest was one of the most beloved and important spiritual writers of the twentieth century Since his death in 1996 his stature has only increased and his books including The Inner Voice of Love The Wounded Healer and The Return of the Prodigal Son have become cherished classics For thousands of readers around the world Nouwen's influence as a teacher and author is considered equal to or greater than that of the century's great spiritual writers C S Lewis and Thomas Merton Although Nouwen could be radically revealing about his personal thoughts and struggles there are nonetheless gaps in our understanding of who he was With Wounded Prophet readers are given the first extensive look into this man who touched so many not only through his own words but most powerfully through the eyes of those around the world who knew Nouwen best While researching this compelling biography BBC producer Michael Ford conducted wide ranging interviews with Nouwen's friends colleagues and family members What he discovered was far more compelling than what he had imagined Though Nouwen was indeed the generous and loving man many thought he was he was also never able to find consistent peace in his own life Tormenting him were profound feelings of anxiety insecurity and loneliness This portrait gives an honest and well balanced account of Nouwen's life that leaves no stone unturned investigating his childhood his family his sexuality and his life as a priest and member of the L'Arche Daybreak community in Toronto

The Passionate Bride Alan Davey, Elizabeth Davey, 2019-03-25 St Paul's Letter to the Ephesians is a bold declaration of love We were in the ruminations of Abba before the stardust formed into galaxies and the earth coalesced into its present shape Indeed Abba's dream for his people already existed in those primordial days Today we have the opportunity to wake up and embrace his dream with enthusiasm and intentionality As members of his church individually and collectively we want to embrace God's desire for a dynamic people infused with his passionate love The church as the bride of Christ is a powerful metaphor engaging the apostle as he writes his letter Paul's passion becomes ours as we meditate on his words which evoke spiritual desire It is in this relationship of love that the central purpose of our lives is found As we gratefully receive Christ's amity and as his bride returns it so the entire earth is enflamed with the fires of his love At the same time we recognize it is a mystery this love between Abba and his church When we receive and reflect Christ's overtures of love as a community of faith a synergy is created and released through the interconnectedness of our gifts talents and zeal The church contains the spiritual energy of a nuclear explosion and when it detonates it releases a fallout of love mercy and compassion bringing healing to the world and drawing others to the divine presence

Sacred Fire Ronald Rolheiser, 2017-03-14 When one reaches the highest degree of human maturity one has only one question left How can I be helpful TERESA OF VILA Beloved author Ronald Rolheiser continues his search for an accessible and penetrating Christian spirituality in this highly anticipated follow up to the contemporary classic The Holy Longing With his trademark acuity wit and thoughtfulness Rolheiser shows how identifying and embracing discipleship will lead to new heights of spiritual awareness and maturity In this new book Rolheiser takes us on a journey through the dark night of the senses and of the spirit Here we experience the full gamut of human life pleasure and fervor disillusionment and boredom But as Rolheiser explains when we embrace the struggle and yearning to know God we can experience too a profound re understanding to our daily lives What lies beyond the essentials the basics Rolheiser writes Where do we go once some of the basic questions in our lives have been answered or at least brought to enough peace that our focus can shift away from ourselves to others Where do we go once the basic questions in our lives are no longer the restless questions of youthful insecurity and loneliness Who am I Who loves me How will my life turn out Where do we go once the basic question in life becomes How can I give my life away more purely and more meaningfully How do I live beyond my own heartaches headaches and obsessions so as to help make other people's lives more meaningful The intent of this book is to try to address exactly those questions How can we live less self centered more mature lives What constitutes deep maturity and how do we reach that place And not unimportantly what constitutes a more adult Christian discipleship What constitutes a truly mature following of Jesus As the poet Rainer Maria Rilke suggests Live the questions now In Sacred Fire Rolheiser s deeply affecting prose urges us on in pursuit of the most holy of all passions a deep and lasting intimacy with God

