The Forger's Creed J. P. Park, 2025-03-04 The first in depth look at the history and legacies of forgeries in Chinese art In 1634 scholar official Zhang Taijie b ca 1588 published a book titled A Record of Treasured Paintings C Baohui lu presenting an extensive catalogue of a purportedly vast painting collection he claimed to have built However the entire book is Zhang's meticulously crafted forgery he even forged paintings to match the documentation and profited from trading them

Furthermore the book intriguingly mirrors unfounded art historical claims of its time Prominent figures like Dong Qichang 1555 1636 made entirely fabricated arguments to assert legitimate lineages in Chinese art designed to create a fictionalized history shaped by preferred beliefs rather than reality While presenting the first comprehensive exploration of various forgery practices in early modern China fabricated texts forged paintings and fictitious art history The Forger's Creed examines the cultural social and genealogical desires anxieties and tensions prevalent in early modern China Through thorough scrutiny of the historical irregularities introduced by these forgeries J P Park highlights a peculiar and paradoxical phenomenon wherein forgeries transform into legitimate materials across Chinese history Modern Chinese Artists

Michael Sullivan, 2006-04-03 An important reference source for scholars and students of modern Chinese art collectors museums and libraries dealers and auction houses It includes biographical entries for approximately 800 Chinese artists who grew up or were trained in China and who are likely to be represented in collections exhibitions and auctions within and outside China Painters and Politics in the People's Republic of China, 1949-1979 Julia Frances Andrews, Andrews, Julia Frances Andrews, Center for Chinese Studies (Ann Arbor, Mich.), 1994-01-01 That Julia Andrews has reached sources that are so sensitive and difficult with such success is remarkable The book is unquestionably a brilliant job well written understandable and of enormous scholarly value Joan Lebold Cohen author of The New Chinese Painting Harmony Garden

J. D. Schmidt, 2013-12-16 This is the first complete study of China's most popular eighteenth century poet in any Western language The work consists of a detailed biography a study of Yuan's revolutionary reinterpretation of Chinese literary theory and an analysis of his many contributions to the more original genres of Qing dynasty 1644 1911 poetry such as narrative historical didactic eccentric and nature verse The study is concluded by a generous and representative sampling of Yuan's poetry in translation the first to do justice to the wide variety and richness of his oeuvre Although many shorter poems are selected this is the first translation to include his outstanding longer poetry Harmony Garden will completely revise current attitudes in the west concerning classical Chinese literature during the eighteenth century a period that was long viewed as one of decline but now appears to equal the golden ages of antiquity Beauty's Personal Expert Wu Mao, 2020-09-08 He was originally one of the top Shadow Guards in China but after being framed by a traitor he was sent to prison However due to his good fortune he managed to obtain an ancient martial arts technique The Goddess of Gold the commoner school beauty the long legged policewoman the flirtatious CEO Powerful men were like the sun they would always attract the love and love of thousands Tao Yuanming and Manuscript Culture Xiaofei Tian, 2011-07-01 Winner of a 2006 Choice Magazine Outstanding Academic Title Award As medieval Chinese manuscripts were copied and recopied through the centuries both mistakes and deliberate editorial changes were introduced thereby affecting readers' impressions of the author's intent In Tao Yuanming and Manuscript Culture Xiaofei Tian shows how readers not only experience authors but produce them by shaping texts to their interpretation Tian examines the mechanics and history of textual transmission in China by focusing on the evolution over the centuries of the reclusive poet Tao Yuanming into a figure of epic stature Considered emblematic of the national character Tao Yuanming also known as Tao Qian 365-427 c.e. is admired for having turned his back on active government service and city life to live a simple rural life of voluntary poverty The artlessness of his poetic style is held as the highest literary and moral ideal and literary critics have taken great pains to demonstrate perfect consistency between Tao Yuanming's life and poetry Earlier work on Tao Yuanming has tended to accept this image interpreting the poems to confirm the image Tao Yuanming and Manuscript Culture is a study of how this cultural icon was produced and of the elusive traces of another historical Tao Yuanming behind the icon By comparing four early biographies of the poet Tian shows how these are in large measure constructed out of Tao Yuanming's self image as projected in his poetry and prose Drawing on work in European medieval literature she demonstrates the fluidity of the Chinese medieval textual world and how its materials were historically reconfigured for later purposes Tian finds in Tao's poetic corpus not one essentialized Tao Yuanming but multiple texts continuously produced long after the author's physical demise Her provocative look at the influence of manuscript culture on literary perceptions transcends its immediate subject and has special resonance today when the transition from print to electronic media is shaking the literary world in a way not unlike the transition from handwritten to print media in medieval China Xu Bing and Contemporary Chinese Art Hsingyuan

Tsao, Roger T. Ames, 2011-09-01 How Chinese is contemporary Chinese art Treasured by collectors, critics and art world cognoscenti this art developed within an avant garde that looked West to find a language to strike out against government control Traditionally Chinese artistic expression has been related to the structure and function of the Chinese language and the assumptions of Chinese natural cosmology Is contemporary Chinese art rooted in these traditions or is it an example of cultural self-colonization Contributors to this volume address this question going beyond the more obvious political and social commentaries on contemporary Chinese art to find resonances between contemporary artistic ideas and the indigenous sources of Chinese cultural self-understanding Focusing in particular on the acclaimed artist Xu Bing this book looks at how he and his peers have navigated between two different cultural sites to establish a third place a place from which to appropriate Western ideas and use them to address centuries-old Chinese cultural issues within a Chinese cultural discourse
