Carter, 2011 Instincts shape who we are as leaders They encapsulate the social variety we exhibit to others from the servant to the tyrant Though they are integrated into our every thought and deed we are relatively unaware of what they are or how they impact us Perhaps the frenzied lives we lead are to blame or maybe we spend too much time developing the veneer of leadership rather than excavating its core substance No matter the cause each day we are presented opportunities to make differences in the lives we touch As we awaken to the reality that who we are on the inside has a direct role in what we project on the outside we will have begun the process of apprehending Untamed Leadership Pit Bull Bronwen Dickey, 2016-05-10 The hugely illuminating story of how a popular breed of dog became the most demonized and supposedly the most dangerous of dogs and what role humans have played in the transformation When Bronwen Dickey brought her new dog home she saw no traces of the infamous viciousness in her affectionate timid pit bull Which made her wonder How had the breed beloved by Teddy Roosevelt Helen Keller and Hollywood's Little Rascals come to be known as a brutal fighter Her search for answers takes her from nineteenth century New York City dogfighting pits the cruelty of which drew the attention of the recently formed ASPCA to early twentieth century movie sets where pit bulls cavorted with Fatty Arbuckle and Buster Keaton from the battlefields of Gettysburg and the Marne where pit bulls earned presidential recognition to desolate urban neighborhoods where the dogs were loved prized and sometimes brutalized Whether through love or fear hatred or devotion humans are bound to the history of the pit bull With unfailing thoughtfulness compassion and a firm grasp of scientific fact Dickey offers us a clear eyed portrait of this extraordinary breed and an insightful view of Americans relationship with their dogs