The Architecture of Truth Rodger Woodworth,2023-08-11 Today we are battered with a never ending barrage of competing truths Social media overwhelms us with topics on how to live our best lives but eventually we discover just how conflicting these truths really are With this constant stream of incompatible assertions it is difficult to find footing in the architecture of truth It almost seems that objective truth has been put on trial Untruths are being promoted by politicians quest for power and populism s drive for attention The idea that there are many different truths seems appropriate for today s pluralistic world but when we can define our own truth truth is derived from the one with the loudest voice The apostle Paul addresses these issues in his letter to Titus exhorting him to teach them to know the truth because false teachers were turning whole families away from the truth and they do it only for money In his effort to refute error and unmask falsehood Paul gives one of the most condensed and yet comprehensive summaries of the gospel in Titus 3 1 8 In this passage the apostle constructs the architecture of truth that teaches us to live a life different than the world of untruths around us

The Essential Henri Nouwen Henri Nouwen,2009-12-01 We always have a choice to live the moment as a cause of resentment or as a cause for joy Henri Nouwen 1932 1996 The insights of Henri Nouwen have shown millions of people how to choose joy in any moment even moments full of pain and brokenness Few spiritual writers have ever spoken so powerfully and directly to the heart as he did in part because he compassionately bared his own soul and struggles to his readers but also because he deeply understood that God can be discovered in every aspect of ourselves even almost especially in the parts we find difficult to acknowledge This anthology of Nouwen s teaching covers all his major themes God love life death psychology woundedness healing and social action and is drawn from among his more than forty books It s the perfect compact introduction to this brilliant and humble Catholic priest whom Christianity Today called one of the world s great spiritual writers

For those who have experienced miscarriage, stillbirth, or the death of a child within the first year, this gentle resource offers stories of hope and wisdom, practical advice and guidance based on the experience of many, comfort and ways to honor and remember. Naming the Child creates a community of love and support for bereaving parents and siblings, written with a light touch and sensitive spirit. When I was nineteen weeks pregnant with my second child, Emma, I had a miscarriage. It's impossible to know ahead of time how such an experience will impact you or your marriage. I recognized many of the challenges I faced in Naming the Child. I can say with confidence that this is an amazing resource. Amy Wilson, lawyer and mother of three. Jesus Wept Gregory Wynot, 2006-11 One of the less formal but most important functions of parish ministry entails providing counseling to parishioners in need of sympathetic hearing and understanding, advice from someone they personally know and trust. Jesus Wept provides a theological, psychological, and doctrinal foundation of the Eastern Orthodox Christian view of death that counselors can pass along to help the bereaved place the decedent's passing into proper spiritual context. It also discusses the psychological, functional, and spiritual aspects of the Eastern Orthodox funeral services. Author Gregory P. Wynot Sr. focuses on the especially traumatic circumstances connected with the death of a family member or loved one and details the stages of dying and the grieving process. He also discusses how to diagnose and categorize different kinds of grief as well as how best to approach specific situations. Finally, Wynot looks at the impact of bereavement counseling on the counselor who must find a delicate balance between being a spiritual father and psychological caregiver. Also included are resource appendices and a bibliography for further reading. Jesus Wept is an invaluable resource that can ease the burden of what is certainly one of the most challenging tasks any counselor is called upon to perform. Memento Mori in Contemporary Art Taylor Worley, 2019-11-28 This book explores how four contemporary artists: Francis Bacon, Joseph Beuys, Robert Gober, and Damien Hirst pursue the question of death through their fraught appropriations of Christian imagery. Each artist is shown to not only pose provocative theological questions but also to question the abilities of theological speech to adequately address current attitudes to death. When set within a broader theological context around the thought of death, Bacon's works invite fresh readings of the New Testament's narration of the betrayal of Christ, and Beuys's works can be appreciated for the ways they evoke Resurrection to envision possible futures for Germany in the aftermath of war. Gober's immaculate sculptures and installations serve to create alternative religious environments and these places are both evocative of his Roman Catholic upbringing and virtually haunted by the ghosts of his excommunication from that past Lastly and perhaps most problematically Hirst has built his brand as an artist from making jokes about death By opening fresh arenas of dialogue and meaning making in our society and culture today the rich humanity of these artworks promises both renewed depths of meaning regarding our exit from this world as well as how we might live well within it for the time that we have As such it will be a vital resource for all scholars in Theology the Visual Arts Material Religion and Religious Studies      Dare to Journey with Henri Nouwen Charles Ringma, 2014-02-27 Written as a set of conversations with Henri Nouwen these daily readings will transport you from a state of spiritual restlessness and seeking to retreat renewal reevaluation and prayer Includes a bibliography notes a brief introduction to Henri Nouwen and an index for easy reference
