Our Mothers House:

Our Mother's House Julian Gloag, 2012-04-16 Mother died at five fifty eight So begins this story of seven extraordinary children who faced with the unknown terrors of an orphanage decide not to report their mother's death They bury her in the garden telling people only that she's too sick to have visitors Then a menacing stranger appears claiming to be their father He agrees to keep their secret and from that moment the story moves relentlessly to its mesmerizing climax In Our Mothers' House Patricia Polacco, 2025-04-01 A heartwarming story of family love and celebrating what makes us special from master storyteller Patricia Polacco author of Thank You Mr Falker Marmee Meema and the kids are just like any other family on the block In their cozy home they cook dinner together they laugh together they dance and play together But one family doesn't accept them Maybe because they think they are different How can a family have two moms and no dad But Marmee and Meema's house is full of love And they teach their children that different doesn't mean wrong No matter how many moms or dads they have they are everything a family is meant to be Now with questions at the back of the book to help guide readers through discussions about the ideas featured in the story this kindness edition of In Our Mothers House brings celebrated author illustrator Patricia Polacco's work to a new audience of young readers who can be inspired by its message of a wonderful family living by its own rules held together by a very special love My Mother's House and Sido

Colette, 2002-06-20 In My Mother's House and Sido Colette plays fictional variations on the themes of childhood family and above all her mother Vividly alive fond of cities music theater and books Sido devoted herself to her village Saint Saveur to her garden with its inhabitants and its animals and especially to her children particularly her youngest whom she called Minet Ch ri Unlike Gigi and Ch ri which focus largely on sexual love and its repercussions My Mother's House and Sido center on the compelling figure of a powerful nurturing woman in late nineteenth century rural France conveying the impact she had on her community and on her daughter who grew up to be a great writer In My Mother's House Blaque

