Women are taught to speak up develop confidence leverage their strengths polish their interpersonal skills widen their competencies and fight to sit at the table But once they make it to that executive chair they rarely examine the unspoken dynamics that impact their success The silencing of female voices is an all too common epidemic preventing women from harnessing their full capabilities and leading with maximum potential This phenomenon of isolating women by subduing their voices is a decades old tradition It can be impossible to avoid encounters organizational cultures and even feelings of self suppression that all foster silencing It is no longer about questioning competency or confidence It is about understanding the complex factors and biases that are deeply embedded in relationships between men and women amongst women and within the dynamics of systems and the self that allows for this trend to continue despite growing successes in equity Carrie Lynn Arnold examines silencing which is essential to name and recognize as a pre requisite to effective leadership By understanding where we have been before we may fully appreciate and call attention to where we need to go Regardless of your gender or whether you are an emerging leader or a CEO of a large corporation the silencing virus is capable of infecting everyone Silenced and Sidelined explores what it means to feel suppressed giving words to the experience so that leaders can begin different types of conversations about voice and leadership There are no shortcuts or simple easy steps this call to leadership is a call for courage It requires the ability to communicate with a voice that carries currency one people will not just hear but follow Given the complexity of our world and the challenges society faces we can no longer afford leaders with silenced voices

Jung and Levinas Frances Gray, 2015-11-19 This book brings C G Jung into conversation with the French philosopher Emmanuel Levinas taking a radical view of post modernist theory which the author argues is relentlessly introverted Frances Gray presents completely new research which extends analytical psychology into the world of dispute resolution in mediation within a deeply philosophical framework Arguing that mediation is a therapeutics that entails a psycho social archaeology which in turn requires recognition of the foundational roles of sex gender time and narrative in inter subjective relationships this book develops Jung s approach to projection as an ethical process that assumes the presence of a sex gendered Other Chapters explore the possibility of a psycho social archaeology through development of the argument that a radical turn to the fundamentals of our own consciousnesses can open up a landscape on which we begin to fashion the moral courage necessary for the practice of alternative dispute resolution in mediation This book highlights Jung s contention that withdrawal of projection is a fundamentally moral endeavour and that although Levinas face of the Other can be seen as a way of acknowledging the Otherness of the Other there are limits to its application in Jungian thinking This book maintains that the face of the Other is critical to any moral encounter and above all brings us to the transformational possibilities of the process of dispute resolution in mediation Jung and Levinas will appeal to researchers students and practitioners of analytical psychology dispute resolution applied ethics conflict studies and transformation

To Tell the Story C. Thomas Elkins, 2011-02-10 Those of us hearing a Well Told Story may become more aware of the Implications of that story than by a mere recital of facts The use of the Story Form of relating an event may be the best method of capturing the significance of the actual event In the understanding and presentation of the Christian faith Story is considered as a fundamental category of reality It is the perfect vehicle for presenting the Good News of the Gospel John Paul Roth The presentation of real events in story form preserves the remembrance of reality without limiting its implications to the mere recording of historical facts The Gospel story carries us beyond the realm of human understanding into the higher realm of faith The power of story assists us in bridging the gap between the inexplicable in the Gospel Story and the human experience This holds true with the stories which accompany and support the underlying Story of God in Jesus Christ True stories as is the Gospel Story will take precedence over stories told only for entertainment or to serve a specific agenda Yet even the stories of integrity and truth need to be told well and with skill This is discussed in detail herein As Theologians we must tell the Story with truth and understanding as Evangelists with persuasiveness and tolerance and as Preachers or Witnesses we must share the Story often convincingly and with Love Loving God loving each other and the Story never ends Story Katie
