Painted Desert Clark Gable On Film:

Clark Gable in the 1930s James L. Neibaur, 2021-03-25 The 1930s represented the strongest and most significant decade in Clark Gable's career. Later known as The King of Hollywood, Gable started out as a journeyman actor who quickly rose to the level of star and then icon. With his ruggedly attractive looks and effortless charisma, Gable was the sort of manly romantic lead that bolstered features alongside the likes of Jean Harlow, Joan Crawford, and Spencer Tracy. The decade culminated with Gable's most noted movie, Gone With the Wind. This book traces Gable's early career, film by film, offering background information and a critical assessment of each of his movies released during the 1930s. Clark Gable, in Pictures Christopher J. Spicer, 2011-10-14 From the very beginning of Clark Gable's screen career, the life of the glamorous film star came under the scrutiny of the camera. While audiences are familiar with the public Gable as seen through the studio lens, the private Gable as seen in photos taken by members of the public, friends, and family is much less known. This collection of candid photographs, many of them published here for the first time, has been compiled by biographer Christopher J. Spicer from his archives and from sources around the world. As with Spicer's acclaimed centenary biography Clark Gable, McFarland 2002, this volume provides rare insight into the life of the man behind the star. The Painted Desert Scott Thybony, 2015-11-01 Most people who are familiar with the Painted Desert of northeastern Arizona know it only from having pulled off at the Petrified Forest exit on Interstate 40. If they happen to come by it at midday, as most do, they find a landscape drained of color and flattened under the direct sunlight. But this remote pocket of the Arizona desert, sandwiched between the Little Colorado River on one side and bold escarpments on the other, is much more than most tourists ever experience. An ethereal landscape of sculpted rock, wind-fluted cliffs, and elegantly drifting sand, the Painted Desert is a rich storehouse of natural beauty, colorful history, and scientific wonders. Here the strongest winds in Arizona blow across extensive dunefields where less than ten inches of rain falls each year, and only a few desert-savvy Navajo are able to live. Now for the first time, award-winning writer Scott Thybony and freelance photographer David Edwards offer an intimate look at a place that remains inhospitable and inaccessible to so many. They share insights about the geology, paleontology, anthropology, and human history of the region, as well as personal stories that dispel the misconceptions and mysteries that surround this delicate and difficult landscape. With fifteen stunning photographs gracing the text, this book offers a vibrant portrait of one of the Southwest's most barren and most colorful landscapes. Clark Gable David Bret, 2008-10-22 From the acclaimed author of Joan Crawford comes a riveting and uncensored biography of Clark Gable. The archetypal male of his era, Gable was named King of Hollywood in 1938. But as David Bret reveals, the star was not quite who he seemed. One of Gable's best-kept secrets was his bisexuality. Bret recounts Gable's failed marriages to women who turned a blind eye toward his affairs with actors Earl Carroll and Rod La Rocque, among other men. Bret also reveals how a pseudo-sandalous paternity suit and the actor's wartime accomplishments were no more than elaborate publicity stunts created by studio chief Louis B.

Mayer in order to exaggerate Gable's masculinity and heroism in the public eye With passion and accuracy Bret uncovers the truth behind one of Hollywood's biggest stars Clark Gable Paper Dolls in Full Color Tom Tierney,1986-01-01 3 dolls and 32 authentically rendered costumes from Mutiny on the Bounty It Happened One Night Gone with the Wind many more