Diamond, 2010-04-23 There was this one time when I was going into the basement to finish my laundry when I saw Popcorn jump on the bed Quick turned his back and his friend the little weasel just sat there acting like he was watching TV I asked what was going on and of course they said nothing so I went outside only to learn that they were in the basement mixing up their drugs They told me that Popcorn was paid to hold the stuff and if anyone came down stairs she should get rid of it Why would she do this here why would Quick have it here at all He could have rented an apartment and had his shop set up there but instead he decided to do his business from the house we grew up in the house the neighborhood grew up in IN MY MOTHER'S HOUSE In Her Mother's House Wendy Ho, 1999 Unwilling to see Asian American women silenced beneath the noisy discourses of feminists cultural nationalists and Eurocentric historians Wendy Ho turns to specific spoken stories of mothers and daughters Against reductive tendencies of scholarship she places her own conversations with her China born grandmother and her U S born mother and her own readings of other Asian American women writers She finds in the writings of Maxine Hong Kingston Amy Tan and Fae Myenne Ng not only complex mother daughter relationships but many faceted relationships to fathers family community and culture Always resisting the simplistic explanations In Her Mother s House brings Asian American women s experience as mothers and daughters to the forefront of gender and ethnicity The Lives Our Mothers Leave Us Patti Davis,2010-05 Compiled by the daughter of Ronald and Nancy Reagan this collection features prominent women discussing the complex humorous and ultimately loving relationships they have with their mothers Contributors include Candice Bergen Lily Tomlin and Lorna Luft Our Mothers' War Emily Yellin,2010-05-11 Our Mothers War is a stunning and unprecedented portrait of women during World War II a war that forever transformed the way women participate in American society Never before has the vast range of women s experiences during this pivotal era been brought together in one book Now Our Mothers War re creates what American women from all walks of life were doing and thinking on the home front and abroad These heartwarming and sometimes heartbreaking accounts of the women we have known as mothers aunts and grandmothers reveal facets of their lives that have usually remained unmentioned and unappreciated Our Mothers War gives center stage to one of WWII s most essential fighting forces the women of America whose extraordinary bravery strength and humanity shine through on every page The Names of My Mothers Dianne Sanders Riordan,2013-11-19 The Names of My Mothers is the touching story of the tender and all too brief relationship forged late in life between Dianne Riordan nee Susanne Sanders and her birth mother In 1942 Elizabeth Bynam Sanders was a young woman who left home under false pretenses and travelled to Our Lady of Victory a home for unwed mothers in upstate New York Shortly after surrendering her daughter for adoption she returned to her life in Johnston County North Carolina She never married and never had another child of her own This powerful and moving memoir speaks of the profound need for connection It is a story about identity the hunger we feel for a sense of belonging and the ineffable significance of blood Readings with our mothers on women of the Bible Grace Habershon,1889 World of Our Mothers Miguel Montiel,Yvonne de la Torre Montiel,2022-09-20 World of Our Mothers Mexican Revolution Era Immigrants highlights the largely forgotten stories of forty five women immigrants Through interviews in Arizona mining towns Phoenix barrios selected areas of California Texas and the Midwest we learned how they negotiated their lives with their circumstances The World of Our Mothers Sydney Stahl Weinberg,1988 Chronicling the lives of Jewish immigrant women from their origins in Russia and Poland to their resettlement in the United States in the early twentieth century this compelling history shows ordinary women living in extraordinary times Illustrated Our Mothers, Our Powers, Our Texts Teresa N. Washington,2015-12-23 Blazes a new trail in Africana literary criticism by providing an insight into the soul and spirit of Africana womanhood Anthonia Kalu The Ohio State University author of Women Literature and Development in Africa This is the revised and expanded edition of Teresa N Washington s groundbreaking book Our Mothers Our Powers Our Texts Manifestations of Aje in Africana Literature In Yoruba language and culture Aje signifies both a phenomenal spiritual power and the human beings who exercise that power Aje is the birthright of Africana women who are revered as the Gods of Society While Africana men can have Aje its owners and controllers are Africana women Because it is an African female power and due to its invisibility ubiquity and profundity Aje is often maligned as witchcraft However as Teresa N Washington reveals in Our Mothers Our Powers Our Texts Aje is central to the Yoruba ethos worldview and cosmology Not only is it essential to human creation and artistic creativity but as a force of justice and retribution Aje is vital to social harmony and balance Washington analyzes forms figures and forces of Aje in the Yoruba world in the Caribbean Islands in Latin America and in African America Washington s research reveals that with the exile and enslavement of millions of Africans Aje became a global force and an essential ally in organizing insurrections soothing shattered souls and reminding the dispossessed of their inherent divinity From her in depth exploration of Aje in Pan African history and orature Washington guides readers through rich analyses of the symbolic methodological and spiritual manifestations of Aje that are central to important works by Africana writers but are rarely elucidated by Western criticism Our Mothers Our Powers Our Texts includes innovative readings of works by many Africana writers including Zora Neale Hurston Toni Morrison Ben Okri Wole Soyinka Jamaica Kincaid and Ntozake Shange This revised and expanded edition of Our Mothers Our Powers Our Texts will appeal to scholars of Africana literature African religion and philosophy gender studies and comparative literature Devotees of Africana spiritual systems will find this book to be indispensable

Our Mothers' Shadow Bonita Constance, 2006-01-30 A secret society of women borne of gender oppression and brutality in the form of forced female circumcision existed for centuries in Africa They arrive on American soil via the slave trade adapting and ultimately thriving in the new world Today four young women raised together within the society try to fit in however their unusual upbringing their entry into womanhood and the unorthodox manner in which they relate to the world around them marks them and ultimately takes a tragic toll on most of their lives Ania the most intuitively gifted is the glue that holds the four together Strange conflicted and unabashedly sexual Ania must balance her desire to join the innermost circle of the society with a perverse rebellious streak which makes her long for fulfillment in other areas of her life Ania s rebellious streak prompts her as an adult attorney to take a case defending a man accused of sexual contact with a minor female in the post Megan s Law era Ania doesn t notice that a terrible storm is brewing within the societyCa storm which will plunge her headfirst into a whirlwind of events that will mark her life and very soul in a manner she never imagined possible
