River Magic:

River Magic Martha Hix, 1995-04-01 India Marshall took one look at the Union Army's Rock Island Prison Camp on the banks of the Mississippi and prayed for strength. The determined Confederate belle had vowed to set her brother free at any cost. If she could somehow entice Major Connor O'Brien into trusting her, she might be able to stage a prison break until she found herself caught between fear and desire, desperation and a passion that promised to break her heart. West Point soldier Connor O'Brien fought for the North even though his big brawling family came from Tennessee. He had mixed feelings about guarding this prison camp but no doubts about the southern charmer who was placing both their lives at risk. Now, as the dark currents of war and treachery swept them toward certain betrayal, Connor and India were trapped between the loyalties they held dear and the love they could no longer resist.

River Magic Ellen Booraem, 2021-04-27 Magic moves in next door in this hilarious and heartfelt middle grade fantasy about a resourceful girl battling a temperamental thunder wizard. Donna's always liked her life by the river that is until her beloved aunt Annabelle died in a tragic kayaking accident. Now money's tight, her mom works all the time, and her best friend Rachel would rather hang out with her basketball teammates than with Donna. When a strange old woman moves in next door and hires Donna to clean part time, she figures this is the perfect chance to get over her friendship troubles and help her family out, especially since the woman pays in gold. Turns out Donna's new neighbor is an ancient ornery thunder mage, and it doesn't take much to make her angry. Before Donna knows it, Rachel is in danger, and Donna's family is about to lose their home. To save the day, Donna will need the help of a quirky new friend and the basketball team, plus the mysterious powerful creature lurking in the river.

Severn River Magic Amelia Khatri, 2025-02-14 Severn River Magic explores the profound mythological significance of the River Severn in Celtic spirituality and history. The book reveals the river's deep connection to powerful goddesses and ancient beliefs, positioning it as more than a geographical feature but a vibrant participant in religious life. Discover how ancient cultures interacted with their environment and how these interactions shaped their belief systems. The book highlights the River Severn as a focal point embodying divine feminine energy and serving as a conduit for interaction with mythological figures. The book's approach involves analyzing ancient texts, archaeological findings, and local folklore to support its arguments. It's structured in four parts, starting with an introduction to Celtic religion and mythology before delving into specific figures associated with the river, like Sabrina. It then broadens the scope to explore the general significance of rivers in Celtic spirituality, emphasizing their role as sacred spaces. The concluding section reflects on the enduring legacy of these beliefs and their relevance to contemporary spirituality, making it valuable for those interested in British history, religious studies, and paganism.

Marketing, Rhetoric and Control Christopher Miles, 2018-04-19 Marketing Rhetoric and Control investigates the tensions that surround the place of persuasion and more broadly control in marketing Persuasion has variously been seen as an embarrassment to the discipline a target for anti marketing sentiment the source of marketing's value in the modern organisation a mysterious black box inside the otherwise rational and logical endeavour of enterprise and a rather insignificant part of the marketing programme This book argues that this multifarious reputation for persuasion within marketing stems from the influence of two quite oppositional paradigms the scientific and the magico rhetorical that ebb and flow across the discourses of its discipline and practice Constructing an interface between original challenging close readings of texts from the beginnings of the Western rhetorical tradition and an examination of the ways in which marketing has set about describing itself this text argues for a Sophistic interpretation of marketing From this perspective marketing is understood as providing intermediary services to facilitate the continuing exchange of attention and regard between firm client and stakeholders It seeks to manage and direct this exchange through an appreciation of the changing rational and irrational motivations of the firm and stakeholders using these as resources for the construction of both planned and improvised persuasive interactions in agonistic or competitive environments This book is aimed primarily at researchers and academics working in the fields of marketing marketing communications and the related disciplines of marketing theory critical marketing and digital marketing It will also be of value to marketing academics in business schools including those working in the areas of media and communication studies who have an interest in commercial and corporate communication brand use of interactive media and communication theory

EPA Journal ,1978 Best Stories for Children Hseham Amrahs, 2025-01-20 This collection is a tapestry woven from the threads of folklore fantasy and life's valuable lessons These stories are not just tales to be read but experiences to be lived each narrative inviting readers to step into the shoes of the characters feel their joys and sorrows and learn from their triumphs and challenges The stories you will find here are as diverse as the world itself From the depths of enchanted forests to the vastness of outer space from the cozy corners of small villages to the bustling streets of magical cities each story invites young readers to explore new horizons and expand their imagination In crafting this collection we aimed to present stories that not only entertain but also educate stories that not only captivate but also inspire These tales are filled with moral lessons and profound insights gently woven into the fabric of storytelling They teach children about the importance of empathy the value of friendship the beauty of diversity and the strength found in embracing one's uniqueness
